2006 & 2007 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS • 2013 & 2014 PAC-12 CHAMPIONS

5 College World Series Appearances: 1952, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2013 | 5 NCAA Super Regional Appearances: 2005, 2006, 2007, 2011, 2013

16 NCAA Regional Appearances: 1952, 1962, 1963, 1983, 1985, 1986, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015

The College World Series

- Oregon State has made a habit of becoming visitors to Omaha, the site of the College World Series. The Beavers made three consecutive trips to Rosenblatt Stadium from 2005-2007 and have been to the College World Series five times after their inaugural trip in 1952. The Beavers' most recent trip to Omaha came in 2013.
- Oregon State became just the fifth team in NCAA history to win consecutive titles when winning championships in 2006 and 2007. The Beavers were the first team in a decade to accomplish the feat and the first from the then-Pac-10 in almost 20 years.
- Oregon State is just the fifth team currently in the Pac-12 to reach the College World Series in three consecutive seasons.
- The Beavers became just the sixth league club to win the World Series by sweeping its entire way through Omaha. Oregon State went 5-0 in 2007, and trailed just one inning throughout the team's play in Omaha.
- A total of 26,887 fans came out to watch Oregon State's title-clinching 11-4 win over North Carolina in 2007. That total is the single-largest crowd to watch a championship series game in College World Series history. That series' championship game drew 25,012, the largest final game ever at Rosenblatt Stadium.
- In Oregon State's two championship seasons, the Beavers had 11 players named to the College World Series All-Tournament Team. That tied a Pac-10 record for most players over a two-year span.

Coaching Success

- Current head coach Pat Casey is one of many of Oregon State's successful head coaches. Casey is in his 22nd season as head coach of the Beavers and enters the season with a program-record 754 victories, which places him in the top 10 in league history.
- Jack Riley, Casey's predecessor at Oregon State, previously held the school's record with 613 victories over a 22-year span. He won five titles with the Beavers during his tenure and posted 274 victories in Pac-10 play for a .731 winning percentage.

- Ralph Coleman spent 35 seasons in the Oregon State dugout through three different coaching stints. Until Riley overtook him, Coleman was the program's leader with 561 victories, including 279 against Pac-10 clubs. He won 10 conference titles during his 35-year tenure. Coleman still holds the school's record for career winning percentage at .640.
- All three historical coaches for the Beavers are ranked in the top 20 in Pac-12 coaching history. Casey is ninth all-time in victories, while Coleman is 17th and Riley is 14th.
- After winning two straight titles, Casey was recognized nationally. In 2006 and 2007, he won National Coach of the Year honors by various organizations.
- Oregon State has three fine assistant coaches who will be in the dugout this season. Pat Bailey is in his ninth season as an Oregon State assistant. He has also tasted a national title after leading nearby George Fox to a Division III title in 2004.
- Pitching coach Nate Yeskie is in his eighth season with the Beavers. Oregon State's team ERA dropped nearly a run and a half in Yeskie's first season with OSU, and has been below 4.00 in six of his seven years, including a school-record mark of 2.28 in 2013. Sam Gaviglio, Matt Boyd, Andrew Moore, Jace Fry, Drew Rasmussen and Mitch Hickey have all earned Freshman All-America honors under Yeskie. Boyd, Moore, Gaviglio, Fry and Ben Wetzler have been named All-Americans during Yeskie's tenure.
- Andy Jenkins is back for his fifth season with the Beavers and the third as an assistant coach. Jenkins played on the Beavers' 2005 Pac-10 championship club and spent seven seasons in the Minor Leagues, reaching the Triple-A level in both 2009 and 2010.

Beavers In The Draft

- Oregon State has seen 38 players drafted over the past six seasons. Over the past 11 seasons, that number balloons to 72.
- In 2006, the Beavers had nine players chosen by Major League clubs, a single-year record.

- In 2007, Oregon State accomplished another first. Eddie Kunz and Mitch Canham were both selected in the first round, marking the first time two Beavers went in the draft's initial round in the same season.
- Under head coach Pat Casey, 36 players have been selected in the draft's top nine rounds. Of those 36 selections, 34 signed professional contracts and 15 are still playing with an affiliated organization at the conclusion of the 2015 season.
- Seven different Beavers have been selected in the first round of the draft, including Steve Lyons in 1981, Mike Thurman in 1994 and Jacoby Ellsbury in 2005. Michael Conforto is the most recent, in 2014, and his 10th overall selection is the best ever for an Oregon State player.

Professional Beavers

- The 2015 season saw nine former Beavers compete at the Major League level, an Oregon State single-season record. Three former Beavers - Matt Boyd, Josh Osich and Michael Conforto - made their MLB debuts. Boyd became the fastest Beaver to the Majors in less than two years after being drafted, then was surpassed by Conforto was just over one year.
- Overall, the Beavers have had 31 players play at the game's highest level. And with 38 MLB selections the past six seasons, Oregon State is expecting to see more Major League debuts the next few seasons.
- Jacoby Ellsbury became Oregon State's first alum to win a World Series when he and the Boston Red Sox swept Colorado in 2007. Ellsbury, a rookie that season, batted .438 with four doubles and a stolen base in the series. Ellsbury recently set Boston's single-season stolen base record with 70 in 2009.
- Conforto and Andrew Susac have competed at the World Series in 2014 and 2015, both in their rookie seasons. Susac won a World Series with the San Francisco Giants in 2014, then watched as Conforto's New York Mets played against the Kansas City Royals in 2015, ultimately losing in five games.

- Barden became Oregon State's first Olympian in 2008 and helped guide Team USA to a bronze medal the Beijing Olympics. Barden had made his Major League debut with Arizona in 2007 and also saw action with St. Louis and Florida through the end of the 2010 season.
- Eighteen former Beavers have competed in the prestigious Arizona Fall League. It's usually reserved for some of the game's top MLB prospects. Tyler Smith most recently played in the AFL in 2015.

All-Americans

- Oregon State has a proud history of having players recognized nationally with All-American honors. Twenty-six different Beavers have earned All-American honors.
- Of those 26 players, six have earned All-American status in two different seasons. Those players are Jay Dean in 1954 and 1955, Cecil Ira in 1962 and 1963, Dallas Buck and Jonah Nickerson in 2005 and 2006, Michael Conforto in 2012, 2013 and 2014 and Andrew Moore in 2013 and 2015.
- Oregon State has seen a spike in All-Americans since Pat Casey took the helm in 1995. Under Casey, the Beavers have had 17 All-Americans, most recently with Moore and Jeff Hendrix after the 2015 season.

Oregon State And Team USA

- Oregon State has begun a new tradition. Over the last 10 seasons, the Beavers have had their first Olympian and 10 other players who have been named to the Team USA National Team.
- In 2008, Brian Barden played in eight of Team USA's nine games in Beijing as the Red, White and Blue took home the bronze medal.
- In 2005, teammates Kevin Gunderson and Jonah Nickerson became the first Beavers to play for the USA National Team.
- Darwin Barney became the third Beaver to play for Team USA in 2006.

- Andrew Moore played for USA Collegiate Team in 2014, and recorded two wins for the red, white and blue.
- KJ Harrison and Drew Rasmussen continued the tradition for OSU in 2015.

One Of The Nation's Finest Ballparks

- That can certainly be the title bestowed upon Goss Stadium at Coleman Field as the venerable facility underwent an expansion during the 2008 season.
- Oregon State has played on its home site since 1907, the program's first year. And in 2009, Goss Stadium was expanded to its current state. In 2014, it was further expanded as a home clubhouse was erected down the left field and bullpens were moved beyond the left field fence.
- The player's lounge was renovated this past offseason. In addition, the videoboard, located in right center, was replaced and doubled in size.
- The ballpark now has 2,798 permanent seats and capacity can reach nearly 3,300 when temporary outfield seating is installed.
- Oregon State went 23-6-1 at home in 2014, in large part due to the support from Beaver Nation. OSU averaged just shy of 3,000 fans per game, which ranked in the top 25 nationally and second in the Pac-12.
- New features to the ballpark in 2009 included the Omaha Room, a club level down the right field line, and a new player's lounge adjacent to the third base dugout. The Beavers also installed a Hall of Fame Room and Academic Room, both of which are located underneath the club level.

On The Road

- Oregon State regularly plays to a big fan base wherever it travels. That was never more evident when Oregon State and Oregon set a Pac-12 Conference record with a crowd of 15,540 during the Civil War at PGE Park in 2009. The third game of the series subsequently drew 13,709, for a total of 29,249 over the two games.

Media Exposure

- Oregon State is one of the most media friendly teams in the nation and is regularly covered by a number of newspapers, television stations and radio stations.
- Oregon State has been the center of features by Baseball America, USA Today, Collegiate Baseball and many other national publications over the last few years.

Darwin Barney played for Team USA in 2006

- Oregon State will enjoy the Pac-12 Networks for the third year in 2015. The Pac-12 Networks broadcast solely Pac-12 sporting events across the nation.
- The Beavers enjoy one of the best radio packages on the West Coast. Every game this season is scheduled to air live on the Beaver Sports Network and online on Beaver Nation Online.
- In 2008, the Beavers, through the then-Pac-10, appeared on XM Radio three times during the season to reach a national audience.

The Pac-12 Conference

- Oregon State calls the Pac-12 Conference home and has so at various points since the 1916 season. The Beavers joined the conference for good in 1946.
- The Pac-12 is called the "Conference of Champions" for a reason. Arguably the nation's top collegiate baseball conference, it holds the national record with 28 national titles. That is 17 titles more than the second-place conference, the Big 12, which last won a title in 2005.
- At least one Pac-12 Conference team has appeared in the national title game or series in nine of the last 18 seasons.
- There have been 65 College World Series tournaments and Pac-12 clubs have finished first or second 43 times.
- At least one Pac-12 team has advanced to the College World Series in all but two seasons dating back to 1997.
- Pac-12 clubs have won 250 games all-time at the College World Series. The Pac-12 is the only conference to have won more than 170 games at the World Series.
- Seven of the Pac-12's 11 current baseball teams have won at least two national titles. USC leads the nation with 12, although the Trojans have not been national champions since the 1998 season.

GOSS STADIUM AT COLEMAN FIELD
One Of The Nation's Finest Ballparks

Goss Stadium at Coleman Field, which has stood on the Oregon State campus since 1907, is now the oldest continuous ballpark in the nation. The Beavers have played at the site of Goss Stadium since the program began play more than 100 years ago.

The stadium itself has undergone numerous changes - including multiple renovations and expansions - but the playing field itself has stood in place since day one.

And just like day one, Goss, formerly known just as Coleman Field, has hosted games in front of one of the best fanbases in the nation.

The venerable park is continually seeing improvements, which, prior to the 2016 season, meant a new videoboard and player's lounge.

The videoboard, which will present fans with the best in the Pac-12, replaces the previous board, which had been in place for nearly a decade. Measuring nearly 26-feet high and 50-feet wide, it is double the size of the previous videoboard and is the largest in the Pac-12.

The new board came on the heels of a collaborative crowdfunding campaign, which raised just under $105,000 from a total of 259 donations. The campaign, which lasted just 30 days, was the largest of its kind for Oregon State Athletics and was the first such campaign hosted by OSU to reach six figures, surpassing the original fundraising goal by nearly $30,000. The crowdfunding campaign was used to renovate and upgrade the team's player's lounge, located down the left field line.

Goss saw its third renovation over the past 15 years prior to the 2015 season. A new home clubhouse was built down the left field line, forcing the Beavers' bullpen to be moved beyond the fence in left field.

The new clubhouse gave the Beavers a new state-of-the-art locker room; a new coach's locker room and game-day coaching offices; a repurposed players lounge; a medical training area; a larger equipment room, a recruiting area and a hospitality deck. The hospitality deck will host "Banners" with a new concessions area that will pay homage to the team's successful past with championships and dogpiles.

The addition to the stadium came on the heels on one of the most fantastic seasons at home for OSU in its history. The Beavers went 24-6 at Goss in 2014, and set a school record for the highest average attendance (2,931) in a single season. That mark stood as the 19th best nationally and was tops on the West Coast.

That was the second consecutive season the Beavers set a new mark. In 2013, Oregon State fans poured through the turnstiles in then-record numbers as the Beavers averaged 2,676 per game, or just more than 82,000 overall.

And for good reason as Beaver Nation came to see one of the best seasons in school history. The Beavers went 27-5 at Goss Stadium in 2013, tying a school record for most wins at home in a single season.

Oregon State is 1,157-480-2 at home since opening play in 1907, a winning percentage of .703. Since Goss' 1999 renovation, the Beavers are an astounding 310-127-1 (.708).

The Beavers have utilized the home field advantage in the last 11 seasons, in which Oregon State has gone to Omaha four times. Since 2005, OSU is 237-69-1 (.773). In the four years it has gone to Omaha over that stretch, the Beavers are an incredible 97-21 (.822).

In 2012, the Beavers went 18-6 at home and averaged nearly 2,000 fans as the club posted its fifth 40-win season in school history.

That continued the trend of packing the park and watching the Beavers utilize Goss as one of the Pac-12 Conference's toughest venues for opposing clubs.

The team hosted its fourth NCAA Regional in 2011, and the support the club received at its home diamond helped the Beavers to an NCAA Super Regional appearance.

Nearly 69,000 fans attended games at Goss Stadium in 2011, an average of 2,285 per, setting school records - at the time - for a single season. Oregon State went 23-7 at home, just the fifth time in program history the Beavers won 20 or more.

A project spearheaded by head coach Pat Casey expanded the stadium prior to the 2009 season and gave the ballpark a facelift. Nearly 1,000 seats were added down the left and right field lines, enabling more Oregon State fans to witness one of the top programs in the nation.

The seating addition is far from the only change fans saw beginning that year. A stadium suite, called the Omaha Room, looms over right field with seating for approximately 70. Modeled after the club level at football's Reser Stadium, it can also be used for team banquets and other various events.

Underneath the Omaha Room are two rooms -- an academic room and a Hall of Fame room. The academic room and Hall of Fame area are utilized to celebrate the fine history at Oregon State and to allow its current student-athletes the chance to excel in the classroom.

Last, but certainly not least, is a player's lounge located underneath the left field stands that gives Oregon State players the chance to relax before games and unwind afterwards.

The expansion completed a string of stadium upgrades as a video board located in right field was installed prior to the 2007 season. The board was the first of its kind in the then-Pacific-10 Conference and

When Oregon State began fielding a varsity baseball team in 1907, the school laid out a diamond on a lot just south of the main campus. A century later, that same site still serves as the home of the Beavers, making Goss Stadium at Coleman Field the oldest diamond in the Pac-12 Conference and the oldest college fields in the country.

Over the past century, the campus has grown around Goss Stadium at Coleman Field, making it one of the most picturesque settings in college baseball. The ballpark is a short walk down Waldo Place from the Memorial Union and OSU's central campus area, making it easy for students to stop by a game between classes.

The field is named for former Oregon State player and coach Ralph Coleman, who guided the Beavers for 35 seasons from 1923-66. The stadium is named for John and Eline Goss, whose major lead gift to the $2.3-million fundraising effort made the project possible.

John Goss was an Oregon State track and field letterman in the 1930s. The naming of the stadium is also a memorial to his older brother, James Goss, an Oregon State graduate.

allows fans to watch replays and enjoy capabilities rivaled by Major League stadiums.

In each of the five seasons Oregon State has hosted a regional or super regional, each game, totaling 22 in all, surpassed the 2,000 mark in attendance. Also, the Beavers saw crowds of 3,000 or better in 21 of those 27 games.

Pat Casey, now in his 22nd season at Oregon State, has especially taken advantage of Goss Stadium, using the fans' passions and his team's talents and turning them into wins. In his 21 previous seasons, Casey's clubs have posted a 374-143-1 (.723) mark at home. In 2005, Oregon State set a program record with 26 home wins. A year later, the Beavers set the record again, finishing with 27 wins at venerable Goss Stadium.

Casey, just one four coaches in the past 60 years at Oregon State, has seen two of the most significant stages of Goss Stadium. Previous to the 2009 expansion, in 1999, the park, then known just as Coleman Field, saw a major renovation. That renovation brought improved seating areas, a new press box and improved locker rooms and dugouts.

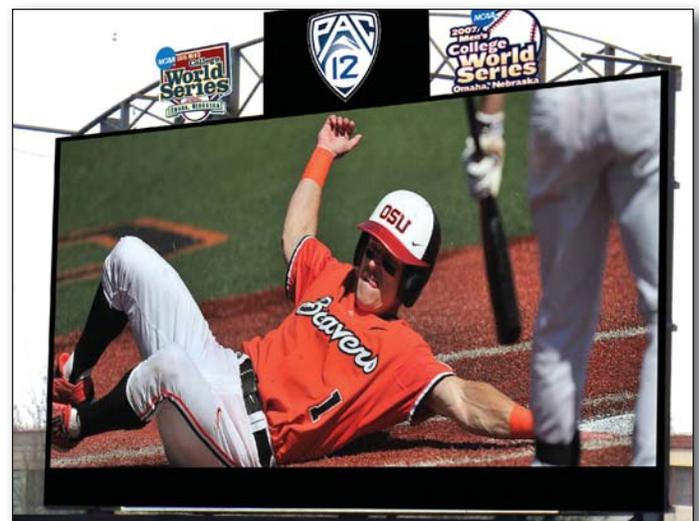

Over the past 15 years, Goss Stadium saw other improvements. In the spring of 2002, lights were added to the ballpark, making night games a possibility. And prior to the 2007 season, a new scoreboard with video replay capabilities went up in right-center field. During that same period, the Beavers got a new playing surface in the infield as FieldTurf was installed. The outfield remained natural grass at the time.

The stadium's videoboard was the first of its kind in the Pacific-10 (now Pac-12) Conference. Located in right center field, it was a welcome addition to the historic ballpark.

The park has an interesting history, to say the least.

The Goss family made additional contributions to OSU toward endowed scholarships for student/athletes and other top academic students, including graduates of Portland's Grant High and members of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

The park is symmetrical, measuring 330 feet down the foul lines, 365 to the power alleys and 400 to center. The fence is 14 feet high from left field to left-center, then eight feet high from left-center to right field.

The concrete, steel and brick structure has a press box, a lobby/concession area, restrooms, locker rooms, dugouts and storage areas. The stadium was designed to complement the architecture of the surrounding campus, and to evoke the aura of baseball's historic parks.

The first game after the addition of Goss Stadium to Coleman Field was on March 12, 1999, when defending national champion Southern California topped the Beavers 5-2. The stadium was dedicated on April 17, 1999 as OSU beat California 11-5 before a crowd of 1,246 and a national cable television audience.

The ballpark saw its first night game on April 26, 2002, as the Beavers beat fourth-ranked Stanford 3-1. A set of lights meeting professional Class Triple-A standards was installed that spring thanks to the generosity of longtime OSU boosters Bert and Shirley Babb.

Goss Stadium at Coleman Field has batting cages behind the left-field fence. When conditions call for indoor practice, the Beavers head for OSU's Truax Indoor Practice Facility, which opened in August, 2001. The team's players can also head to the McAlexander Fieldhouse, which was renovated in 2011 to provide the Beavers with two new batting cages that are available year-round. The Fieldhouse is located across a small parking lot beyond left field.

The addition of Goss Stadium to Coleman Field ended years of speculation over whether the Beavers would be able to remain playing baseball at their longtime home.

As Oregon State expanded, land near the center of campus became scarce and the school's master plan called for the site to eventually be turned over to academic uses.

In 1961, The Oregonian newspaper noted: "In the not-too-distant future, Oregon State baseball hopefuls won't have railroad tracks as a long-distance batting target. Coleman Field will eventually hold no basepaths, only buildings in this era of construction for higher education. Already one classroom building for this site is beyond the drawing board stage."

For over 30 years, that possibility prevented any major improvements to Coleman Field. Long-term plans for the OSU campus called for moving the baseball field southeast of the intersection of Western Boulevard and 26th Street.

In 1996, the baseball program explored building a press box and storage/concession building at Coleman Field. The possibility of building a stadium was also looked into, and that gradually became the goal of the baseball program and many Beaver boosters.

The generous donation from the Goss family was the key to a private fundraising effort in the late 1990s. The ballpark's name was amended to Goss Stadium at Coleman Field in their honor in 1999.

PAT CASEY

Head Coach • 22nd Year
754-421-5 (Oregon State)
925-535-6 (28 years overall)
George Fox, '90

Oregon State head coach Pat Casey is continually referred to as one of the finest coaches in the country, and for good reason. His team succeeds, year-in and year-out.

In 2015, he took charge of a young team and guided the club to a second-place finish in the Pac-12 Conference. The club, which finished with 39 wins, including 19 in league play, regularly started upwards of nine underclassmen in the lineup. The team's most veteran lineup had just four upperclassmen.

The 2015 season continued the most productive stretch in OSU history as the club made its seventh consecutive postseason appearance - extending a program record - which also gives the team 10 in the last 11 seasons.

Casey guided the Beavers to their second consecutive Pac-12 Conference title in 2014, and did so in impressive fashion. The Beavers had a mix of veterans and youth, and battled back from a 6-3 start in conference play for the crown.

At one point during conference play, Casey's club won 11 consecutive league games, and the Beavers won nine of 10 series for the second consecutive season.

Overall, Oregon State finished with 45 wins in 2014, hitting the 40-win plateau for the fourth consecutive season and seventh time during his 20-year tenure with the Beavers.

Casey's players were recognized for their efforts, as Michael Conforto, Ben Wetzler and Jace Fry were all named All-Americans. That gives Casey 15 All-Americans since arriving in Corvallis in 1995.

Casey completed his 19th season at the helm of the program in 2013 and helped the Beavers set a few records along the way.

The Beavers won 52 games in 2013, setting a school record, and advanced to their fourth College World Series under Casey, who took over the program prior to the 1995 season. The 2013 Beavers won 24 games in Pac-12 Conference play and had winning streaks of 15 and 12 games, respectively, to help the club advance to its eighth postseason in nine seasons.

Oregon State's 15 and 12-game win streaks marked the first year since 2007 the Beavers had two win streaks of 10 or more.

The Beavers won the Pac-12 Championship for the third time since the league unified prior to the 1999 season and set a conference record for most wins in league play. The team's .800 winning percentage (24-6) against conference foes marks the best percentage by any Pac-12 school since the 1999 league unification.

Casey won his 614th career game on May 25, 2012, surpassing Jack Riley as the winningest coach in school history.

Casey's club finished the 2012 season with 40 wins as he and OSU won seven Pac-12 series, going 9-5 against Pac-12 foes who advanced to the postseason.

Casey guided the Beavers to 41 wins during the season in 2011, reaching the 30-win plateau for the 11th time in his 17 seasons in Corvallis.

In doing so, Casey guided the Beavers to their third regional host nomination since 2005, at the time.

He was named the 2011 Pacific-10 Conference Coach of the Year for the third time, previously reaching the accomplishment in 2005 and 2006. He has since picked up his fourth conference coach of the year honor, in 2013.

Casey has guided Oregon State to two national championships and three conference titles. He has won an outstanding 42 games in the postseason, which accounts for better than 85 percent of the program's all-time NCAA wins.

Arguably one of the most successful active Division-I head coaches in the country, Casey has established a level of winning unrivaled in the program's history.

Prior to the start of the 2010 season, he was named as the top collegiate coach of the last decade by Baseball America in a vote by his peers. The Beavers, meanwhile, were named as the No. 2 program of the decade, trailing only Texas. The Beavers and Casey earned the special recognition after winning back-to-back national championships in 2006 and 2007 and winning Pacific-10 Conference titles in 2005 and 2006.

Perhaps an even more special honor was bestowed upon Casey just prior. He and his wife, Susan, were recipients of the Nell and John Wooden Coaching Achievement Award. The honor goes to a head coach and his spouse for their dedication to success on the field and in making an impact on the lives of their players.

Truly, Pat Casey has been the right person to lead Oregon State baseball over the last two decades.

In the past 11 seasons alone, Casey has guided the Beavers to 481 victories, which is second in the Pac-12. During that same stretch, Casey's clubs have won 181 conference games, which is second-most among division clubs.

In that 11-year stretch, 12 players have earned All-America honors while 31 players have been recognized as all-league performers. That includes four league Most Valuable Player awards and two Defensive Player of the Year selections.

The Beavers reached the postseason for the fifth time in six seasons in 2010, advancing to the Gainesville Regional. The Beavers bowed out in three games, but just days after, the Beavers had eight players selected in the MLB Draft, seven of whom would eventually sign their first professional contracts.

Casey and the Beavers advanced to the championship game of the Fort Worth Regional in 2009. Oregon State finished the 2009 campaign with a 37-19 record and 15-12 mark in Pac-10 play, tying the club for third.

On May 19, 2009, Casey became just the third head coach in school history to record 500 victories with the Beavers when OSU defeated Oregon.

In 2008, Casey and the Beavers went 28-24 and missed out on the postseason. But the Beavers played perhaps their most ambitious schedule in school history and took series from five schools that earned either No. 1 or No. 2 seeds in NCAA Regionals. Oregon State posted a 5-5 record against College World Series teams, taking 2-of-3 in separate series against Arizona State and Georgia.

In 2008, Casey made marks on the program, literally. He spearheaded a fundraising campaign to expand Goss Stadium, adding nearly 1,000 permanent seats, a stadium suite, new player's lounge, academic room and Hall of Fame room. The additions transformed Goss Stadium from one of the best in the West into one of the nation's finest collegiate stadiums.

In 2007, Casey, his staff and the team's players worked hard to build team chemistry, coming together at the right time for a second-straight national championship. Oregon State went an incredible 39-4 in non-conference games, including an 11-1 mark in the postseason. After losing their second game at the Charlottesville Regional, the Beavers went on a dynamic run, winning their last 10 games -- including five in Omaha -- to claim the national title.

That title thrust-ed Oregon State into NCAA baseball lore. The Beavers became just the fifth program to win back-to-back national titles at that time, joining Texas (1949-50), USC (1970-74), Stanford (1987-88) and LSU (1996-97).

For his ability to mold the Beavers into the nation's finest, Casey was again recognized as a national coach of the year, this time by Collegiate Baseball and the American Baseball Coaches Association. The honors come a year after Casey was the consensus national coach of the year in leading Oregon State to its first title.

That 2006 title was just as special, as the Beavers became the first program from the Pacific Northwest to the NCAA Division I College World Series.

The 2006 Beavers had a storybook season, capped by a run through the CWS that saw them win six elimination games in Omaha to win the national championship. After being beaten by Miami (Fla.) in its opening game, OSU won four straight - including back-to-back shutouts of top-ranked Rice - to reach the championship series. In the best-of-three finals against North Carolina, OSU lost the opening game and trailed by five runs in the second game before rallying for wins of 11-7 and 3-2 for the title.

Oregon State's 50-16 season set a school record for wins for the second straight season, and the Beavers refuse-to-lose style of play captured the hearts of not only those watching in Omaha, but college baseball fans across the nation.

After the 2006 season, Oregon State signed Casey to a new 10-year contract to guarantee his future in Corvallis. Casey had become an attractive candidate for coaching vacancies at a number of high-profile schools given the Beavers' amazing success.

In retaining Casey, Oregon State instantly kept its most successful coach in Corvallis. It also allowed the Beavers to have the knowledge they have one of the most recognized coaches in the nation. In 2006, after winning the team's first title, was Casey was recognized as the National Coach of the Year by Collegiate Baseball, Baseball America and American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA).

In 2005, he was named the Pac-10's Coach of the Year after guiding the Beavers to their first of two straight conference titles. He earned the honor again in 2006 with the second title. In both years, he was recognized as the ABCA's West Region Coach of the Year.

With back-to-back titles comes increased exposure. For the second time under Casey's tenure, Oregon State has expanded the Beavers' home field, and both times, Casey has been a driving force behind the renovations.

In 1999, Oregon State expanded what is now known as Goss Stadium from Coleman Field, adding increased seating, improved locker rooms and a full press box.

And Casey and the Beavers have rewarded the fans with increased chances to watch the team play. In each of their three College World Series years, the Beavers played a super regional at venerable Goss, and it has paid off. Oregon State has gone 6-1 at super regionals in Corvallis, defeating USC, Stanford and Michigan.

In 2005 and 2006, Casey earned both the Pacific-10 Conference and NCAA West Region Coach of the Year honors for guiding the Beavers to back-to-back Pac-10 championships and berths in the CWS.

Since Casey became Oregon State's head coach prior to the 1995 season, the Beavers have moved into a prominent position on the national scene.

OSU has had players earn spots on the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team eight times and had players taken in the top 10 rounds of the Major League Baseball draft 42 times - including first-rounders Jacoby Ellsbury in 2005, Kunz and Canham in 2007 and Conforto in 2014. Ellsbury became Oregon State's first former player to win a Major League World Series when he and the Boston Red Sox won their second title in four seasons in 2007.

In 2005, OSU had been picked to finish sixth in the Pacific-10 in the annual coaches poll; Casey guided the Beavers to the Pac-10 championship and the College World Series. OSU's 46-12 record was a school record for wins in a season, the Beavers' No. 7 finish in the final polls was Oregon State's highest ever, and OSU's No. 2 ranking during the season was the highest it had ever climbed in the national rankings.

Casey was also named Co-Coach of the Year in the Pacific-10 Northern Division for the 1997 season, and the Beavers have set numerous school records during Casey's time at OSU.

Oregon State hired Casey in the summer of 1994, asking him to follow in the large footsteps of Jack Riley, who retired after 22 seasons as head coach.

Most of the key players from OSU's 1994 Northern Division pennant-winning team had graduated, but Casey's first season saw the Beavers battle to a winning record of 25-24-1 in 1995. That set the stage for one of the finest three-year runs in the long history of baseball at Oregon State.

In 1996, the Beavers posted a 32-16-1 record and went into the final weekend of the season with a chance to win the Pac-10 Northern Division pennant. In 1997, Oregon State set a school record for wins in the regular season with a record of 38-12-1 and took postseason hopes into the final weekend.

In 1998, Oregon State broke into the national rankings for the first time in four years and went 35-14-1. The season included series sweeps of Arizona, which was ranked in the top 10 at the time, and UCLA.

In 2001, Oregon State again made a strong bid for the postseason, finishing with a 31-24 record. OSU had five wins over teams ranked in the final Baseball Weekly/USA Today coaches poll of the regular season and had a 10-9 record against schools selected for the NCAA Regionals.

In 2004, OSU's 7-0 start was the school's best in 42 years. That team had a then-school-record six players selected in the MLB draft and another signed as a free agent, and it set the stage for the magic of 2005 and 2006.

Casey came to OSU after seven seasons at George Fox College, a NAIA school in his hometown of Newberg, Ore. Under Casey, the Bruins went 171-113-1 (.602) overall and were 155-54-1 against NAIA competition; they won three District 2 titles, five Metro Valley Confer-

PAT BAILEY

Associate Head Coach • 9th Year
Outfielders
#27
Idaho, '78

Oregon State associate head coach Pat Bailey is in his ninth season with the program in 2016.

In 2015, he again mentored the club's outfielders and help tutor his second All-American. Jeff Hendrix batted .339 with 15 doubles and six home runs and was named All-Pac-12 and an All-American. He was eventually taken in the fourth round of the MLB Draft by the New York Yankees.

Hendrix's fantastic 2015 season came on the heels of a historic 2014 season for the Oregon State outfield.

Michael Conforto and Dylan Davis came into the season established as two of the best corner outfielders, but Jeff Hendrix, with Bailey's guidance, cemented the group as the top in college baseball. All three were named first-team All-League selections while Conforto was selected as the Pac-12 Player of the Year for the second consecutive season.

For OSU fans, all of the above should have come as no surprise.

Bailey, who coaches the teams outfield and hitters, helped develop the outfield into one of the finest in the nation in 2013. Conforto and Davis were Oregon State's team leaders offensively and center fielder Max Gordon made arguably the nation's top defensive plays.

Bailey mentored Conforto to a school-record 76 RBI and a .349 batting average in 2012, helping highlight the team's offensive season.

In 2011, he helped guide the Beavers to their third consecutive postseason appearance and the sixth in seven years.

In 2011, the club's outfielders included Ryan Barnes, who, after not playing a significant role in 2010, started 44 games and drove in 25 runs, as well as Brian Stamps, an MLB draftee who tallied 11 doubles and seven stolen bases.

Bailey's center fielder in 2010, Adalberto Santos, was the team's most dangerous player last season, leading the team in triples and was among the team's leaders in batting average and home runs. Santos was later selected in the 22nd round of the MLB Draft by Pittsburgh and was named one of the New York-Penn League's top prospects.

In 2009, his second year with OSU, the team's hitting and outfield coach inherited a host of position players who were new to the program or who had seen little playing time in previous seasons. Bailey helped mold players such as Santos, Stefen Romero and Michael Miller into everyday contributors who played key roles in the team's lineup.

Bailey came to Oregon State prior to the 2008 season after spending 12 seasons at George Fox, winning a Division III national title with the Bruins in 2004.

Bailey, 59, compiled a 353-158 record - and is the winningest coach in school history - and earned National Coach of the Year honors after that 2004 national title. He was an eight-time Northwest Conference Coach of the Year honoree.

During Bailey's tenure, the Bruins won or shared eight Northwest Conference titles. George Fox advanced to the NCAA tournament six times and to the NAIA playoffs twice before moving to the NCAA.

Bailey is the winningest baseball coach in the school's history.

In 2004, Bailey's team became the first George Fox squad in any sport to win an NCAA national championship. The Bruins went 40-10 overall, setting a new single-season record for wins and tying the record for best winning percentage at .800.

After tying for the 2004 NWC title, George Fox earned an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament. The Bruins swept through four games at the NCAA West Regional in Orange, Calif., and then posted a 5-1 record at the Division III World Series in Appleton, Wis., beating Eastern Connecticut State 6-3 in the championship game.

Seven of Bailey's George Fox players signed professional contracts, including five members of the national championship team. His players earned 10 All-America honors and four Academic All-America honors.

Bailey earned his business education degree from the University of Idaho in 1978 and his master of education degree in educational administration from Oregon in 1983. Bailey earned two letters in baseball at Idaho and was the team captain.

Bailey graduated in 1974 from Moscow (Idaho) High School, where he played football, basketball and baseball, being named the baseball team's Most Valuable Player.

Bailey and his wife, Susan, have two children: son Alex, who played baseball for George Fox in 2003, and is married to Lucy; and daughter Ann. His daughter, Ann, is married to Collin Schneider and they have two children, Adlai and Evey. They are the owners of the Tried and True Coffee Shop in Corvallis.

ANDY JENKINS

Assistant Coach • 4th Year

Infield/Catchers

#8

Oregon State, '12

Former Oregon State infielder Andy Jenkins is in his fifth season on the Oregon State staff in 2016 - his fourth as an assistant coach after spending one season as an undergraduate assistant coach.

The Beavers' infielders thrived under Jenkins in 2015. KJ Harrison was named the Pac-12's Freshman of the Year, while his first-year counterpart, Christian Donahue, started a majority of games at second base. Catchers Logan Ice, Dane Lund and Harrison combined to hold opposing basestealers to a less than 50 percent success rate.

Oregon State again ranked in the top three in the Pac-12 Conference for defensive fielding percentage, and was just a couple points off tying the school's single-season record.

In 2014, he helped mold the Oregon State infield despite entering the season with a mix of veterans and first-year players. The left side of the infield was anchored by freshmen Trever Morrison and Caleb Hamilton while the right side saw Andy Peterson, Kavin Keyes and Gabe Clark stabilize the team's defense.

Oregon State didn't miss a beat despite the mix. OSU ended the regular season as one of the top defensive clubs in the nation and posted a school-record .979 fielding percentage.

He helped guide Oregon State to the most wins in school history in 2013. He served as the team's infield and catchers coach while manning the third base coaching box while the club is on offense.

Catcher Jake Rodriguez threw out 22-of-36 steal attempts against him in 2013, a success rate of better than 60 percent. The rest of the infield was superb as Oregon State finished with a .973 fielding percentage and led the Pac-12 - and was amongst the top 25 nationally - with 65 double plays, just four shy of tying the program's single-season record.

In his first coaching season with the Beavers, Oregon State advanced to its fourth consecutive NCAA Regional and the club won 40 games for the fifth time in team history.

Jenkins helped work with the team's catchers and they excelled, throwing out better than 53 percent of runners attempting to steal, by far the best mark in the Pac-12 Conference. Jake Rodriguez, who was in his first full season behind the plate, was successful in throwing out 28-of-44 in stolen-base attempts against, which accounts for an impressive 64 percent.

Jenkins lettered for the Beavers in 2004 and 2005, helping guide the team to its first visit to the College World Series in more than 50 years his junior season.

Jenkins, a native of Salem, Ore., was also the most prolific Beaver offensively during the team's postseason run. He batted .459 - leading the team by more than 100 points - and tallied two home runs, two doubles and 13 RBI while slugging .784.

His .388 average as a senior in 2005 still stands as the ninth-best figure in team history. He also had 56 runs batted in that season, which led the club and stands as the 10th-best mark in a season in school history.

He ended his two-year Oregon State career having played in 98 games, batting .343 with 12 home runs, 15 doubles, 86 RBI and 41 walks while striking out just 44 in more than 340 at bats. His .343 career average is just shy of being in the top 10 for a career at Oregon State.

After his Oregon State career, Jenkins was selected in the 11th round of the 2005 MLB First-Year Player Draft by Florida. He played six seasons in the Minor Leagues with Florida and Texas, reaching the Triple-A level in 2009 and 2010. His six-year career saw him tally 2,341 plate appearances and he batted .268 with 32 home runs, 116 doubles, eight triples and 277 RBI.

Jenkins came to Oregon State after a two-year career at Mt. Hood Community College where he batted .358 as a sophomore, and as a freshman, was named first-team all-league at catcher.

Jenkins graduated from Oregon State with a degree in psychology in 2012. He is a native of Salem, Ore., and married the former Jessica McGee in January 2013. The couple has a newborn, Blakey Drew Jenkins.

NATE YESKIE

Assistant Coach • 8th Year

Pitchers

#21

UNLV, '03

Nate Yeskie, one of the most respected pitching coaches in the nation, is in his eighth season with the program in 2016.

In 2015, he helped the Beavers to their seventh consecutive postseason appearance by tutoring a young but talented pitching staff. One veteran, Andrew Moore, was selected in the second round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.

Yeskie's staff tallied a 3.02 earned run average last season, finished with seven shutouts and produced first-team all-league selections in Moore and freshman Drew Rasmussen, who tossed the program's first perfect game in March.

In 2014, he guided his pitching staff to one of the most respected units in the country. Jace Fry was named the Pac-12 Pitcher of the Year and Ben Wetzler ended the 2014 season with the nation's lowest earned run average at 0.78. Yeskie guided the duo and OSU's staff to a 2.29 ERA in 2014, just 0.01 shy of the school record, set the season before. The Beavers did set a school record with 15 shutouts, including eight of which came during conference action.

Fry and Wetzler were both selected in the 2014 MLB Draft, as was Scott Schultz. Twenty-one pitchers have been selected by MLB teams in Yeskie's six seasons in Corvallis.

The Beavers' pitching staff closed out the 2013 campaign with one of the finest efforts in program history.

Yeskie's staff finished 2013 with a program-record 2.28 earned run average. The Beavers tied for the nation's lead with 12 shutouts, which also set a school record. He was named the nation's top pitching coach by Collegiate Baseball after the season.

Four Oregon State pitchers were drafted, including two in the top six rounds: Ben Wetzler (fifth) and Matt Boyd (sixth).

Yeskie mentored a starting staff that rivaled for the best in the nation. His weekend starters, Boyd, Wetzler and Andrew Moore, combined to go 35-7 with a 2.00 ERA while finishing with 37 quality starts in 52 starts (71.1 percent). Yeskie's staff finished the 2012 campaign with a 3.48 earned run average and his pitchers combined to throw 29 quality starts.

He mentored Fry to multiple Freshman All-America honors and helped Dan Child to a 6-4 record and Team USA berth a year after finishing with just five innings of relief.

The Oregon State staff finished the 2011 season with a team ERA of 3.14, which was the lowest since 2005 and the second-lowest since 1979.

Yeskie's staff included Sam Gaviglio, who won 12 games and was named an All-American and at one point was a semifinalist for the Golden Spikes Award, as well as Josh Osich, who threw the program's first complete-game no-hitter since 1947 when the Beavers defeated UCLA, 2-0, on April 30.

Yeskie served as the pitching coach at his alma mater, UNLV, from 2005 to 2007. During his tenure with the Runnin' Rebels, Yeskie mentored eight players who earned either an All-Conference or All-Tournament Team selection.

Prior to returning to UNLV as a coach, Yeskie spent five seasons in the Minnesota Twins Minor League system, reaching as high as Double-A New Britain. He finished with a 27-24 record and 4.91 earned run average over the five seasons. Yeskie went 11-7 with Fort Wayne of the Midwest League in 1997, recording 111 strikeouts in 165 1/3 innings of work. In 2000, his last season, the La Crosse, Wis., native went 4-1 in 21 appearances.

During his time in professional baseball, Yeskie worked with former Detroit Tigers pitching coach and current Kansas City Minor League Pitching Coordinator Rick Knapp as well as MLB veterans Bert Blyleven, Mel Stottlemyre, Jr., and former pitching coach Billy Connors, who once held the position of Director of Player Personnel with the New York Yankees.

Yeskie came to the Twins organization after being drafted in the ninth round of the 1996 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Minnesota selected the right-hander after he finished his UNLV career with a 22-12 mark, including 16 complete games.

A three-year letterwinner, his 147 strikeouts in 1995 still stand as UNLV's single-season record. The mark was also fifth-best nationally that season, and coupled with his nine complete games - which led the Big West Conference - earned him First-Team All-Big West and First-Team All-Region honors.

Yeskie married the former Brittney Belshe, a former Oregon State volleyball player, in January 2012. The couple resides in Corvallis, and have a daughter, AJ.

TYLER GRAHAM

Undergraduate Asst.

Tyler Graham, an Oregon State alum and former Major League outfielder, is in his second season as an undergraduate assistant coach with the club.

Graham, a nine-year veteran in professional baseball, made his MLB debut with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2012. He played in 10 games for the Diamondbacks that season.

Graham finished his professional career with 267 stolen bases and a .272 average with 22 home runs and 218 runs batted in.

He lettered for Oregon State from 2003-06, and helped guide the Beavers to a national championship his senior season. OSU also won back-to-back Pac-10 titles, in 2005 and 2006.

Graham played in 151 games for the Beavers, and batted .317 with 10 doubles, two triples, one home run and 51 RBI. He also swiped 39 bases, which ranks him tied for ninth in Oregon State history.

Graham, a native of Great Falls, Mont., was selected in the 19th round of the 2006 MLB Draft by the San Francisco Giants after his career at OSU, where he was named all-conference honorable mention in 2005.

ANDY PETERSON

Undergraduate Asst.

Former Oregon State infielder Andy Peterson returns to Corvallis to serve as an undergraduate assistant coach for the 2016 season.

Peterson was a two-year letterwinner for the Beavers, after which he was selected by the Seattle Mariners in the 2014 MLB First-Year Player Draft.

In two years with the Beavers, he played in and started 119 games, batting .289 with 13 doubles and 42 runs batted in. He was known well for his ability to bunt, tallying 36 singles in that manner while finishing with 37 sacrifice bunts.

The second baseman was a Pac-12 Honorable Mention selection as a junior and was named to the 2013 Corvallis Regional All-Tournament Team.

Peterson came to Oregon State from Santa Ana Junior College; he batted .426 with 10 doubles and 25 RBI as a junior.

A native of La Palma, Calif., he lettered four years for Kennedy High School where he was named all-league his junior and senior years. He also lettered two years as a quarterback.

RON NORTHCUTT

Director of Operations
11th Year

Ron Northcutt is in his 11th season as Director of Baseball Operations and 15th overall with the Oregon State baseball program. Prior to his tenure as Director of Baseball Operations, Northcutt served as a pitching coach for four seasons.

As Director of Operations, Northcutt plays a large role in the team's travel, camp operations and any day-to-day needs of the Oregon State baseball team.

Northcutt came to Oregon State in 1994 and served as the team's pitching coach through the 1998 season. While overseeing the staff, his pitchers led the Pac-10 North Division in earned run average in 1996 and 1997. While with OSU, Northcutt tutored Mark Newell, who was a third-team All-American selection by Baseball America in 1997, as well as Andrew Checketts, who earned NCBWA All-America second team honors in 1998. From 1995, Northcutt's first season with the Beavers, through 1998, the Beavers saw six pitchers earned All-Pac-10 Northern Division honors.

Additionally, eight pitchers were selected by Major League clubs in the First-Year Player Draft during Northcutt's tenure.

In three seasons with the Beavers, Rodriguez played in 147 games, seeing action at catcher, third base and second base. He finished with a .992 fielding percentage and opponents managed just 30 stolen bases in 80 attempts, a meager 37.5 percent success rate.

DR. EDWARD RAY

University President

13th Year at Oregon State

Queens College, '66

Dr. Edward J. Ray became president of Oregon State University on July 31, 2003.

Under his leadership, OSU has completed and updated a visionary campus-wide strategic plan that has served as the framework for the university's development in profound and historic ways. Annual research awards and contracts have increased substantially and totaled nearly $285 million in fiscal year 2014.

President Ray partnered with the OSU Foundation to launch the university's first comprehensive fundraising campaign. The public phase launched in October 2007 with an initial goal of $625 million. By the end of the Campaign for OSU on December 31, 2014, its total reached $1.14 billion, including nearly $189 million for scholarships and fellowships, 79 newly endowed faculty positions, and funding for key scientific and learning facilities like the Lois Bates Acheson Veterinary Teaching Hospital, the Hallie Ford Center for Healthy Children and Families, The Linus Pauling Science Center, the International Living Learning Center, a renovated Furman Hall for the College of Education, the Graduate Studies Center at the OSU-Cascades Campus and four new cultural centers.

Mindful of OSU's commitment to the people of Oregon, Dr. Ray has overseen the expansion of dual-enrollment agreements to all 17 of the state's community colleges, making it easier for students to complete four-year degrees. He has also taken a leadership role in fostering a more seamless P-20 system, working with area school superintendents, community college leaders and university colleagues to strengthen institutional connections and enhance the student experience. Dr. Ray has also helped to usher in a new era of partnership and cooperation between Oregon's public universities. In Central Oregon, an effort to expand OSU-Cascades by fall 2015 to a robust four-year branch campus of Oregon State has begun, thanks to strong state and community support and financial investment.

In addition to his work at OSU, Dr. Ray's leadership extends to many organizations. He serves on boards of the American Council on Education and the Association of Public Land-grant Universities and chairs the Association of American Colleges and Universities. In recognition of his contributions to higher education, he received the 2013 CASE District VIII Leadership Award.

Dr. Ray was a member of the economics faculty at Ohio State from 1970-2003, serving as economics department chair from 1976 to 1992. He served as associate provost from May 1992 until May 1993, senior vice provost and chief information officer from 1993-1998, and executive vice president and provost from 1998-2003.

His research interests include the history of protectionism in the United States, the determinants of U.S. foreign direct investment and foreign direct investment in the United States, the structure of tariff and non-tariff trade barriers in the United States and abroad, and the adoption of Social Security. His work has been published in The American Economic Review, The Journal of Political Economy, The Quarterly Journal of Economics, The Review of Economic Studies, The Review of Economics and Statistics, and other leading journals. He has co-authored a principles text, and his book, "U. S. Protectionism and the World Debt Crisis," was published by Quorum Press in 1989.

Dr. Ray received his undergraduate degree in mathematics from Queens College (CUNY) in June 1966, graduating cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa. He earned his master's in economics from Stanford University in 1969 and his doctorate in economics also from Stanford in June 1971.

Dr. Ray's wife Beth passed away in March 2014. He has three children and three grandchildren.

OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY

Oregon State is a leading research university located in one of the safest, smartest, greenest small cities in the nation. Situated 90 miles south of Portland, and an hour from the Cascades or the Pacific Coast, Corvallis is the perfect home base for exploring Oregon's natural wonders.

Oregon State University has always been a place with a purpose — making a positive difference in quality of life, natural resources and economic prosperity in Oregon and beyond. Through discovery, innovation and application, we are meeting challenges, solving problems and turning ideas into reality.

Founded in 1868, Oregon State is the state's Land Grant university and is one of only two universities in the U.S. to have Sea Grant, Space Grant and Sun Grant designations. Oregon State is also the only university in Oregon to hold both the Carnegie Foundation's top designation for research institutions and its prestigious Community Engagement classification.

As Oregon's leading public research university, with $285 million in external funding in the 2014 fiscal year, Oregon State's impact reaches across the state and beyond. With 12 colleges, 15 Agricultural Experiment Stations, 35 county Extension offices, the Hatfield Marine Sciences Center in Newport and OSU-Cascades in Bend, Oregon State has a presence in every one of Oregon's 36 counties, with a statewide economic footprint of $2.232 billion.

Oregon State welcomes a diverse student body of over 30,058 students from across Oregon, all 50 states and more than 100 countries. They can choose from more than 200 undergraduate and more than 80 graduate degree programs, including over 30 degrees online offered through Oregon State Ecampus. Oregon State increasingly attracts high-achieving students, with nationally recognized programs in areas such as conservation biology, agricultural sciences, nuclear engineering, forestry, fisheries and wildlife management, community health, pharmacy and zoology.

Oregon State also ranks high in sustainability, fourth among universities nationwide for using renewable energy and first in the Pac-12 Conference. And our students literally help power the university: 22 exercise machines at Dixon Recreation Center are connected to the grid.

The 400-acre main campus in Corvallis includes a Historic District, making Oregon State one of only a handful of U.S. university campuses listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The district includes such icons as Weatherford Hall, the Memorial Union and Benton Hall, the oldest building on campus.

Oregon State is located in Corvallis, a vibrant college town of 55,000 in the heart of Western Oregon's Willamette Valley. Corvallis consistently ranks among the best and safest cities to live in the U.S., as well as among the most environmentally responsible.

TODD STANSBURY

VP/Director of Athletics

1st Year at Oregon State

Georgia Tech, 1984

Todd Stansbury was named vice president and director of athletics at Oregon State University June 18, 2015, rejoining the Pac-12 Conference institution after serving as the Beavers' executive associate athletic director from February 2003 to January 2012. He officially began his new role Aug. 1, 2015.

"Todd is committed to high-level athletics achievement by competing and winning championships the right way – the Oregon State way," OSU president Ed Ray said upon Stansbury's hiring. "He is very skilled at growing fan excitement and engagement, and will guide the success of our student-athletes in sports, academics and community."

During his previous tenure at Oregon State, Stansbury was part of the senior leadership team that led a renaissance of Oregon State athletics. The Beavers played in eight bowl games; the baseball team won two College World Series titles; and nearly every program advanced to postseason play while Stansbury was in Corvallis during his first stint. He was also instrumental in fundraising for the $150 million Reser Stadium expansion, the reintroduction of the women's track and field program, the renovation of Goss Stadium at Coleman Field, and the construction of the Sports Performance Center, the Beth Ray Student Success Center, the OSU Boathouse and the Whyte Track and Field Center.

While the 54-year-old Stansbury has led high-profile coaching searches, facility expansion and construction projects during his athletics career, he also has been instrumental as a leader of student-athlete growth on and off the field. He is part of a team that developed several key lifefskills career development initiatives at OSU. These include the Everyday Champions program which encompasses the Leadership Institute, Varsity OSU and the international service program Beavers Without Borders, among others.

Between his tenures at Oregon State, Stansbury served as the vice president and director of athletics at the University of Central Florida in Orlando from March 1, 2012 through June 18, 2015. He led the Knights to a successful transition from Conference USA to the American Athletic Conference where UCF won three titles in its initial year in the new league. Among those three championships was the football team's historic 12-1 season in 2013 that culminated in a No. 10 Associated Press final national ranking after defeating Baylor in the Fiesta Bowl. UCF also was the only Division I program in 2014-15 to win conference titles in football, volleyball, women's soccer and softball.

Academically, UCF teams combined for 15 consecutive terms with a department 3.00 GPA or higher with Stansbury at the helm. Under his leadership, the Knights boasted a 95 percent graduation rate, the top score among public institutions at the Division I level. In addition, he developed the Institute for Student-Athlete Leadership that included Knights Without Borders; resurrected the Varsity Knights program; and partnered with several local and national student-athlete leadership and achievement programs.

Stansbury's first role as a director of athletics came in July of 2000 when he was hired at East Tennessee State University. He initiated and implemented a program-wide strategic plan and reorganization while completing numerous infrastructure and capital projects, including the development of a state-of-the-art golf practice facility and the expansion of the athletic training facility into an out-patient rehabilitation center. In addition to numerous athletic accomplishments, ETSU was recognized by USA Today for increasing the graduation rates of its student-athletes while under his direction.

Stansbury began his professional career as a banker in the asset-based lending division of Citizens and Southern National Bank in Atlanta before returning to the Georgia Institute of Technology (Georgia Tech), his alma mater, as an academic counselor for football in 1988.

As the assistant athletic director for academics at Georgia Tech, he was responsible for the overall development and management of the educational support program for student-athletes. This platform was a major component of the Homer Rice Total Person Program, which was adopted nationally by the NCAA Foundation and Division I-A athletic directors as the NCAA Champs/Life Skills Program. Georgia Tech was consistently recognized nationally for its graduation rates while Stansbury served in this capacity.

In 1995 Stansbury left Georgia Tech to become the global coordinator for the Institute for International Sport. In this capacity he and his wife, Karen, spent 16 months traveling around the world promoting the 1997 World Scholar-Athlete Games and developing a global network of educators, sport organizations and government leaders.

Upon his return to the U.S. in 1996, Stansbury worked for Southern Network Services in Birmingham, Ala., as the manager of internet business services where he developed the business plan for the new internet services division.

He returned to intercollegiate athletics in 1997 at the University of Houston, serving as associate athletic director. His responsibilities included NCAA compliance and student-athlete support services. He also served as the primary liaison to the university's administrative units. Under his direction the student-athlete support program was transformed and recognized by USA Today for increasing graduation rates.

The Oakville, Ontario, native attended Georgia Tech on a football scholarship where he lettered as a linebacker and graduated with a B.S. in industrial management in 1984. He was a third round draft choice of the Saskatchewan Rough Riders of the Canadian Football League. He later completed a M.S. in sports administration at Georgia State University in 1993.

Married to the former Karen Hammond of Easley, S.C., the Stansburys' interest in the outdoors and travel has led to a number of adventures including trekking the Himalayas of Nepal, tracking the mountain gorilla in the Congo (Zaire) and sailing the Whitsunday Islands of Australia.

Stansbury is among the most experienced administrators in the NCAA. His work includes serving on numerous national and conference boards, including the Football Oversight Committee, the American Athletic Conference Finance Committee and several UCF boards.

With his leadership skills, wealth of experience and integrity, Oregon State athletics will continue to be a source of pride for Beaver Nation and be a competitor for conference and national championships while maintaining a strong emphasis on academic excellence.

The Season

Oregon State finished the season with a 39-18-1 record, and posted a 19-10-1 mark in Pac-12 Conference play. OSU finished in sole possession of second place, 2 1/2 games behind league champion UCLA. The Beavers, in the preseason, were predicted to finish fifth by the conference's coaches.

To The Postseason

The Beavers were hopeful of a hosting opportunity at Goss Stadium. That was not meant to be. That, however, didn't take away from the fact the Beavers advanced to their seventh consecutive postseason, extending it school-record stretch.

Oregon State, in fact, was just one of 11 schools nationally to advance for the last seven years, and the only from the Pac-12. The Dallas Baptist Regional appearance gave the Beavers 10 trips in the last 11 years.

Since 2005

Since 2005, the year of OSU's first trip to Omaha, the Beavers have won 30 or more games 10 times, including the 39 victories in 2015. Over that stretch, Oregon State has won 459 games, or 42 per season, which is second only to Arizona State's 464. The Beavers also have 184 league victories, which is nine shy of conference leader Arizona State's 193. OSU can also claim 13 All-Americans since 2005, which represent half of the program's all-time total.

Honors

Andrew Moore received a large chunk of the team's individual honors in 2015, recording four All-America Awards while also being named an Academic All-Region selection while studying digital communications. He was joined on the All-America list by Jeff Hendrix, who was a first-time selection. KJ Harrison, Drew Rasmussen and Mitch Hickey were all named to at least one Freshman All-America Team. All told, 10 players received at least one award during the season.

Closing The Gap

Andrew Moore was named Pac-12 Pitcher of the Week three times and Drew Rasmussen once to give OSU 77 selections since the league began the award in 1986. The Beavers are creeping up on Stanford, which leads the conference with 80.

KJ Harrison, meanwhile, earned the team's lone Player of the Week honor in the second week of the season, becoming the Beavers' first freshman to do since Kavin Keyes in 2011. OSU now has 66 such honors, tying it with Washington State for third-most.

MLB Draft

Four Beavers were selected in the MLB Draft: Andrew Moore (second round, Seattle), Jeff Hendrix (fourth round, New York Yankees), Travis Eckert (20th round, San Francisco) and Gabe Clark (26th round, Toronto). Moore and Hendrix have signed and have already made their professional debuts. The Beavers have now had at least one MLB selection in every draft since 1993, and have had four or more in 11 of the last 12 years.

Casey Climbing The Charts

Head coach Pat Casey won 30 or more games for the 16th time in his 21 seasons at Oregon State, and has 754 entering the 2016 season. He'll need just 10 to surpass former USC head coach Mike Gillespie for eighth in conference history.

Youth Is Served

Oregon State went into the season knowing it would field a young club, and that was truly the case. Not once did the team's starting lineup feature more than 40 percent upperclassmen. At least six freshmen and sophomores started every single game. Only a handful of times did the Beavers start a lineup with four upperclassmen. And when doing so, that typically happened with first-year Beavers Travis Eckert (junior) and Dane Lund (senior). Eckert, Andrew Moore, Clay Bauer, Zack Reser and Austin Woodward were the only upperclassmen to see action on the hill.

Another RBI Leader

Never before have OSU players led a specific statistical category in the Pac-12 for four consecutive seasons. Until now. KJ Harrison drove in 60 runs, leading the Pac-12. He follows Dylan Davis (2013 and 2014) and Michael Conforto (2012) at the top of the list. Harrison's 60 RBI ranks him eighth on OSU's single-season records list. Seven of the players in the top 10 recorded their tallies since 2000.

Power Surge

The Beavers experienced a power surge offensively this season, hitting 40 home runs, good for second in the Pac-12. OSU was led by KJ Harrison's 10, which placed him into third in the league. Ten different Beavers hit at least one home run, with multiples coming from Gabe Clark (eight), Jeff Hendrix (six), Caleb Hamilton (four), Joe Gillette (two), Michael Howard (two), Logan Ice (two) and Kyle Nobach (two).

2013 CWS Participants Beavers Return To Omaha

The Oregon State baseball team returned to Omaha in 2013 after a five-year hiatus from the College World Series. The Beavers made the trip on the strength of an incredibly strong pitching staff and a balanced offense.

Much like past seasons, the Beavers relied heavily on a Northwest flavor with its roster. Twenty players on the team's 35-man roster hailed from either Washington or Oregon, including all three of the team's weekend starters, Matt Boyd, Ben Wetzler and Andrew Moore.

The Beavers broke the school record for victories with 52, won the Pac-12 Conference with a 24-6 record and advanced to the World Series after hosting both the Corvallis Regional and Corvallis Super Regional.

- Oregon State played its first ever games at TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, going 2-2. The two victories gave the Beavers 13 all-time wins in Omaha, with each belonging to head coach Pat Casey.

- Oregon State batted .290 during the postseason and finished with a 3.00 earned run average. Kavin Keyes paced OSU with a .357 batting average and Michael Conforto set the OSU single postseason record with six doubles. Ben Wetzler was stellar for the Beavers on the mound, posting a 3-0 record and 2.74 ERA. He, Matt Boyd and Andrew Moore combined to pitch in 76 of the team's 90 postseason innings (84.4 percent) and tallied a 6-2 record.

- Matt Boyd recorded the Beavers' first-ever complete-game effort at the College World Series in his last collegiate appearance when he shut out Indiana in a 1-0 win over June 19. It was just the 18th all-time 1-0 game at the College World Series, and the first since 1985.

- Oregon State's 52 victories surpassed the 2006 club's school-record 50-win season. The Beavers' 2013 winning percentage of .800 was the best mark in modern OSU history and led the Pac-12 Conference. The 52 wins is also the most by a Pac-12 school since Arizona State won 52 in 2010.

- The Beavers stretched their program record postseason appearances to five and in eight of the last nine seasons. Oregon State has made four NCAA College World Series appearances during that stretch.

- Oregon State won its third league title under head coach Pat Casey and did so with a 24-6 record. The 24 wins is the most by a league team since the then-Pac-10 unified prior to the 1999 season. The 24 wins is the most since USC won the Pac-10 South in 1996.

- Michael Conforto was named the Pac-12's Player of the Year and Andrew Moore earned Freshman of the Year honors. Both were also named All-Americans, as was Matt Boyd, giving the Beavers three in a year for just the second time in school history (the first coming in 2006).

- Moore was named a first-team All-American, becoming the first true freshman in OSU history to pick up the honor. Conforto, meanwhile, became just the fifth player in school history to record back-to-back All-American seasons.

- The Beavers lost consecutive games just once, in a doubleheader against Washington on April 20. Oregon State opened the year with 15 consecutive wins, and later had a 12-game win streak that began the day after the doubleheader loss. Oregon State headed into the postseason with 16 wins in its last 18 games.

- OSU finished with the nation's second-lowest ERA at 2.28, which also led the Pac-12 and set a new school record for best ERA. The Beavers also led the Pac-12 with a .217 batting average against and were second in fewest hits allowed at 454 and fifth in fewest walks allowed at 173, just 15 behind the Pac-12's leader.

- Oregon State found itself in the top 10 every weekend according to Baseball America. The Beavers were outside the top 10 just twice according to the other four major polls.

2007 National Champions Beavers Go Back-To-Back

The 2007 season was a special year for the Oregon State baseball team. The Beavers became just the fifth NCAA team to win back-to-back titles, and did so on the heels of their third consecutive trip to the College World Series in Omaha.

Oregon State was led by two of the most recognizable players in school history in Mitch Canham and Darwin Barney. OSU was buoyed on the mound by Mike Stutes, who ended the season with 12 victories - three came in the postseason, including two in the College World Series. The Beavers were blessed with a cast of players that included Joe Paterson, Daniel Turpen, Eddie Kunz, Jordan Lennerton, John Wallace, Joey Wong and others, who truly embraced the team concept and helped deliver spectacular performances throughout the College World Series and the postseason.

The Beavers swept through the postseason, going 11-1 en route to their second straight national championship.

- Oregon State trailed for just one inning during the College World Series, which consisted of a little less than 45 full innings for the Beavers. North Carolina held a 1-0 lead after one inning in the final game, but the Beavers answered back with three runs in the second to help boost them to the 9-3 win.

- Oregon State became the first team ever to win four straight CWS games by at least six runs. The Beavers' closest victory came in their first game, a 3-2 victory over Cal State Fullerton.

- Oregon State became just the sixth NCAA team to sweep its way through the College World Series. And OSU was the back-to-back title holder since the NCAA went to a best-of-three championship series.

- Jorge Reyes was named the College World Series Most Outstanding Player. Reyes went 2-0 at the World Series, defeating Cal State Fullerton and North Carolina.

- Oregon State opened the postseason as the No. 3 seed at the Charlottesville Regional on the campus of the University of Virginia. By winning the College World Series, Oregon State became the first No. 3 seed to do so.

- The Beavers opened postseason play by defeating Rutgers, 5-1. They lost their next game in 13 innings to Virginia, 7-4, but then went on win their next 10 games, the final one coming in Omaha.

- Oregon State came from a 3-0 deficit in the final game of the Charlottesville Regional to advance to a Super Regional against Michigan. Against UVA, OSU scored four runs in the final two innings and held on through a Joe Paterson victory to advance.

- The Beavers one-hit Michigan in the first game of the Super Regional at Goss Stadium, and scored a run in the ninth for the win. OSU dominated the second game, 8-2, to advance to the College World Series.

- Oregon State pitchers posted an incredible 2.57 earned run average through the post-season. Opponents hit just .210 against them and collected only 83 hits in 112 innings.

- Oregon State returned to Parker Plaza on the OSU campus after returning from Omaha and celebrated the second title in front of an estimated crowd of 6,000.

- Fifteen players on the championship squad would end up being drafted by Major League clubs at some point during their tenure at Oregon State. Two more ended up signing contracts as undrafted free agents.

- OSU finished the season with 49 victories, one off tying the school record.

2006 National Champions OSU Wins Its First Title

Oregon State went to the 2006 College World Series in Omaha as veterans after the Beavers made their second all-time appearance at the CWS in 2005.

The Beavers returned a number of players who made the 2005 appearance, and who were bounced after two games. That left them hungry, knowing they wanted more. And in 2006, they did not disappoint as Oregon State went 6-2 over eight games in Omaha to claim its first national championship.

The Beavers dispatched of North Carolina in the national title series. Oregon State lost to the Tar Heels, 4-3, in the first game, and saw itself behind UNC, 5-0, after three-and-a-half innings, but the Beavers scored seven in the bottom of the fourth and forced a third game after an 11-7 victory. A North Carolina error in the eighth gave the Beavers a run, breaking a 2-2 tie in the deciding game, and ultimately, the victory.

That national championship victory made the Beavers the first NCAA title holder from the Pacific-10 Conference since USC in 1998.

- Oregon State became the first team from the Pacific Northwest to win the national title, and the first from the northern part of the country to win it in 40 years.

- The Beavers were the first team to ever face six elimination games at the College World Series. And OSU became the first national championship club to win despite losing two games in Omaha.

- Oregon State opened its trip in Omaha by losing to Miami, 11-1. By virtue of that loss, the Beavers became just the second team in the last 25 years to win the title after losing their first game.

- Right-handed starter Jonah Nickerson was named the Most Outstanding Player of the College World Series. He made three CWS appearances, throwing 21 2/3 innings, allowing just four runs (two earned), 12 hits and four walks. Nickerson struck out 19.

- Nickerson ended the postseason with a 4-0 record, winning at least one game in the NCAA Regional, NCAA Super Regional and College World Series. He threw 36 2/3 innings over five games and allowed just 20 hits to go along with 34 strikeouts and a 1.23 ERA.

- Nickerson paced the Oregon State pitching staff, which saw eight pitchers contribute in the postseason run. Only one pitcher had an ERA above 5.00, and the team combined to limit opponents to a .219 batting average.

- Offensively, the Beavers finished with a .302 average as a team through 13 postseason games. Tyler Graham paced the way for the Beavers with a .426 batting average while Bill Rowe was close behind with a .419 mark. His 18 runs batted in led the team.

- Oregon State opened the postseason by hosting an NCAA Regional and the Beavers outscored their opponents - Wright State, Kansas and Hawaii - by a combined 28-9 mark. Oregon State never trailed during regional play.

- The Beavers defeated Stanford, 4-3, to open Super Regional play at Goss in the next round, then shut out the Cardinal, 15-0, in the second game to advance to Omaha. The 15-run win marked the second-biggest in the school's postseason history and was just the second shutout ever thrown, at the time, by OSU pitchers in NCAA play.

- Oregon State advanced to the postseason by winning the Pac-10 title and was named a No. 1 seed at its own regional.

- The Beavers ended the 2006 season with 50 victories, a school-record. It eclipsed the previous record of 46 set in 2005.

2005 CWS Participants Beavers Begin 3-Year Run

Oregon State began its magical three-year run to Omaha in 2005, a year that saw the club make many firsts. The Beavers went to the College World Series for the first time in more than 50 years, win the Pacific-10 Conference for the first time and advance to an NCAA Super Regional for the first time.

They did so with a cast of players with an overwhelming Pacific Northwest flavor, including Oregon born Dallas Buck, Kevin Gunderson, Jonah Nickerson, Jacoby Ellsbury and Darwin Barney, among others. Of the 29 players on the roster born in either Oregon or Washington, 13 ended their tenure at Oregon State being drafted by Major League clubs at least once.

The Beavers played their last game in Omaha on June 20, which, at the time, was the latest on the calendar an Oregon State season had ever extended.

- Oregon State went 0-2 in Omaha, but the World Series capped off a magnificent season for the Beavers. Oregon State won its first Pac-10 title by going 19-5 during the regular season. The 19 wins mark a conference record for the Beavers, who won seven of their eight Pac-10 series.

- The Beavers won 46 games, a new single-season school record. It surpassed the previous record of 39 set in 1986.

- The Beavers lost consecutive games only twice; once during the regular season, to Stanford and Arizona, and then in Omaha to Tulane and Baylor.

- Oregon State won five of its six games leading up to the College World Series. The Beavers outscored St. John's and Ohio State, 34-7, in three games at the Corvallis Regional.

- The Beavers advanced to a Super Regional at Goss Stadium, and took 2-of-3 from USC, whom OSU had ended the Pac-10 regular season with. The Beavers advanced to the NCAA College World Series after scoring two runs in the seventh in the third game of the Super Regional.

- Oregon State lost both of its games in Omaha, but the team's pitching staff was stellar. The Beavers allowed just seven runs over two games at Rosenblatt Stadium.

- The Beavers batted .321 as a team through the eight postseason games, and were led by Andy Jenkins' .459 batting average, which stands as the single-best postseason for any Oregon State player.

- The team's pitching staff was anchored by Jonah Nickerson, who went 1-1 with a 2.11 earned run average. Nickerson ended his career with five postseason victories, four a year later, which ties Mike Stutes for most in an OSU career.

- The trip to the postseason was the first in 19 years for Oregon State, which had last appeared in an NCAA Regional in Stillwater, Okla., in 1986. At the time, the eight postseason games played in 2005 was a single-year record for the Beavers.

- Head coach Pat Casey won his first career postseason game on June 3 as the Beavers scored a run in both the eighth and ninth innings for a 4-3 come-from-behind victory over Ohio State.

- Oregon State defeated St. John's, 19-3, in the final game of the Corvallis Regional. The 16-run win still stands as the team's single-largest postseason victory.

- Jacoby Ellsbury, who in 2007 became the first former OSU player to win a MLB World Series, played in all eight games in the 2005 postseason and batted .351 with two doubles, a triple and five stolen bases.

- Thirteen players who played in the 2005 postseason won a title in 2006 with OSU.

1952 CWS Participants OSU Makes First CWS Trip

Oregon State made its first foray into an NCAA postseason in 1952, and the Beavers also advanced to the College World Series for the first time. Oregon State lost in two games in their inaugural trip to Omaha, but came away with a positive first experience at Omaha Stadium.

The Beavers opened the year by winning the Pacific Coast Conference title and then swept Fresno State in the Western Regional in Corvallis.

“The team of ‘52 was an exceptional collection of raw talent as I look back today,” pitcher Alex Goedhard said years later. “I say raw talent because we had no specialty training. There were no coaches specializing in hitting, fielding, outfield or pitching. There were no physical training regimens for players targeting playing positions outside of daily routine practice. There was no or very little scouting of opposing teams and players.”

- At the Western Regional, on June 7, the Beavers hosted Fresno State in front of a crowd of 4,600, the largest attendance figure to date at what is now Goss Stadium at Coleman Field.

- Oregon State began the season on a high note, winning its first seven games and nine of 10.

- The Beavers had just three losing streaks of two games, with the final one coming in Omaha. Oregon State did not lose consecutive games at home the entire season.

- The 27 victories posted by the Beavers in 1952 set a school single-season record. That record was not surpassed until the 1975 team won 28 games.

- Ralph Coleman was in the midst of his third stint with the team and had another 14 years before ending his illustrious career. Coleman’s two victories in the postseason do not count toward his overall career record, but merely add to 561 victories, then a school record.

- Oregon State’s appearance in Omaha was significant as it was only the sixth-ever College World Series held. The Beavers opened against Duke in just the second-ever meeting between the schools in any sport; the first was in the 1942 Rose Bowl.

- Oregon State used what is now an unusual mode of transportation to arrive in Omaha. The team traveled to Omaha by train on the Union Pacific streamliner City of Portland. The Beavers arrived just after 3 a.m. on a Wednesday.

- Oregon State was the fourth team of what is now known as the Pac-10 to advance to the College World Series. California, USC and Washington St. all advanced to Omaha before the Beavers’ first trip in 1952.

- The games were played at what was then known as Omaha Stadium; it is now known as Rosenblatt Stadium. This marked the third year the CWS was held at Rosenblatt.

- Twenty-seven of the 34 players (79.4 percent) listed on the roster hailed from the state of Oregon.

- Oregon State won its first-ever Pacific Coast Conference Championship in 1952. The Beavers defeated USC in two games; winning game one, 12-10, and taking game two, 5-4, with both contests being played in Corvallis.

- Dwane Helbig became Oregon State’s first All-American in 1952 when the American Baseball Coaches Association named him to the second team. He batted .418 with three home runs and 10 RBI in PCC Northern Division games.

- Bailey Brem and Jay Dean, who were both on the 1952 team, earned All-American honors in 1953 and 1954, respectively. Dean was an All-American in 1955 as well. He was OSU’s first two-time All-American.

2016 NCAA Postseason • OSU Championship History

The 2016 NCAA Postseason will feature, as always, the nation's top 64 teams. Sixteen four-team regionals will be held June 3-6, followed by eight Super Regionals, featuring the top 16 teams remaining who advanced past the regionals. The 2015 College World Series will be played June 17-29 at TD Ameritrade Park Omaha.

The Pac-12 Conference holds the record with 27 World Series titles, followed by the Big 12 Conference at 10 and the Big Ten at six. A Pac-12 team has finished as national champions or runner-up in seven of the last 13 years. At least one Pac-12 player has been named to the All-College World Series team in all but one year since 1997.

In 2006 and 2007, the then-Pac-10 had 11 players named to the All-CWS Team, and each one was an Oregon State Beaver. In 2006, Jonah Nickerson was named the Most Outstanding Player after the Beavers captured their first national title. In 2007, Jorge Reyes claimed the honor as OSU won its second straight title.

Oregon State is one of just six schools nationally to win back-to-back national titles, and one of three from the Pac-12. USC won five straight titles from 1970-74. Stanford won two straight from 1987-88, followed nearly 20 years later by the Beavers. Texas won consecutive titles from 1949-1950 and LSU became the fourth club to accomplish the feat, doing so in 1996 and 1997. South Carolina is the most recent, winning championships in 2010 and 2011.
