Oregon State University

Oregon State University, the oldest, largest and finest institution of higher learning in the state of Oregon, was established as a land-grant school on October 27, 1868, under the provisions of the Morrill Land Grant Act. It was the state's first venture in the field of higher learning and was originally named Corvallis College.

The state wanted to establish a college as early as 1851, and had selected Corvallis, then known as Marysville, as the site. The legislature then reversed itself and decided to construct the college in Jacksonville in southern Oregon.

However, the people of Corvallis went ahead and erected an academy in 1858, operated by the Methodist church. With the adoption of the Morrill act the state took over partial control, and assumed full control in 1885. In 1868 the name was changed to the State Agricultural College of Oregon, later to Oregon Agricultural College, and in 1953 was changed to Oregon State College, although popular acclaim had brought about that name as early as 1927. Just recently it was changed by the state legislature to Oregon State University.

The university campus proper, as well as adjoining agricultural lands, consists of about 4,000 acres, with increases being made yearly as the institution grows in population and need. In addition to the campus area, the Agricultural Experiment station at the university administers and utilizes approximately 24,000 acres, mostly county and federally owned.

The school of forestry owns and administers another 13,300 acres in the Peavy arboretum and the McDonald and other forested areas near Corvallis. These lands are used to teach forestry students actual forest practices through on-the-job training, as well as the research projects for the state and national forest services and the many timber companies located throughout the Northwest.

In addition to the schools of agriculture and forestry, degrees also are given in Humanities and Social Science, Business and Technology, Education, Engineering, Industrial Arts, Home Economics, Pharmacy, Agriculture, Science and the Graduate school. A student indeed has a wide choice of curriculum at OSU, with allied subjects in all fields.

Oregon State University is located in the picturesque city of Corvallis, named for its location in the heart of the Willamette valley of western Oregon. Most recent population of Corvallis was 27,000, making it Oregon's 4th largest city. Metropolitan Portland is only 80 miles to the north and the Pacific ocean 60 miles west. Corvallis lies in between the Cascade and Coast ranges; with agriculture and lumber forming the chief industries.

Over 10,000 students are enrolled for the 1963-64 school year. The university is in the midst of a vast building program with many new dormitories and other structures spread throughout the beautiful campus.

Some of the better-known buildings include the Memorial Union (student union), Benton Hall, the Coliseum, and Agriculture hall, although newer structures such as Cordley Hall are just as eye-catching. Parker stadium, built in 1953 for football, seats 28,000 fans. Dr. James H. Jensen is the president of OSU, while R. S. Keene has been the athletic director since 1947.

GENERAL OUTLOOK

This may well be the "year of indecision" in Oregon State football.

Nobody really knows how good the Beavers will be, nor, for that matter, how bad. About the only point anyone is sure of is that it will be a mighty chore, indeed, to equal last year's great 9-2 campaign that included a Liberty Bowl triumph.

The schedule is much tougher than it was in 1962—there's no question about that. Replacing Idaho on the agenda is Southern Cal, the national champion, and intersectionals are slated with Syracuse, Baylor, Colorado, Indiana, and Utah, not to mention such regular opponents as Washington, Oregon, Washington State and Stanford.

Coach Tommy Prothro attempts to be philosophical in the light of adversity, and especially when the name Terry Baker is mentioned. "We lost him, but the only bright point is that nobody else (college) has him either." In other words, Prothro considers his 1962 Heisman Award winner the finest college back he ever saw..

Sure, Baker is gone, and so are 14 other experienced lettermen from last year, most of them three-year veterans. OSU lost its three best defensive linebackers, both starting guards and a flock of others. On the other side, however, the Beavers have a fair nucleus around which to rebuild and regroup.

The ends are likely to be the best since Prothro came here in 1955, headed, of course, by all-America candidate Vern Burke. This 6-4½, 195 pound senior shattered two all-time existing NCAA records last year, catching 69 aerials for 1007 yards. He made many of the second and third all-America teams and is likely to move up a notch the next time around.

Heir-apparent to the quarterback job, at least on the basis of what he did in the spring alumni game, is junior letterman Gordon Queen from Berkeley, Cal. Queen fired four touchdown passes in the brief time he played as a sophomore, and was terrific in leading the varsity to victory over a star-studded alum squad.

Other returning lettermen are Scott Miller, Len Frketch, Scott Miller, and Doug McDougal, ends; Joe Bonilla, Tom Holley, Rich Koeper and Jeff Harris, tackles; Jerry Neil, Warren Cole, Ron Doman and Al Funston, guards; Hoyt Keeney, Dick Ruhl and Doug Suckling, centers; Dan Sieg, Dan Espalin, Leroy Whittle, Dick Jones, Olvin Moreland, Booker Washington and Bruce Williams, backs.

There may be more size in the line than last year, and possibly more depth; but there won't be as much quickness. In the offensive backfield, there is more speed but less experience. The defensive deep backs pack more experience, but it's just the opposite at linebackers. And so the situation goes..

All things considered, it should be an interesting season.

THUMBNAIL SKETCHES

LEFT END

VERN BURKE, 6-4½, 201, sr. letterman from Bakersfield, Cal. Prime all-America candidate. Caught 69 passes for 1007 yards last year, both all-time NCAA records. Greatest receiver in college history. Fine hands, good moves and quick. SCOTT MILLER, 6-4, 206, Jr. letterman from Kelso, Wash. Good prospect, much bigger than a year ago. AL EAST, 5-11, 181, soph. from Portland. Handicapped by injuries before, but promising. THURMAN BELL, 6-0, 193, soph. from Fresno, Cal. Good possibilities as he gains experience.

LEFT TACKLE

JOE BONILLA, 5-10, 215, sr. let. from Selma, Cal. Hard worker who saw lots of regular duty last year. KEN BRUSVEN, 6-4, 228, jr. transfer from Cabrillo, JC, and from Redwood City. Big and strong. JEFF HARRIS, 6-0, 202, sr. let. from Aberdeen, Wash. Lots of experience and determined. NORM WINTON, 6-3, soph. from Seattle. Looked good as freshman two years ago.

LEFT GUARD

JERRY NEIL, 6-2, 219, sr. let. from Sacramento, Cal. Fine all-around player, definite all-coast possibility if he stays healthy. Has played both end and tackle. WARREN COLE, 6-1, 199, jr. let. from Stockton, Cal. Won outstanding lineman award in Liberty Bowl game. RICK NELSON, 5-11, 210, sr. let. from Salem. Plenty of experience.

CENTER

HOYT KEENEY, 6-3, 209, jr. let. from Portland. Saw lots of service as sophomore and impressive in spring drills. DICK RUHL, 6-1, 208, sr. center from Heppner. Moved from full-back and also defensive linebacker. JACK O'BILLOVICH, 6-0, 202, soph. transfer from Butte, Mont. DOUG SUCKLING, 6-2, 211, jr. let. from Vancouver, Wash.

RIGHT GUARD

RON DOMAN, 5-10, 196, sr. let. from Ontario. Should have best year, with plenty of experience behind him. Quick and hits hard. AL FUNSTON, 5-8, 198, jr. let. from Medford. A lot like Doman, he can also move out well. DON ROBERTS, 6-0, 213, soph. from Salinas, Cal. Can knock people down and bigger than the other two guards..

RIGHT TACKLE

TOM HOLLEY, 6-1, 219, sr. let. from Burbank, Cal. Regular last year until hurt. Had shoulder operation last spring. Big, tough and quick. RICH KOEPER, 6-4, 234, jr. let. from Redwood City, Cal. Has bright future ahead and may find him-

THE COACHES

TOMMY PROTHRO, Head Coach

Tommy Prothro is a born winner—and probably always will be.

He was tops as a player in his days at Duke, served as back-field coach on a national championship club at UCLA and since 1955 has raised Oregon State to the elite ranks of America's top college football teams.

His record at OSU speaks for itself. In eight seasons at the Beavers helms, Prothro's clubs have won 50 times, lost 29 and tied two, and before the old Pacific Coast conference dissolved in 1959, Tommy's teams had won two league titles and one Rose Bowl bid.

Proof that he doesn't rest on his laurels can best be pointed out by the performance of his 1962 outfit that rolled to 9-2 season that included a Liberty Bowl triumph over Villanova. The 1962 Beavers also broke more school offensive records than any Oregon State team in history.

Originally a native of Memphis, Tennessee, Prothro competed in football, basketball and track for Central high school there from 1934 through 1936. He also participated in those sports at Riverside Military Academy in 1936-37-38. Tommy was a star blocking back under Coach Wallace Wade at Duke, playing against Oregon State in the "transplanted" Rose Bowl game of Jan. 1, 1942, at Durham, N. C. He won the Jacobs award as the best blocker in the east, also competing in baseball and lacrosse at Duke from 1938 through 1942, when he graduated.

After a stint as line coach at Western Kentucky, he became a naval officer in World War II. Following discharge in 1946, he coached the Vanderbilt "B" squad and in 1947 became backfield coach there under Red Sanders. Prothro went to UCLA with Sanders in 1949 and remained until he took the head job at OSU in 1955.

Prothro's coaching feats at Oregon State are already legendary. He took a team that had finished in the league cellar the year before and guided it to a second place PCC finish in 1955. Then in 1956, his team went all the way to league crown and Rose Bowl bid. The Beavers swept the conference title again in 1957, but were unable to go back to Pasadena because of the "no-repeat" rule. He has experienced only one season at OSU in which his teams lost more than they won, and a rash of injuries was a prime factor that campaign.

Tommy developed top backs at UCLA such as Paul Cameron, Primo Villanueva and Bob Davenport, and later manufactured another at OSU in Joe Francis, who broke most of the school's individual offensive records as a single-wing tailback.

Then when incomparable Terry Baker came along, Prothro was smart enough to utilize his T-formation talents and switched to a new system. The Beavers won readily, and Baker became the most widely decorated college football player of all time.

Tommy's father, Doc Prothro, is semi-retired and lives in Memphis, along with Tommy's mother. Doc is a former major league baseball player and once managed the Philadelphia Phils of the National league. Tommy's wife is the former Shirley Seagle of Memphis. He has a daughter, Ann, now living in Kentucky.

self this year. Strong and able. DAVE GOULD, 6-1, 220, soph. from North Bend. Red-shirt last year and should be ready now.

RIGHT END

LEN FRKETICH, 6-3, 211, jr. let. from Chino, Cal. Caught 10 passes for 160 yards and three TD's as sophomore. Fine all-around end and sure to take lots of pressure off Burke. DOUG McDUGAL, 6-4½, 213, jr. let. from Portland. One of stars in alumni game. Rangy and good receiver. DAVE DOWNEY, 6-0, 184, jr. from Weed, Cal. Fine performer, but can improve on pass-catching.

QUARTERBACK

GORDON QUEEN, 6-1, 184, jr. let. from Richmond, Cal. Understudy to Heisman Trophy winner Terry Baker last year and did well, tossing 4 TD passes for 213 yards in brief time he played. Strong thrower and good zip as signal-caller. Ready for big challenge ahead. DAN SIEG, 5-9, 173, jr. let. from Medford. Regular wingback last year, but listed here as defensive replacement for Queen. Can play floater-back on offense. Tough, and good blocker. WARREN WOODWORTH, 6-2, 179, soph. from Washougal, Wash. Fair passer, and effective runner. Was ahead of Queen through early part of spring drills.

LEFT HALFBACK

DAN ESPALIN, 5-8, 169, jr. let. from Wilmington, Cal. Tied school record for pass interceptions (9) in 1962. Dependable and tough. Can play either offense or defense. LEROY WHITTLE, 6-1, 184, sr. let. from Berkeley, Cal. Missed spring practice because of knee operation. Carried 81 times for 396 yards and three TD's as junior. Fine speed. DICK JONES, 5-7, 164, sr. let. from Donora, Penn., same home town as Stan Musial. WAYNE DRAKE, 5-9, 178, soph. from Toledo, Ohio. Starred in spring game.

FLOATER-BACK

TIM OSMER, 6-1, 177, soph. from San Jose, Cal. Highly-recommended and may be one of few sophomores to earn starting berth. Lacking only in experience at new position in offensive system. OLVIN MORELAND, 5-11, 179, jr. let. from Los Angeles. Excellent speed and caught six passes for 132 yards last year. JIM SMITH, 6-0, 172, soph. from Sacramento. Won freshman award last year. Good worker, quick and eventually headed for stardom.

FULLBACK

BOOKER M. WASHINGTON, 5-10, 181, jr. let. from Los Angeles. Packed five-yard rushing average as sophomore, gaining 328 yards in 65 carries. Breakaway type runner, dangerous in open field. BRUCE WILLIAMS, 6-0, 202, sr. let. from Auburn, Cal. Bulldozing type fullback, prefers to run over opponents. Great on short-distance yardage. CHARLIE SHAW, 6-0, 184, soph. from Santa Ana, Cal. Blazing speed and needs only experience.

BOB MCKITTRICK

Assistant Coach

A true Tommy Prothro product is hustling Bob McKittrick, who played under his present boss at Oregon State in 1955-57-58, and joined the Beaver staff following discharge from the marine Corps two years ago.

McKittrick hails from Baker, and worked his way up the ladder in OSU football. He saw only 30 minutes service in 1955, but lettered on the Rose Bowl team of 1956 and was a solid regular in 1957, when the Beavers repeated as champions of the PCC. Bob was a guard, and a good one.

Noted for his determined type of play, McKittrick is the same type of coach in spring drills. An excellent student scholastically while an undergraduate, he was a well-rounded man on campus.

McKittrick is married and the father of two children.

JOHN COOPER

Assistant Coach

A new member of the Beaver staff, now in his first season here, is John Cooper from Iowa State University. A native of Knoxville, Tennessee, Cooper went to Iowa State and was a star defensive halfback and offensive taliback under ex-senior assistant, Clay Stapleton. While completing his scholastic work at the Ames school, John was a coaching aide there and came to Oregon State highly recommended by Stapleton.

His work in spring drills indicated Cooper will fit in beautifully at OSU. As one of the younger members of the staff, he combines a warm personality with a fine background gained under Coach Stapleton. He is married and has one child.

JOE FRANCIS

Assistant Coach

The late Red Sanders once referred to Joe Francis as "the greatest single wing tailback of all time." Joe, of course, was a Beaver star under Tommy Prothro in 1955-56-67 and led the Beavers into the Rose Bowl. He later went on to play professional football with the Green Bay Packers and Montreal Alouettes as a T-quarterback, his playing career being cut short by injuries.

Francis is a native of Hawaii, but actually never really achieved grid greatness until he came under Prothro's tutelage at OSU. He gained 208 yards rushing and passing against Iowa in the 1957 Rose Bowl game at Pasadena.

Joe joined the OSU staff in time for spring drills last April and is a welcome addition. He is married, the father of two sons.

BOB ZELINKA

Senior Assistant Coach

Small in size, but a true "fireball" when it comes to coaching zip and determination—that's a brief description of Bob "Tiger" Zelinka, Prothro's capable senior assistant who came here with Tommy in 1955.

Zelinka, though highly firm with the men he coaches, nevertheless has been extremely popular with all. One of his greatest boosters is John Witte, all-American tackle in 1956, who was a Zelinka protege.

The "Tiger" was a prep star in Los Angeles and later became a prize guard at Santa Ana junior college before transferring to UCLA. He played for the Bruins in 1950 and 1951, graduating in 1952. Zelinka assisted with spring practice at UCLA and coached the line for San Diego Navy in 1952-1954. He then returned to UCLA as freshman line coach.

Zelinka, like all the other coaches, is a man devoted to football who can show the players first-hand what he expects them to do. Just as important, he provides much of the spirit so necessary in daily workouts. He is married, and the father of two daughters, and a son.

RON SIEGRIST

Assistant Coach

First player coached by Tommy Prothro at Oregon State to become a member of the Beaver staff—that's the story of young Ron Siegrist, who returned to his alma mater five years ago.

Ron was blocking back, co-captain and signal-caller on Prothro's first OSU team in 1955 that surprised all by finishing second in the PCC race. Prior to that, Siegrist had played t-formation football under Kip Taylor here in 1952 and 1953 but did not participate in 1954.

This offensive line coach was a highly-successful prep mentor at Notre Del Rio high in Sacramento from 1956 through 1958. His last club there was ranked No. 1 Class A in all northern California, as he used the identical system to that he played at OSU.

As a player, Siegrist went all-out on every occasion, and was regarded as one of the sharpest signal-callers in the trade. He is married, and the father of three children.

JERRY LONG

Assistant Coach

A former Oregon State football guard, personable Jerry Long, joined the Beaver staff two years ago after six seasons as line coach at Willamette university in nearby Salem.

Long came to OSU fresh out of Franklin high school in Portland and lettered for the Beavers in 1946 and 1947. He graduated in 1950 and picked up prep coaching experience at Brownsville, Astoria, Rainier and Tigard, before joining Ted Ogdahl as his top aide at Willamette.

A prime student of football, Jerry is also adept stimulating squad spirit and makes a fine running mate in that category for "Tiger" Zelinka. Long also has proved his worth in the recruiting department. He is married and the father of three children.

ATHLETIC STAFF

ROY S. KEENE

Athletic Director

It takes a man well-versed in sports, full of enthusiasm and stocked with background to successfully administrate an athletic department in this fast-stepping modern era of sports.

Such a man is Roy S. "Spec" Keene, athletic director at Oregon State since 1947.

Keene possibly knows more people and has more friends than anybody connected with athletics at OSU. And he has demonstrated administrative sharpness by developing Oregon State's vast athletic program into one of the finest in the nation.

"Spec" of course, is an Oregon Stater from the word go. He was student body president here in 1921, started on the baseball team and was an assistant coach at OSU before he moved on to Willamette University in Salem. At Willamette, his teams were the scourge of the Northwest conference, winning one championship after another.

His loyalty to school, and nation, could never be questioned. Keene was an army lieutenant in World War I and a naval lieutenant-commander in World War II, and served his country well in both cases. Even so, he never lost interest in athletics.

"Spec" became athletic director at OSU in 1947 when the Beavers were experiencing a natural expansion trend in athletics. One important problem was lack of facilities to carry on a program that would rate high nationally. Under his direction and planning, spacious OSU Coliseum was constructed, giving this school one of the finest to be found anywhere. The building opened in December of 1949 and has attracted thousands of people since.

Football needed something better than ancient Bell field, too, and there again Keene recognized the problem. Even better, he did something about it, and spearheaded a drive to obtain a new stadium with seating for 28,000. With contributions from boosters, alums and friends, Oregon State was able to open picturesque Parker stadium in 1953 at no debt to the taxpayers. The plant was paid for when it was built.

Keene, meanwhile, became a key figure nationally in athletics, being on the executive committee of the NCAA, and also chairman of the selection committee for the Western Regional NCAA basketball tournament. In addition, he was a past president of the Pacific Coast conference athletic directors association.

JIM BARRATT, athletic business manager and Keene's top aide, year in and year out tackles one of the toughest assignments of all—making people happy. He's overseer of all ticket sales and various other promotions connected with the athletic program. His unbounding enthusiasm and attention to details helps establish Jim as one of the top men in his field. He wears a broad smile at all times and is a firm believer in strong public relations. Barratt originally is from Heppner where he was a high school star in football, basketball, tennis and track, winning 10 varsity awards. Jim served in the navy in World War II, and graduated from OSU in 1950. He was editor of the Daily Barometer, official school publication at OSU, his senior year and a member of virtually every honor organization on campus. Jim first became assistant alumni director in 1950, moving to the athletic department at the close of the 1951 football season. He still keeps a hand in the coaching line, however, as golf coach.

PAST SCORES:

(Oregon State and Baylor have never met previously in football competition)

BILL ROBERTSON, trainer, has been chief of the OSU tape brigade for 17 years, and long has been one of the most popular citizens in the Corvallis community. Famous for his always well-received vocal rendition of "Casey At The Bat" and dozens of other recitations, Bill is much in demand at banquets and social gatherings. The athletes call him "Rope-sole," and his reputation as an athletic trainer ranks right near the top of that field. Robertson originally is from Vancouver, B.C., but became an American citizen many years ago and has lived in the Pacific Northwest ever since. He served in the army in World War II, and saw duty in both Italy and the Aleutians. Bill is a graduate of OSU.

JOHN EGGERS, sports publicity director, recently observed his 13th anniversary on the athletic staff at OSU. He joined the staff on July 1, 1950, as an assistant to director Irwin Harris, and was moved up to the top spot on July 1, 1952. Eggers was born and raised in Pendleton, the "Round-Up City" of eastern Oregon. He was an all-state basketball player at Pendleton high, a prep teammate of Lew Beck who later went on to win all-America fame at OSU and play in the Olympic Games. Eggers played one varsity basketball season at Willamette while only a freshman before enlisting in the Navy for World War II. After discharge, he attended OSU from the fall of 1946 through 1949. Before returning to the OSU staff, he worked for one year as a sports writer on The Oregonian in Portland.

COMM HENNESS, athletic ticket manager, is one of the newest members of the OSU athletic department. He joined the staff on February 1, 1961, after serving nine years with the physical plant at Oregon State. The last three years were spent as an accountant for that department. Henness was born in Fontana, Kansas, but came west to Oregon in 1946. He has lived in Corvallis most of the time since. Comm is an extremely diligent worker and a top specialist in accounting or bookkeeping duties of any nature. As Jim Barratt's right-hand man, he also handles all ticket sales to free Barratt for more promotional administrative work.

MEET THE PRESIDENT

Oregon State University's able and energetic leader, Dr. James H. Jensen, will be starting his third year as president this fall when OSU begins its 96th school year.

An internationally-known botanist and plant pathologist, President Jensen was provost, or executive vice president of Iowa State University, for eight years before coming to OSU. He already has stamped himself as an efficient administrator deeply concerned about high-quality education for the increasing numbers of students.

In his first year as president, Dr. Jensen saw enrollments shoot past the old-time high of 7,981 to 9,039, and then above 10,000.

President Jensen, 57, brought to Oregon State a broad background of experience in university teaching, research and administration, private foundation research, federal government work, and foreign assignments.

He earlier was on the staff of Nebraska and North Carolina State as well as Iowa State; has worked with the Atomic Energy Commission, Boyce Thompson Institute for Plant Research, Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research and the U.S. Department of Agriculture; and completed special scientific assignments in Cuba, Puerto Rico, and the Dominican Republic.

In 1955, Dr. Jensen was national president of the American Phytopathological Society. He is a graduate of University of Nebraska and University of Wisconsin and also did advanced study at Columbia University.

Mrs. Jensen, a native Nebraskan too, is active in student, faculty and community affairs. The Jensens have four children.

OREGON FOREST FACTS

The State of Oregon ranks No. 1 in the United States in standing timber and production of lumber, plywood and particle board. It has over 21 per cent of the nation's commercial timber volume. It produces 22 per cent of the nation's lumber and 55 per cent of its plywood.

Almost half of Oregon's 62 million acres are in forests (30 million acres). Of these, 26 million acres are classified as commercial forest land. The federal government controls about 15 million acres of the commercial forest land, the state and counties about 1 million acres and 10 million acres are held by some 36,000 private owners. The gross state forest product is valued in excess of $1.3 billion per year.

The forest industry employs about 75,000 full time workers each year. In 1961, they earned about $400 million. In addition, several thousand non-manufacturing workers derive their income directly or indirectly from the forest resources. Overall forests account for almost 60 per cent of Oregon's economy.

In Benton County, where Oregon State University is located, 35 per cent of the total number of industrial persons employed derive their living from wood products. In Benton County, nearly 30 per cent of all income comes from forestry.

Oregon, indeed, is the "land of the tall timber."

OSU FARTHEST WEST

Oregon State University is located at the farthest west point of the United States of all major universities, it was learned recently.

These three schools rank 1-2-3 as "most western" in the nation:

1. Oregon State University, Corvallis, Ore.—123° 16min.
2. University of Oregon, Eugene, Ore.—123° 05 min.
3. University of Washington, Seattle, Wash.—120° 20 min.

"Voice of the OSU Beavers"

BOB BLACKBURN

The 1963 Oregon State University football network will have at least 26 stations either taking all or a good share of Beaver football games, with experienced Bob Blackburn again at the radio helm. Included is radio KEX, Portland, 50,000 watt Golden West Sports Network station.

Sponsors remain the same as over the past two years, Union Oil Company of California, and The Greater Portland Area Rambler Dealer's Association on the game itself, plus the Centennial Life Insurance Company of Oregon, who sponsors a 5-minute OSU Football Forecast just before each game. OSU assistant coaches are featured in a special program immediately following each game, while Head Coach Tommy Prothro will be heard on most network stations with a 15-minute program earlier in the week..

Play-by-play sportscaster is 38-year old Blackburn, who in addition to handling all of OSU's radio rights and network arrangements, is also sports director of KEX. He has won the Oregon Sportscaster of The Year all four years of the award's existence. Blackburn has broadcast major college football and basketball games on the Pacific Coast for 17-years and has been play-by-play announcer for the Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast league for 14 years. Bob is head of the Oregon State University sports network, with a mailing address at 9757 S. W. Arbor Crest Way, in Portland.
