

Thirteenth Annual "Doe" Dinner of the CAMP AND TRAIL CLUB

Place: "Wilds of North America"
Rose Room
Bellevue-Stratford

Time: Thursday Evening
February 1, 1934
at 6.30 o'clock

Guest Speaker of Honor

A Surprise in Store for You

*One whose timely talks have earned for him
a national reputation*

Outfit: We Should Worry
Be your Own Guide
—But, and this is important—Bring Along Your Best Hunting, Camping
and Fishing Tales. Tall Stories
Not Barred.

The Rare and Remote
of North
America

"Covering
A Continent"

Bears
Caribou
Reindeer
Birds
Glaciers
Canyons
Volcanoes

INTRODUCING WM. L. FINLEY

Who for the past three decades, has cruised and explored the bird islands of the Gulf of Mexico, the coast line of British Columbia, haunts of BIG GAME in Alaska, Northern Glaciers and Volcanoes, the highest passes of the Cascade Rocky Mountain Ranges and Alaskan Ranges. With interesting and humorous anecdotes, Explorer Finley will present the most spectacular and sensational animal pictures ever collected.

Rah, "Doe"—Me for This Dinner!

Wife, sweetheart, mother, sister or daughter—they'll sure want to come with you. Then there's that raw recruit—round him up, too. Be an elephant—don't forget to

CHECK THAT EVENING RIGHT NOW—FEBRUARY 1st 1934

You must have this reservation in, on or before Monday, January 22nd, to be sure of a comfortable seat.

S. N. KEEFAUVER, Secretary
5938 Cobbs Creek Boulevard
Philadelphia, Pa.

February..... 1934

Kindly reserve..... places in my name for the Doe Dinner at $4.00 each, for which please find my check for $.....

Write complete names of your party on the back of this slip in order that they may be seated together

Signed