

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY

ROOSEVELT ROAD AND LAKE MICHIGAN, CHICAGO

Sixty-third Free Lecture Course—Spring 1935

The following course of nine lectures, illustrated with motion pictures and stereopticon slides, will be given in James Simpson Theatre at Field Museum on Saturday afternoons at 3 o'clock. The theatre will be closed at ten minutes past three, or before, if it is filled.

ADMISSION FREE

March 2—Birds, Bergs and Kodiak Bears

Dr. William Finley, Portland, Oregon

March 9—The New Valley of 10,000 Smokes

Rev. Bernard R. Hubbard, S.J., University of Santa Clara, California

March 16—In the Shadow of the Eastern Gods

Mr. Robert Edison Fulton, Jr., New York City

March 23—Central American Trails

Captain John D. Craig, Hollywood, California

March 30—Modern Pioneering

Mr. Richard Finnie, F.R.G.S., Ottawa, Canada

April 6—Timbuktu and Beyond

Mr. Rudyerd Boulton, Assistant Curator of Birds, Field Museum; Leader of Straus-Field Museum West African Expedition

April 13—The West Indies

Major James C. Sawders, Nutley, New Jersey

April 20—The Canadian Rockies in Pictures and Story

Mr. Dan McCowan, Banff, Canada

April 27—The Buried Cities of Ceylon

Dr. Robert McMurry, New York City

The adult public is cordially invited to attend these lectures

STEPHEN C. SIMMS, Director

Oregonian
William L. Finley,
Naturalist, to Be
Forum Speaker

3-9-35

William L. Finley, American naturalist and wild life photographer, will speak at the members' forum luncheon of the Portland Chamber of Commerce in the Portland hotel at noon today on "Oregon's Greatest Gold Mine: Her Outdoors."

Last month Mr. Finley entertained President Roosevelt for two hours with his pictures and discussion of bird and animal life and the necessary steps for perpetuating it.

He will be introduced at the luncheon today by H. B. Van Duzer.

FINLEY TO LECTURE

William L. Finley will lecture tonight at 8:15 o'clock at the Elks temple on birds and wild life. The lecture will be accompanied with moving pictures. The lecture will form part of an entertainment given by Portland Elks in honor of Mr. Finley, who is a member of the lodge. J. B. Ofner, exalted ruler, announced that the meeting will be open to Elks and their families and friends. Oregonian—Mar. 21-1935

Chicago American
Finley Lectures Will Start Tomorrow

William L. Finley of Portland, Ore., will lecture tomorrow afternoon at Field Museum on "Birds, Bergs and Kodiak Bears." Mr. Finley, a well known naturalist and explorer, is presenting the first of a series of nine Saturday afternoon Spring lectures. The lecture begins at 3 o'clock and will be illustrated by moving pictures.