2009 Oregon State Regional Notes

Beavers In A Regional Again

Oregon State will be making its fourth trip to an NCAA Regional in five years when the Beavers head to Fort Worth to play host TCU, Texas A&M and Wright State. In the Beavers' three previous trips to an NCAA Regional, Oregon State eventually advanced to the College World Series and earned titles in 2006 and 2007.

Postseason History

Oregon State is making its 10th trip to an NCAA Regional dating back to 1952. The Beavers are 32-18 in NCAA Tournament games, including a mark of 15-11 (.577) in regional games. Head coach Pat Casey has a 27-6 record in NCAA games and has gone 10-1 in NCAA Regional contests.

Regional Experience

Of the 35 players on the Oregon State active roster, just six have NCAA Regional experience, and only three have more than three innings of work or more than 15 at bats in a Regional contest. John Wallace leads all OSU hitters in NCAA Regional play with a .438 average, posting four RBI, a double and a triple.

Against The Other Clubs

Oregon State is most familiar with Texas A&M and will open its NCAA Regional against the Aggies. OSU is 2-4 all-time against A&M, and most recently split two games in College Station in 2007. Oregon State has played Wright State just once, winning 5-3, in the opening game of the 2006 Corvallis Regional. The Beavers played two games against TCU in 1993 and split them with the Horned Frogs.

On The Road

Oregon State has played 30 games away from its home ballpark, Goss Stadium, this season. The Beavers are 18-12 in such games this season, posting an 8-8 mark in true road games.

Non-Conference Tilts

With Pacific-10 Conference play officially over and the NCAA Tournament at hand, it's important to take a look at the Beavers' non-conference record. Oregon State went 20-5 in non-conference games this season, winning its last 12. Coincidentally, or not, that enabled the Beavers to go 12-0 in mid-week games this season.

Keeping Opponents Down

Even though the Beavers played a tough schedule this season, the team's pitchers were able to keep opponents at bay. OSU limited opponents to two runs or less 14 times and the Beavers finished the regular season a perfect 14-0 when doing so. When limiting teams to five runs or less, meanwhile, Oregon State was 29-9.

No Big Blowouts Here

Oregon State played relatively close games all season, with just 16 contests decided by five or more runs. Of course, in that situation, the Beavers went 15-1 through the regular season. OSU lost just one game by four or more runs this season.

And That Brings Us To One-Run Games

With so many games being close, it's obvious that the Beavers would play a ton of one-and-two-run games. That was certainly the case. Of the team's 52 games this season, 23 (44.2 percent) were decided by two runs or less. The Beavers went 10-13 in games decided by two runs or less. In fact, of the team's 12 losses in Pac-10 play, seven came by one run.

Gaviglio Throws Excellence

Sam Gaviglio won nine games for the Beavers this season, setting what is believed to be a school record for the most wins by a freshman. He went 9-1, winning his last six decisions. Gaviglio's 2.84 ERA was the best amongst the team's starters during the regular season and he finished the campaign tied for second in wins.

Newcomers - Offense

OSU had a host of newcomers join the club this season and they played valuable roles. Offensively, Jared Norris finished second on the team with a .333 batting average and contributed three home runs and 32 RBI. Adalberto Santos was third on the club with a .317 batting average and also finished with four home runs and 43 RBI. Stefen Romero led OSU with 46 RBI.

Newcomers - Pitching

Outside of Gaviglio, Tyler Waldron proved to be OSU's biggest addition, finishing the regular season with a 6-3 record, 3.84 ERA and 66 strikeouts in a team-leading 89 innings.

PAT CASEY

Head Coach

15th Season At OSU (503-312-4)

22nd Season Overall (674-425-5)

In 15 seasons at Oregon State, Casey has taken the Oregon State program and made it into one of top programs in the nation. He has taken the Beavers to three College World Series, won two national titles, claimed the Pacific-10 Conference twice and has seen nine different players earn All-America honors. For his work, Casey has been named National Coach of the Year by multiple organizations on multiple occasions.

Now in his 15th season with Oregon State, Casey has guided the Beavers to a 503-312-4 record. Oregon State will be in its fourth NCAA Regional in five years. Casey and Oregon State finished the 2009 regular season with a 35-17 record, placing in the top 25 of the five major polls for a majority of the season.

Casey has now guided Oregon State to 13 winning seasons and 10 years with 30 or more wins.

In the past five seasons, Casey has guided the Beavers to 208 victories, which is second in the Pac-10. During that same stretch, Casey's clubs have won 71 conference games, which is the second-most among division clubs.

In that five-year stretch, six players have earned All-America honors while 13 players have been recognized as All-Pac-10 performers. That includes two league Most Valuable Player awards and two Defensive Player of the Year selections.

In 2008, Casey and the Beavers went 28-24 and missed out on the postseason. But the Beavers played perhaps their most ambitious schedule in school history and took series from five schools that earned either No. 1 or No. 2 seeds in NCAA Regionals. Oregon State posted a 5-5 record against College World Series teams, taking 2-of-3 in separate series against Arizona State and Georgia.

Casey also saw his team have seven selections in the MLB First-Year Player Draft, giving the club 24 over the past three seasons, a program record.

Last season, Casey made marks on the program, literally. He spearheaded a fundraising campaign to expand Goss Stadium, adding nearly 1,000 permanent seats, a stadium suite, new player's lounge, academic room and Hall of Fame room. The additions transformed Goss Stadium from one of the best in the West into one of the nation's finest collegiate stadiums.

In 2007, Casey, his staff and the team's players worked hard to build team chemistry, coming together at the right time for a second-straight national championship. Oregon State went an incredible 39-4 in non-conference games, including an 11-1 mark in the postseason. After losing their second game at the Charlottesville Regional, the Beavers went on a dynamic run, winning their last 10 games -- including five in Omaha -- to claim the national title.

"Not only did Oregon State become only the fifth school and the first in 10 years to repeat as national champions, but it also did it in dominating fashion. The Beavers won all five of their CWS games and trailed in only one of the 45 innings they played here," wrote ESPN.com's Mark Schlabach from Omaha.

"And Oregon State won it all again when it wasn't even supposed to be here."

That title has thrust Oregon State including NCAA baseball lore. The Beavers became just the fifth program to win back-to-back national titles, joining Texas (1949-50), USC (1970-74), Stanford (1987-88) and LSU (1996-97).

For his ability to mold the Beavers into the nation's finest, Casey was again recognized as a national coach of the year, this time by Collegiate Baseball and the American Baseball Coaches Association. The honors comes a year after Casey was the consensus national coach of the year in leading Oregon State to its first title.

That 2006 title was just as special, as the Beavers became the first program from the Pacific Northwest to the NCAA Division I College World Series.

The 2006 Beavers had a storybook season, capped by a run through the CWS that saw them win six elimination games in Omaha to win the national championship. After being beaten by Miami (Fla.) in its opening game, OSU won four straight - including back-to-back shutouts of top-ranked Rice - to reach the championship series. In the best-of-three finals against North Carolina, OSU lost the opening game and trailed by five runs in the second game before rallying for wins of 11-7 and 3-2 for the title.

Oregon State's 50-16 season set a school record for wins for the second straight season, and the Beavers refuse-to-lose style of play captured the hearts of not only those watching in Omaha, but college baseball fans across the nation.

After the 2006 season, Oregon State signed Casey to a new 10-year contract to guarantee his future in Corvallis. Casey had become an attractive candidate for coaching vacancies at a number of high-profile schools given the Beavers' amazing success.

In retaining Casey, Oregon State instantly kept its most successful coach in Corvallis. It also allowed the Beavers to have the knowledge they have one of the most recognized coaches in the nation. In 2006, after winning the team's first title, was Casey was recognized as the National Coach of the Year by Collegiate Baseball, Baseball America and American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA).

In 2005, he was named the Pac-10's Coach of the Year after guiding the Beavers to their first of two straight conference titles. He earned the honor again in 2006 with the second title. In both years, he was recognized as the ABCA's West Region Coach of the Year.

With back-to-back titles comes increased exposure. For the second time under Casey's tenure, Oregon State has expanded the Beavers' home field, and both times, Casey has been a driving force behind the renovations.

In 1999, Oregon State expanded what is now known as Goss Stadium at Coleman Field, adding increased seating, improved locker rooms and a full press box.

And Casey and the Beavers have rewarded the fans with increased chances to watch the team play. In each of their three College World Series years, the Beavers played a super regional at venerable Goss, and it has paid off. Oregon State has gone 6-1 at super regionals in Corvallis, defeating USC, Stanford and Michigan.

In 2005 and 2006, Casey earned both the Pacific-10 Conference and NCAA West Region Coach of the Year honors for guiding the Beavers to back-to-back Pac-10 championships and berths in the CWS.

Since Casey became Oregon State's head coach prior to the 1995 season, the Beavers have moved into a prominent position on the national scene.

OSU has had players earn spots on the USA Baseball national team four times, earn All-America honors 11 times, and had players taken in the top 10 rounds of the Major League Baseball draft 22 times - including first-rounders Jacoby Ellsbury in 2005 and Kunz and Canham in 2007. Ellsbury became Oregon State's first former player to win a Major League World Series when he and the Boston Red Sox won their second title in four seasons in 2007.

In 2005, OSU had been picked to finish sixth in the Pacific-10 in the annual coaches poll; Casey guided the Beavers to the Pac-10 championship and the College World Series. OSU's 46-12 record was a school record for wins in a season, the Beavers' No. 7 finish in the final polls was Oregon State's highest ever, and OSU's No. 2 ranking during the season was the highest it had ever climbed in the national rankings.

Casey was also named Co-Coach of the Year in the Pacific-10 Northern Division for the 1997 season, and the Beavers have set numerous school records during Casey's time at OSU.

Casey was instrumental in the drive to build Goss Stadium at Coleman Field, the 1999 renovation to Oregon State's longtime ballpark. The OSU head coach was heavily-involved in fundraising for the $2.3 million project; when the go-ahead was given for construction, he had a hand in the ballpark's design to assure that it would be one of the most user-friendly facilities in college baseball. In 2002, the ballpark also received its first set of lights for night play.

For the 2007 season, a new scoreboard with video replay capabilities and a new FieldTurf infield were installed at Goss Stadium at Coleman Field. In all, Casey has been a guiding force in each step of renovation at Goss, and those improvements have made the picturesque ballpark one of the finest in the nation and in the Pac-10.

Oregon State hired Casey in the summer of 1994, asking him to follow in the large footsteps of Jack Riley, who retired after 22 seasons as head coach.

Most of the key players from OSU's 1994 Northern Division pennant-winning team had graduated, but Casey's first season saw the Beavers battle to a winning record of 25-24-1 in 1995. That set the stage for one of the finest three-year runs in the long history of baseball at Oregon State.

In 1996, the Beavers posted a 32-16-1 record and went into the final weekend of the season with a chance to win the Pac-10 Northern Division pennant. In 1997, Oregon State set a school record for wins in the regular season with a record of 38-12-1 and took postseason hopes into the final weekend.

In 1998, Oregon State broke into the national rankings for the first time in four years and went 35-14-1. The season included series sweeps of Arizona, which was ranked in the top 10 at the time, and UCLA.

In 2001, Oregon State again made a strong bid for the postseason, finishing with a 31-24 record. OSU had five wins over teams ranked in the final Baseball Weekly/USA Today coaches poll of the regular season and had a 10-9 record against schools selected for the NCAA Regionals.

In 2004, OSU's 7-0 start was the school's best in 42 years. That team had a then-school-record six players selected in the MLB draft and another signed as a free agent, and it set the stage for the magic of 2005 and 2006.

Casey came to OSU after seven seasons at George Fox College, a NAIA school in his hometown of Newberg, Ore. Under Casey, the Bruins went 171-113-1 (.602) overall and were 155-54-1 against NAIA competition; they won three District 2 titles, five Metro Valley Conference titles and two Cascade Conference titles.

During his time at George Fox, Casey was named Coach of the Year three times in District 2, four times in the Metro Valley Conference and twice in the Cascade Conference.

Casey earned his bachelor's degree in Interdisciplinary Studies from George Fox in 1990. He played for the University of Portland from 1978-80 and was a first-team All-NorPac Conference outfielder his final two seasons. He was a second-team All-Region selection in 1980. He also lettered in basketball one season.

After being drafted in the 10th round by the San Diego Padres in 1980, Casey played seven professional seasons. He reached Class AAA with the Calgary Cannons in 1985-86 and the Portland Beavers in 1987.

After concluding his professional playing career, Casey took over George Fox's baseball program; while coaching the baseball team, he also played basketball for the Bruins while completing his degree.

Casey, 49, was born in McMinnville, Ore. He graduated in 1977 from Newberg High, where he starred in football, basketball and baseball.

Casey enjoys fishing, camping and spending time with his family. He and his wife, Susan, have four children - Jonathan (22), Brett (21), Ellie (17) and Joseph (10); Brett is currently playing baseball for OSU and has also played basketball for the Beavers.

PAT BAILEY

*Assistant Coach
2nd Season At Oregon State*

#27

Pat Bailey is in his second season as an assistant coach at Oregon State after spending 12 seasons at George Fox, winning a Division III national title with the Bruins in 2004.

Bailey has made an impact with the Beavers in 2009, mentoring newcomers Jared Norris (.333) and Adalberto Santos (.317) to strong seasons while guiding Ryan Ortiz (.343) to a second straight strong season.

Bailey, 51, compiled a 353-158 record and earning National Coach of the Year honors after that 2004 national title. He was also named the Northwest Conference Coach of the Year eight times.

During Bailey's tenure, the Bruins won or shared eight Northwest Conference titles. George Fox advanced to the NCAA tournament six times and to the NAIA playoffs twice before moving to the NAIA.

George Fox did not have a losing season during Bailey's time at the school, and he is the winningest baseball coach in the school's history. The Northwest Conference shifted from the NAIA to the NCAA in 2000, and since then the Bruins rank among the nation's top 20 schools at that level in wins with a 215-94 record.

In 2004, Bailey's team became the first George Fox squad in any sport to win an NCAA national championship. The Bruins went 40-10 overall, setting a new single-season record for wins and tying the record for best winning percentage at .800.

After tying for the 2004 NWC title, George Fox earned an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament. The Bruins swept through four games at the NCAA West Regional in Orange, Calif., and then posted a 5-1 record at the Division III World Series in Appleton, Wis., beating Eastern Connecticut State 6-3 in the championship game. All nine of George Fox's postseason wins came against nationally ranked teams, and four of its five wins in the World Series were against pitchers who were first- or second-team All-Americans.

Seven of Bailey's George Fox players have signed professional contracts, including five members of the national championship team. His players earned 10 All-America honors and four Academic All-America honors.

Bailey has served as a rater on the NCAA Division III National Baseball Committee, which makes the selections for the NCAA tournament each year. At George Fox, he was also associate director of athletics, director of the Bruin Athletic Association for athletic support, chair of the school's Sports Hall of Fame committee, and a teacher in the Department of Business and Economics.

Prior to arriving at George Fox, Bailey had been the head coach at West Linn High School in West Linn, Ore., for 10 years. The Lions reached the state championship game in his final season and made the semifinals on two other occasions; he was named league coach of the year four times. He stepped away from West Linn in 1992 to serve as the pitching coach at the University of Portland.

At West Linn, Bailey was also an assistant football coach and taught business courses. In 1994, he was named to Who's Who Among America's Outstanding High School Teachers; in 1995, he was one of 30 outstanding educators honored with a Education Excellence Award given by Associated Oregon Industries.

Bailey earned his business education degree from the University of Idaho in 1978 and his master of education degree in educational administration from the University of Oregon in 1983. Bailey earned two letters in baseball at Idaho and was the team captain; he began his college career with two years at North Idaho College.

Bailey graduated in 1974 from Moscow (Idaho) High School, where played football, basketball and baseball, being named the baseball team's Most Valuable Player.

Bailey and his wife, Susan, have two children: son Alex, who played baseball for George Fox in 2003; and daughter Ann, a student at George Fox.

MARTY LEES

*Assistant Coach
8th Season At Oregon State*

#7

Now in his eighth season at Oregon State, assistant coach Marty Lees has made an impact with the Beaver program.

Lees has been responsible for the team's defense for a majority of his tenure at Oregon State, and in each of those years, it has been a significant reason for the Beavers' success. This year was no different as Oregon State finished with .976 fielding percentage, placing in the top three of the Pac-10 for the entire season and in the top 10 nationally.

During Oregon State's two national title runs and three straight visits to the College World Series, pitching and defense have been at the forefront. Lees has charged with overseeing the Beavers' defense. And in 2007, the former Western Oregon pitcher added on the title of recruiting coordinator and watched as the Beavers incoming recruiting class was named third-best nationally by Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball.

The team's 2009 recruiting class, under Lees' first full year as recruiting coordinator, was much heralded with four players in Baseball America's top 100 high school players signing with the Beavers.

In 2007, en route to its second straight national title, Lees' defense made school history for the third straight year. The Beavers posted a .977 fielding percentage -- second in the Pac-10 and second nationally -- just a year after posting a then-school record mark of .975. In 2005, Oregon State finished the season with a .969 fielding percentage, then a program best.

During that time, the Beavers have also increased their ability at turning two. In 2005, Oregon State turned 52 double plays. In 2006, that number jumped up to 62, while in 2007, the Beavers turned 69. In 2007, the team ranked 22nd nationally with 1.03 double plays turned per game.

From 2005 through 2007, five starting OSU infielders who were eligible to turn professional were either selected in the Major League Baseball draft or signed free agent contracts with MLB teams - first basemen Andy Jenkins and Bill Rowe, second baseman Chris Kunda, shortstop Darwin Barney and third baseman Shea McFeely. Barney was a fourth-round selection by the Chicago Cubs in the 2007 Major League Baseball Draft.

The Pac-10 began its Defensive Player of the Year award in 2006, and the initial recipient was Kunda. The shortstop in 2005 and 2006, Darwin Barney, was named the Pac-10 Freshman of the Year in 2005 and was selected to Team USA, the United States national team that plays an international summer schedule, in 2006.

Lees became a full-time assistant coach in 2004, having spent the 2002 and 2003 seasons as OSU's volunteer assistant coach. In addition to overseeing OSU's team defense, Lees supervises the Beavers' baserunning and coaches third base.

Lees, 38, was on the Beavers' staff while completing his standard teaching certification at OSU. He was also the athletic director and a teacher at Harrisburg High. He coached one of the state's top American Legion programs, the Pepsi Challengers of Eugene. In 2002, the Challengers went 56-13 and Lees was named the Oregon AAA Legion Coach of the Year.

Lees became head coach at Harrisburg in 2000, taking a team that was 4-20 the previous season and going 20-6 in his first year. He also coached the Eagle girls basketball team to a league title and into the state tournament for the first time in 16 years. Before going to Harrisburg, Lees was head baseball coach at Oakridge High.

Lees played baseball at Western Oregon, once earning two wins in a doubleheader against Oregon Tech. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1994.

Lees also attended Lane Community College, playing baseball and basketball. He graduated from Lakeview High.

Lees and his wife, Kristy, have three sons, Brandon (8), Brady (6) and Jacob (2).

NATE YESKIE

*Assistant Coach
1st Season At Oregon State*

#21

Nate Yeskie is in his first season as an assistant coach with the Beavers, and the veteran collegiate coach and professional pitcher will oversee the team's pitching staff in 2009.

He has made an immediate impact with the Beavers' young pitching staff as the club finished the regular season with a 3.69 earned run average. He mentored a number of pitchers who brought down their ERAs from a year and took under his wing freshman Sam Gaviglio, who ended the regular season with nine wins, which led the club.

Yeskie brings three years of collegiate coaching experience and five years as a pitcher in Minor League Baseball, reaching as high as Double-A New Britain with the Minnesota Twins organization.

Yeskie last served as the pitching coach at his alma mater, UNLV, from 2005 to 2007. During his tenure with the Runnin' Rebels, Yeskie mentored eight players who earned either an All-Conference or All-Tournament Team selection. In 2005, Yeskie's staff helped enable UNLV to win the Mountain West Conference regular season, the MWC Tournament and earn a berth to the Tempe Regional.

In 2006 and 2007, Yeskie's staff accomplished two feats that found themselves in the UNLV record books. Late in the season against UC-Irvine, UNLV tied a single-game school record with 15 strikeouts. Then in 2007, Kevin Skogley tied the school's individual single-game strikeout record with 15 against San Diego State.

Six UNLV pitchers were selected by Major League Baseball clubs in Yeskie's three seasons, while another signed as an undrafted free agent.

Prior to returning to UNLV as a coach, Yeskie spent five seasons in the Minnesota Twins Minor League system, reaching as high as Double-A New Britain. He finished with a 27-24 record and 4.91 earned run average over the five seasons. Yeskie went 11-7 with Fort Wayne of the Midwest League in 1997, recording 111 strikeouts in 165 1/3 innings of work. In 2000, his last season, the La Crosse, Wis., native went 4-1 in 21 appearances.

In the 1999 offseason, Yeskie played for the Grand Canyon Rafters of the Arizona Fall League. The AFL was established by in 1992 by Major League Baseball and is a league often reserved for the top professional prospects.

During his time in professional baseball, Yeskie worked with MLB veterans Bert Blyleven and Mel Stottlemyre, Jr., and former pitching coach Billy Connors, who once held the position of Director of Player Personnel with the New York Yankees.

Yeskie came to the Twins organization after being drafted in the ninth round of the 1996 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Minnesota selected the right-hander after he finished his UNLV career with a 22-12 mark, including 16 complete games. In 1996, he was the starting pitcher in the Big West Championship Game, helping UNLV to defeat Long Beach State, 11-2, earning a berth into the NCAA Tournament.

In 1994, 1995 and 1996, Yeskie made five Team USA Olympic Trial appearances. He was also rated as the sixth-best MLB Draft prospect entering his junior year at UNLV.

A three-year letterwinner, his 147 strikeouts in 1995 still stand as UNLV's single-season record. The mark was also fifth-best nationally that season, and coupled with his nine complete games – which led the Big West Conference – earned him First-Team All-Big West and First-Team All-Region honors.

Yeskie was drafted in the sixth round of the 1993 draft by the Los Angeles Dodgers after a stellar high school career at Carson High, one that saw him set a number of school records. En route to earning first-team All-America honors in 1993, he finished with a 12-0 record and a school record for strikeouts in a season (158) and strikeouts in a game (20).

In 1993, as a senior, he was named a Baseball America First-Team All-American. That same year he was the Nevada Player of the Year and a First-Team All-State pitcher, a distinction he was also given as a junior in 1992. Yeskie also got his first taste of Team USA Baseball in high school. In 1992, he played for Team USA at the Area Code Games in San Jose, Calif., and at the Goodwill Series in Seoul, Korea.

RON NORTHCUTT

Director Of Operations

Ron Northcutt is in his fourth season as Director of Baseball Operations and eighth overall with the Oregon State baseball program. Prior to his tenure as Director of Baseball Operations, Northcutt served as a pitching coach for four seasons.

As Director of Operations, Northcutt plays a large role in the team's travel, camp operations and any day-to-day needs of the Oregon State baseball team.

Northcutt came to Oregon State in 1994 and served as the team's pitching coach through the 1998 season. While overseeing the staff, his pitchers led the Pac-10 North Division in Earned Run Average in 1996 and 1997.

DREW GEORGE

Undergraduate Assistant Coach

Former Oregon State third baseman and 2007 National Champion Drew George returns to the Beavers for the 2009 season as an undergraduate assistant coach.

George came to Oregon State prior to the 2007 season from Lower Columbia Community College and won a national title with the Beavers in his first season. He ended his two-year Oregon State career having played in 94 games, 81 of which were starts. He batted a career-best .322 in 2008, his senior season, and ended his OSU tenure with a .292 average, 18 doubles, three triples and four home runs.

In 2008, George became one of just a few players in Oregon State history to homer from both sides of the plate in the same game when he did so against San Diego State.

BRADEN WELLS

Undergraduate Assistant Coach

Former Oregon State outfielder and 2007 National Champion Braden Wells returns to the Beavers as an undergraduate assistant coach this season.

Wells patrolled the outfield for the past two seasons for head coach Pat Casey, showing versatility. He played in 88 games the past seasons and had the capability to play all three outfield positions. As a junior, in helping the Beavers to a national title, Wells hit .277 with four doubles and 15 walks while stealing 11 bases in 14 attempts. He finished his OSU career with a .263 batting average in 12 postseason games.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – Joey Wong, Adalberto Santos and John Tommasini all had two hits but the 25th-ranked Oregon State baseball team dropped a 5-4 decision to Tennessee in the Beavers' 2009 season opener at Lindsey Nelson Stadium.

Josh Liles singled to right center off Oregon State closer Kevin Rhoderick to drive in Kentrail Davis with the running run. Tennessee had opened the ninth with a 4-3 deficit, but managed two runs off Rhoderick, who dropped to 0-1 this year after being saddled with the loss.

Santos began his Oregon State career with a 2-for-4 effort batting out of the second spot of the batting order. He scored in the third on a double by Ryan Ortiz and singled home Stefen Romero in the fourth.

Wong was 2-for-5 from the leadoff spot and Tommasini had a 2-for-4 afternoon as well. Overall, the Beavers finished with 12 hits – with eight of the nine in the starting lineup recording at least one. Tennessee, meanwhile, had eight off five Oregon State pitchers. Liles, who had the game-winning hit, led the Volunteers with two.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – The Oregon State baseball team came out in the second game of a three-game series at Tennessee, posting eight runs in the ninth for a 14-4 rout of the host Volunteers at Lindsey Nelson Stadium.

Ryan Ortiz was 3-for-6 to lead the 13-hit Beaver attack, which saw Stefen Romero hit his first career home run and drive in three and Joey Wong finish with two hits for the second straight game. After being down 3-0 after the first four innings, the Beavers came on strong, outscoring Tennessee, 14-1, the rest of the way, posting at least one run in each of the last five innings.

Waldron started the game and went five innings, allowing six hits and three runs in his first Oregon State start. He did not get the decision, however, as Jorge Reyes came on the sixth and proceeded to go three innings, scattering four hits and a run. He struck out three to get his first win of the season.

Romero got Oregon State on the board in the fifth, hitting a home run.

TEMPE, Ariz. – Rob Folsom collected four hits and seven RBI and Jared Norris and Stefen Romero hit back-to-back home runs as the Oregon State baseball team defeated Northern Illinois, 23-7, at the opening game of the DeMarini Invitational at Packard Stadium.

Folsom led the team with four hits, while Romero had two. Norris, Joey Wong and Brett Casey all had two hits.

The Beavers scored nine runs in both the second and seventh innings to cruise to the victory. Including the ninth inning of the second game of the Tennessee series, the Beavers have three innings of eight or more runs in just three games this season.

Folsom drove in his first runs of the game on a bases-clearing triple in the second, part of Oregon State's nine-run inning. He drove in his fourth run of the game in the third on a single to left. Folsom sat on four RBI for the next three innings before driving in his fifth run of the game on a single up the middle in the seventh.

TEMPE, Ariz. – Stefen Romero doubled twice and drove in four runs as the 22nd-ranked Oregon State baseball team defeated No. 15 Missouri, 12-8, at Packard Stadium.

The Beavers came back from a 6-5 deficit for their third victory this season. Oregon State initially held a five-run lead, relinquished it, then claimed it back, outscoring the Tigers, 7-3, over the last four innings for the win.

Overall, the Beavers rapped out 13 hits, giving them 33 over their two games at the DeMarini Invitational. Romero finished tied for the team lead with three hits, also singling home a run in the seventh. Rob Folsom also finished with three hits, giving him seven the past two games. Folsom drove in two on Friday.

Joey Wong also finished with two hits.

The Beavers took an early lead, getting up 5-0 after three innings. Ryan Ortiz drove in the game's first run on a ground out in the first. He also scored a run in the Beavers' four-run third.

TEMPE, Ariz. – Carlos Ramirez' solo home run in the eighth inning proved to be the game winner as the Oregon State baseball team dropped a tough contest to No. 5 Arizona State, 6-3, at Packard Stadium.

Ramirez' shot off Oregon State reliever Kraig Sitton broke open a 3-3 tie and helped guide the Sun Devils to the win. Arizona State added two runs in the frame for the 6-3 victory.

Sitton was saddled with the loss after going one full inning. He struck out two and did not issue a walk but fell to 0-1 this season.

The Beavers are 2-1 in their first three games at the DeMarini Invitational, with the final game coming Sunday morning against Northern Illinois. Arizona State, meanwhile, improved to 8-0 this season.

Mitchell Lambson picked up the win for Arizona State after going three innings in relief of starter Seth Blair. Lambson allowed one hit while striking out three for his second win of the season.

Oregon State managed four hits – one apiece from Joey Wong, Stefen Romero, John Wallace and John Tommasini.

TEMPE, Ariz. – Jorge Reyes scattered three hits and one run over five innings and Oregon State's two-run fifth gave the Beavers a 2-1 victory over Northern Illinois at Packard Stadium.

Reyes improved to 2-0 this season. The right-hander, making his first start of the season and second appearance overall, improved to 11-6 all-time as a starter. The start Sunday was the 26th of his career.

Overall, Reyes and three Oregon State relievers combined to limit Northern Illinois to just four hits. The Huskies managed three in the first four innings – two came in the fourth – before a lone hit in the ninth off closer Kevin Rhoderick gave them four.

Rhoderick struck out three in the ninth for his second save of the season. He allowed a hit to Dave Reynolds to open the inning, then struck out Justin Behm and Matt Behren before walking Joe Etchevery. Troy White then walked on a 3-2 count to load the bases with two out. But Rhoderick fought back, striking out the next batter, Alex Jones, to end the game.

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. – John Wallace went 3-for-4 and Joey Wong, Jared Norris and Adalberto Santos both drove in two runs as the 24th-ranked Oregon State baseball team defeated San Francisco, 11-9, at the Palm Springs Tournament.

The Beavers found themselves down, 6-5, after six and a half innings and exploded for five runs in the bottom of the seventh. Jared Norris put Oregon State ahead with a two-run infield single that bounced off the third baseman's glove and hit Santos, driving the ball toward the third base dug-out. Koa Kahalehoe and Wong also drove in runs in the inning.

Oregon State added two runs in the eighth, which proved to be valuable as San Francisco rallied for three runs in the top of the ninth. But Sam Gaviglio, in just his second career appearance, kept the Dons from scoring further for his first career win.

Mark Grbavac picked up the win after going 1 2/3 inning in relief of starter Greg Peavey. Grbavac allowed three runs and two walks while striking out two.

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. – Stefen Romero drove in two and he, Joey Wong and Adalberto Santos all had two hits to pace Oregon State but the 24th ranked Beavers lost to No. 12 Oklahoma State, 7-5, at the Palm Springs Tournament.

Romero drove in multiple runs for the sixth time in eight games this season, while he posted his fifth multiple-hit effort of the year. For Wong, it was his fifth multiple-hit game of the season and for Santos, it was his second. He posted his first triple of the season in the losing effort.

Tyler Waldron took the loss after allowing seven runs and eight hits over five innings. He struck out four and fell to 0-1 this season.

Andrew Oliver picked up the win for Oklahoma State to improve to 3-0 this year. He went six full innings, scattering six hits and three runs before giving way to three Oklahoma State relievers. The final one, Randy McCurry, earned his fourth save of the year, but not before the Beavers nearly rallied to tie the score.

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. – Sam Gaviglio scattered four hits and a run in 4 2/3 of relief work and the Oregon State baseball team used a five-run fourth for a 5-1 victory over UC Riverside at the Palm Springs Tournament.

Gaviglio came on in relief of starter Tanner Robles in the fourth and kept UC Riverside's hitters at bay. His only run surrendered came in the sixth on a sacrifice fly. He also struck out one and walked one during his outing, which was his third of the season.

Gaviglio, a freshman from Ashland, Ore., improved to 2-0 this season. In three appearances for the Beavers, he has worked a combined 7 2/3 innings, allowing seven hits and four runs while also posting one save.

The Beavers scored all the runs they needed in the fifth, an inning that saw Oregon State post five of its eight hits. The Beavers sent nine batters to the plate in the frame. Brett Casey, batting in the seven hole as the designated hitter, drove in the first two runs of the game on a single through the right side, driving in Ryan Ortiz and Jared Norris.

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. – A four-run seventh inning erased a one-run deficit for the 24th-ranked Oregon State baseball team as the Beavers defeated Texas Tech, 9-6, in OSU's finale in Palm Springs.

Down 6-5 entering the bottom half of the seventh, Oregon State sent nine batters to the plate and finished the inning off with four runs, giving the Beavers a three-run cushion. Ryan Ortiz and Adalberto reached on consecutive walks and then moved to second and third, respectively, when Koa Kahalehoe was hit by a pitch. Then, the Beavers tied the game at six when Brett Casey was hit by a pitch. Casey had been pinch hitting for pinch hitter Blake Gibbs and was brought in to face reliever Brian Cloud.

After Jared Norris flew out for the first out of the inning, John Tommasini walked, bringing in Santos for a 7-6 lead. Joey Wong then singled to right, bringing in Casey and Kahalehoe for a 9-6 advantage.

PORTLAND, Ore. – Ryan Ortiz went 2-for-5 and drove in the go-ahead runs in the eighth inning as the 23rd-ranked Oregon State baseball team won a back-and-forth contest against the Missouri State, 8-7, in the first of a three-game series.

Ortiz came to the plate in the eighth inning with a third-inning RBI already to his name. With the bases loaded and only one out, the Beavers' catcher pulled the second pitch he saw from Missouri State pitcher Cody Aycock down the left-field line to drive in the tying and go-ahead runs.

Oregon State pitcher James Nygren gave up one hit, struck out two, and came away with his first win of the season after pitching two scoreless innings in relief of starter Tyler Waldron, who struck out a season-high six hitters in six innings of work. Closer Kevin Rhoderick came on in the ninth to record his fourth save in five attempts this season.

Beavers' second basemen John Tommasini had a career day at the plate, tying a career-high with four hits.

PORTLAND, Ore. - Greg Peavey pitched 5 2/3 innings and tied a career high in strikeouts and John Tommasini drove in two runs in the seventh inning, but it was not enough to overcome Missouri State as the Beavers dropped the second game of the Papé Grand Slam, 5-3.

The game was suspended with two outs in the top of the seventh inning with runners on first and second, and Missouri State right fielder Ben Carlson at the plate with a 2-1 count.

Oregon State pitcher Kraig Sitton took the mound after throwing three pitches in the seventh before the game was suspended.

Zak Swyhart took Carlson's place at the plate when game resumed, and Sitton was relieved by Kevin Rhoderick after one failed pickoff throw moved the runners to second and third.

Rhoderick quickly ended the threat with two straight strikes to retire Swyhart by strikeout.

PORTLAND, Ore. - Sam Gaviglio struck out a career-high eight and pitched his longest outing of the season, and Adalberto Santos extended his hitting streak to eight games but the Beavers dropped the third game of the Papé Grand Slam to Missouri State, 4-2.

Gaviglio turned in the finest performance of his young Oregon State career in relief of starter Jorge Reyes. He pitched 6 1/3 innings while allowing just three baserunners, and did not allow a walk. By striking out eight Missouri State hitters Gaviglio surpassed Tyler Waldron's seven strikeouts against Arizona State for the most strikeouts for an Oregon State pitcher in the 2009 season.

Stefen Romero and John Wallace both had two hits for the Beavers. Oregon State loaded the bases in the ninth before ultimately falling to the Bears for the second time in the series. Santos was 1-for-4 with one walk to extend his team high hitting streak to eight games.

Missouri State starter Aaron Meade pitched six scoreless innings. He struck out six Beaver hitters and allowed four hits and walked three.

CORVALLIS, Ore. - Tyler Waldron pitched eight shutout innings and Ryan Ortiz tied a season-high with three hits as the Oregon State baseball team won its 2009 home opener in convincing fashion with a 7-0 win over Utah Valley at Goss Stadium.

Waldron was sharp from the first pitch as he struck out three of the first five hitters that came to the plate. The Wolverines were not able to muster a hit off of the Beaver hurler until the fourth inning, and only collected three against Waldron in his team-high eight innings of work. His six strikeouts in the game tied a season high, which he last achieved on February 28 against Arizona State.

The win for Waldron improved him to 1-1 this season.

Oregon State catcher Ryan Ortiz had arguably his best game at the plate all season, going 3-for-3 with one walk in four plate appearances. He was in the middle of every Beaver rally, scoring two runs and driving in three more. His bases-clearing double in the fifth inning broke the game open for Oregon State.

CORVALLIS, Ore. - Joey Wong hit the first grand slam of the season for Oregon State and Ryan Gorton won his first collegiate start as the Beavers took down Utah Valley, 17-2, at Goss Stadium.

Oregon State posted 13 hits, 11 walks and five hit by pitches in the victory, which sent them to their second straight victory over the Wolverines.

The middle of the Beavers' lineup was brutally efficient, as Adalberto Santos, Stefan Romero, and Logan Boyd combined for five hits in eleven at-bats, and driving in eight runs, and scoring eight more. Romero went 2-for-5 and Boyd reached base in all four of his plate appearances. He connected with a 1-0 pitch in the third inning that he drove over the right-centerfield fence for his first home run of the year.

Gorton made sure that the Beavers offensive production would stand up as he shut down Utah Valley in his five innings of work. He started the game off strong; striking out three of the first six hitters he faced and faced the minimum three hitters in three of his five innings.

CORVALLIS, Ore. - Adalberto Santos went four-for-five from the plate and fell a triple short of the cycle, while Greg Peavey and Josh Osich combined to hold Saint Mary's without an earned run as the Beavers rolled to a 12-3 victory at Goss Stadium.

Santos extended his team high hitting streak to 11 games with a single in the fourth inning. He continued his day with a run scoring double in the following inning before coming to the plate in the sixth with two runners on and smashing his second home run of the weekend. At the end of the day, Santos had driven in four runs while scoring three.

Logan Boyd added to the attack with a two-for-three effort from the plate, driving in runners in the fifth and eighth innings. The two hits marked his first multi-hit game of the 2009 season. Logan Lotti made his mark on the game as a pinch hitter in the eighth inning, when he launched a run-scoring double down the right field line for his first extra-base hit and RBI of his Oregon State career.

CORVALLIS, Ore. - John Tommasini drove in three runs and Michael Miller knocked in two more in his first start of the season as the Oregon State baseball team improved to 4-0 at Goss Stadium in 2009 by defeating Saint Mary's, 9-3, in the fourth game of a five-game homestand.

Tommasini and Miller combined to go five-for-seven from the bottom two spots of the order and scored four of the Beavers nine runs. Both players were in the middle of Beaver rallies in the second and seventh that turned the game in favor of Oregon State. Miller's two hits were a career high, as were his two RBI and two runs scored.

Adalberto Santos continued his hot hitting with an RBI single in the fourth inning that extended his hit streak to 12 games. Catcher Ryan Ortiz went two-for-four from the plate to give him a four-game hitting streak. Over those four games, Ortiz has hit .467 with five RBIs and five runs scored.

Stefen Romero also recorded two singles for his team-leading 10th multi-hit game of the season.

CORVALLIS, Ore. - Jorge Reyes struck out a career high 11 in seven innings of work, and John Tommasini continued his hot hitting with a 3-for-4 effort as the Oregon State baseball team defeated Hawai'i, 8-4, to cap off a season-long five-game homestand with a perfect mark.

Reyes' 11 strikeouts were the most by an Oregon State pitcher since Mike Stutes fanned 12 against UNLV on April 20, 2007. Reyes held the Rainbows to four hits over seven innings of work, his longest outing since throwing eight innings against Pacific on May 24 of last season.

He improved to 3-1 on the season, earning his 10th career non-conference victory in the process.

The Oregon State offensive attack was led by Tommasini's three hits, which drove in two Beavers' runs. The effort was his fourth multi-hit game of the season and second three-hit performance in as many games. John Wallace also pitched in with a two-hit game, reaching base three times and scoring two runs. The Beavers are now 8-0 when John Wallace hits in the top two spots in the order.

CORVALLIS, Ore. - The Beavers baseball team added four runs in the top of the ninth to put the game out of reach for the Ducks in a 7-1 victory at PK Park in Eugene, Ore., Friday during the Civil War series presented by the Northwest Dodge Dealers in front of a sellout crowd. The game marked the first between the two clubs in 28 years.

Oregon State started off the ninth inning with a 3-1 lead, but added four big runs by capitalizing on three errors by Duck pitchers to take the 7-1 lead.

Beaver catcher Ryan Ortiz stroked a line drive to center field to start off the ninth inning for his second hit of the day. Ortiz then advanced to second on a throwing error by the pitcher on an attempted pickoff play to first. Stefan Romero followed by reaching safely on another error by the Duck pitcher to put runners at first and second.

PORTLAND, Ore. - Jorge Reyes threw seven innings and Stefan Romero posted his 10th multiple-RBI game of the season as the Oregon State baseball team took the Civil War series finale over Oregon, 8-1, in front of 13,709 fans at PGE Park.

Reyes won his second straight game after going a full seven innings against the Ducks. He limited Oregon to just two hits while walking three and striking out six to improve to 4-1 this season and 13-7 all-time as a starter. His only run allowed came in the seventh and was unearned.

In his last two starts, the native of Warden, Wash., has scattered six hits and three earned runs over 14 innings of work. During that stretch, in which he is 2-0, Reyes has struck out 17 and walked six.

Romero, meanwhile, extended his hit streak to four games by going 2-for-4. He drove in the game's first run with a single in the first and then singled home two more in the fifth. The two RBI gave Oregon State an 8-0 lead, with John Wallace and Adalberto Santos scoring on the play. It capped off a three-run inning.

CORVALLIS, Ore. - Greg Peavey pitched a career-high seven innings and held California to two runs, and three Beavers chipped in two-RBI base hits to push Oregon State past the Golden Bears, 6-2, in front of a Goss Stadium regular season record crowd of 2,789.

After giving up a leadoff home run to California's Brett Jackson to start off the game, Peavey (3-1) settled down and retired the next nine consecutive hitters. He spread four hits across seven innings and his seven strikeouts on the day tied a career-high last achieved against Missouri State on March 20.

Peavey improved to 3-1 on the year and dropped his earned run average to 3.06.

John Wallace, Michael Miller, and John Tommasini each had two-RBI base hits in the game. Miller put the Beavers on the board in the second with a single up the middle that gave the Beavers a 2-1 lead. The Oregon State right fielder reached base three times in the game and is hitting .429 on the season in 17 games.

PORTLAND, Ore. - Stefan Romero produced his team-leading 11th multi-hit game of the season and Greg Peavey did not allow an earned run for the second straight start, but the Oregon State baseball team dropped an extra innings contest, 3-2, to Oregon in front of 15,540 at PGE Park.

Romero went 2-for-5 from the plate, as well as scoring one Beaver (14-6 overall, 1-1 Pacific-10 Conference) run and driving in the other. Joey Wong equaled Romero's hit total, going 2-for-3 with singles in the first and fourth innings. The two hits gave Wong his eighth two-hit game of the season.

Peavey turned in his second consecutive outing without allowing an earned run. He spread out four hits over six innings and struck out three. He, however, did not figure in the decision.

The game was scoreless through the first six innings of the game as Peavey was matched by Oregon starter Erik Stavert. John Wallace got the Beavers their first lead in the seventh inning with a hard-hit single up the middle that drove in Romero from second. Romero helped the Beavers tack on their second run with a double to the right-center-field wall that scored Ortiz from first.

CORVALLIS, Ore. - Tyler Waldron struck out a season-high eight and Adalberto Santos went 3-for-4 as the Oregon State baseball team overcame an early deficit to take down California, 8-4, in front of a crowd of 2,138.

Waldron (3-1) picked up his third win in as many starts, pitching into the eighth inning for the third straight time by going 7 2/3 innings. The Oregon State starter struck out eight California hitters and did not walk a batter.

After a rough start that saw the Bears use a strong wind blowing out to left field to hit four doubles in the first three innings and build up a 2-0 lead, Waldron settled down and held them scoreless for the next 4 2/3 innings.

Santos led the Beavers' attack with his sixth multi-hit game of the season, knocking three singles and driving in two runs. The Beaver utility man has collected a hit in 20 of the Beavers' 22 games this season and has driven in multiple runners in six games.

CORVALLIS, Ore. - Ryan Ortiz drove a ball into left-centerfield with the bases loaded in the 11th inning to cap a late-inning comeback and give Oregon State a 5-4 victory over California in front of a Goss Stadium regular-season record crowd of 3,023.

The win gave the Beavers a sweep of the Golden Bears after winning 8-4 on Friday and 6-2 on Saturday. It is Oregon State's first sweep of a Pac-10 club since taking three from Washington State in 2006. It is also the Beavers' first Pac-10 sweep at home since taking all three from Stanford that season.

The Beavers entered the bottom of the 11th inning down one after California (15-14 overall, 3-6 Pacific-10 Conference) took its first lead of the game in the top half of the inning. One-out walks by Joey Wong and Adalberto Santos, and a single by Stefan Romero loaded the bases for Carter Bell. Bell, who entered the game as a defensive replacement in the ninth, drove an offering from pitcher Kevin Miller (1-2) up the middle to tie the game at four and set the stage for Ortiz.

TUCSON, Ariz. – Ryan Ortiz tied a career-high by going 4-for-5 and the 16th-ranked Oregon State baseball team utilized a four-run eighth for a 9-5 victory over Arizona at Sancet Stadium.

On Thursday, Ortiz posted four hits for the third time of his career, singling in the fourth, fifth, eighth and ninth innings. He also drove in one as the Beavers stretch their win streak to five games, their second-longest of the season.

The Beavers pulled from behind with the big four-run seventh in which Oregon State took advantage of an error on Arizona closer Jason Stoffel and posted five hits. Ortiz started off the inning by reaching on an infield single and moved all the way to third when Stoffel overthrew first on a failed pickoff attempt.

The Beavers' catcher scored when the next batter, Jared Norris, singled home his second run of the game. He moved to second on a groundout by Brett Casey, then broke the 5-5 tie when Logan Lotti doubled to left center.

TUCSON, Ariz. – Ryan Gorton worked five solid innings of relief and Oregon State attempted rallies in each of the last five innings, but the 16th-ranked Beavers dropped a 6-5 decision to Arizona.

Gorton worked in relief and scattered just two hits and two runs while striking out three. His relief effort helped the Beavers nearly overcome an early 5-2 deficit. However, the Beavers stranded 12 runners, including nine in the last five innings. Oregon State stranded one in the ninth after Brett Casey singled with one out.

But after Casey reached base, Jason Stoffel, Arizona's closer, got the final two outs of the game for his sixth save of the season. It gave Joe Allison, Arizona's first reliever of the game, his first win of the season after going 1 2/3 innings.

Greg Peavey started for the Beavers and went three innings before being replaced by Ryan Gorton in the fourth. Peavey was touched for seven hits and six runs in his seventh start of the season. He dropped to 3-2 this season.

TUCSON, Ariz. – Joey Wong went 3-for-5 and Jared Norris hit a home run for the second consecutive day as the duo helped lead the 16th-ranked Oregon State baseball team to a 8-3 win over Arizona in the three-game series finale.

With the win, the Beavers took the series from the Wildcats, 2-1. It's Oregon State's first series win in Tucson since the 1963 season when Arizona was a member of the Western Athletic Conference and the teams were meeting for the first time.

The win also put Oregon State at 20-7 overall this season – and 7-2 in Pacific-10 Conference play. The team reached the 20-win plateau in just 27 games; last year's club took 34 games to win 20.

On Saturday, Wong set a season-high with three hits. He singled in the first and duplicated his first at bat in the second, driving in two runs. In the seventh, he reached on a double to start the inning and scored on Norris' third home run of the season. Wong now has 10 multiple-hit games this season, putting him just two behind his season total of 12 last season.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Michael Miller hit a three-run home run and Ryan Ortiz went 2-for-4 and drove in three more runs as the 14th-ranked Oregon State baseball team defeated BYU, 8-4, to sweep the Cougars in the short two-game series at Goss Stadium.

After the Beavers had fallen behind 1-0 in the second inning, a one-out double by Max Shupe and an error by Cougar (20-15) second basemen Andrew Law on a Koa Kahalehoe ground ball set the stage for Miller. The sophomore came through in a huge way, launching the offering from Marc Oslund (3-1 in 2009) off of the top of the scoreboard in right-center field for his first career home run. The blast drove in three runs and put Oregon State ahead for good.

Ortiz doubled in the second inning to drive in Brett Casey and extend his hitting streak to eight games. The Beavers' catcher is 18-of-33 (.545) over the streak, which is the second-longest by an Oregon State hitter this season.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Ryan Ortiz went 2-for-3 with two doubles and Tyler Waldron pitched through the seventh inning for the fourth time in nine starts, but it was not enough as USC was able to hold off the Beavers for a 4-3 win at Goss Stadium.

Ortiz extended his hitting streak to nine games in the fourth inning with a two-out double that was driven down the right field line. The Beavers' catcher added a second double in the eighth inning with a drive that bounced off the center field wall for his 14th extra-base hit of the season.

Tyler Waldron took the loss for the Beavers despite retiring the final 10 hitters he faced. The Trojans got to Waldron early as USC shortstop Grant Green scored from first on a hit-and-run by Ricky Oropesa in the first. Waldron allowed three more runs over the next three innings, but did not allow a baserunner after the fourth inning.

Waldron dropped to 3-2 on the year.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Greg Peavey pitched a career-long 7 1/3 innings, allowing just two runs, and Ryan Ortiz extended his hit streak to 10 games, but it was not enough as USC scored three times in the top of the ninth inning to break a late tie for a 5-2 victory over the 14th-ranked Oregon State baseball team at Goss Stadium.

Peavey scattered five Trojans' hits over 7 1/3 innings, striking out six and walking just two while receiving a no-decision. The Beavers' right-hander retired the side in order in four of his seven full innings and at one point retired seven Trojans in a row. The outing was Peavey's second in three games in which he completed seven innings.

Ortiz used a single through the left side of the infield to lead off the eighth inning to extent his hitting streak to 10 games, which ties his career-long streak achieved during the 2008 season. The catcher finished the afternoon 1-for-3, scoring a run in Oregon State's two-run first.

Joey Wong gave the Beavers a 2-for-5 effort from the leadoff spot, including a two-out triple off of the right-center field wall in the fifth inning.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Koa Kahalehoe scored the game-winning run in the 10th inning on an errant throw from USC pitcher Daniel Cooper, giving the 14th-ranked Oregon State baseball team a 5-4 victory in the series finale.

After Kraig Sitton and Kevin Rhoderick combined to retire the side in the top of the 10th, Kahalehoe led the bottom half of the inning off with an infield single. Michael Miller followed that with a line drive past USC first baseman Ricky Oropesa to put two runners on with no outs for the Beavers. John Tommasini then bunted to Cooper, who overthrew third baseman Billy Pinkerton and allowed Kahalehoe to score from second and give the Beavers the extra-innings victory.

Miller went 3-for-3 and drove in two runs to pace the Beavers, Kahalehoe and Stefen Romero finished with two apiece in the 10-hit attack for the Beavers, who dodged being swept at home by a conference club for the first time since 2007.

The Beavers got their other four runs in the first courtesy of a Romero double and a two-RBI single by Miller. Ryan Ortiz also scored on a bases-loaded fielding error by second baseman Joe De Pinto.

LOS ANGELES – Stefen Romero hit his team-leading fourth home run of the season but the Oregon State baseball team could not hold on to a four-run lead in a 7-5 loss at UCLA at Jackie Robinson Stadium.

Romero hit a two-run home run in the third to cap off a three-run inning for the Beavers, who took a 5-1 lead at that point. Romero's shot was his fourth of the season, giving him the team lead, and was his first since March 13.

The home run and four-run lead after three innings did not hold up, however, as UCLA scored six unanswered runs for the win. The loss dropped the 17th-ranked Beavers to 23-10 overall and 8-5 in Pacific-10 Conference games this season. UCLA, meanwhile, improved to 18-20 overall and 10-6 in conference games.

Oregon State took a 2-0 lead in the first. Ryan Ortiz tripled home John Wallace and Romero drove in his first run of the game on a groundout to second.

LOS ANGELES – Joey Wong's single up the middle capped off a three-run ninth as the Oregon State baseball team rallied for a 5-3 win over UCLA at Jackie Robinson Stadium.

Down 3-2 entering the ninth, Oregon State needed to rally to win its first game of the weekend. Wong's single up the middle scored two and capped off a excellent fundamental inning for the Beavers, who utilized three hits, a walk and a sacrifice bunt to take a two-run lead off UCLA and Gavin Brooks, who dropped to 0-3 this season.

Rob Folsom started off the inning with a single up the middle, and moved to second on a Brett Casey sacrifice bunt. Adalberto Santos, pinch hitting for Michael Miller, walked, setting up runners on first and second with one out.

Both runners moved up a base when Brooks threw his first pitch to Max Shupe in the dirt. The next pitch Brooks threw to Shupe came back through the box on a single up the middle, tying the game when Folsom scored from third. Brent Warren then pinch ran for Shupe, and moved to second on a passed ball, setting up Wong.

LOS ANGELES – Jorge Reyes scattered six hits and three runs over six innings, but the Oregon State right-hander took the loss in UCLA's 5-2 win over the 17th-ranked Beavers in the three-game series finale at Jackie Robinson Stadium.

Of the three runs allowed by Reyes, just one was unearned. Oregon State committed five errors on the afternoon – two while Reyes was on the hill – giving the Beavers' pitching staff four unearned runs on the day.

Reyes allowed a UCLA run in the third when Steve Rodriguez hit his first home run of the season. He was victimized for two unearned runs in the fifth to take the loss and fall to 5-2 on the year.

UCLA added to its 3-2 lead in the seventh when the Beavers committed three errors. Rodriguez singled to start the inning, moved to third on a pickoff overthrow and then scored when Stefen Romero could not hold on to a throw from Carter Bell. Blair Dunlap, who was the runner who reached on the error, scored all the way from first when the next batter, Cody Decker, singled.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – John Wallace hit his first career grand slam in the fifth inning and Ryan Ortiz collected his 12th multi-hit game in his last 15 as Oregon State defeated Oregon, 10-2, at Goss Stadium.

With the game tied at two in the fifth inning, Wallace came to the plate with the bases loaded and no outs. The OSU center fielder pulled a 1-1 offering from Oregon starter Madison Boer (1-5) over the right field fence to break the tie and give Oregon State a lead they never relinquished. The grand slam was Wallace's first of his career and the Beavers second of the season. A sacrifice fly in the eighth inning gave him five RBI on the day, a career-high.

Ortiz singled twice to extend his hitting streak to four games and give him a team-leading 17th multi-hit effort on the season. The Beavers' catcher has a hit in 14 of his last 15 games, with two or more base knocks in 12 of those contests. His single in the first inning to drive in Wallace gave the Beavers their 22nd first-inning run and Ortiz his 28th RBI of the year.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Oregon State rallied for two runs in the ninth inning, but it was not enough to overcome four early runs from No. 3 Arizona State in a 4-2 loss at Goss Stadium. A regular season record crowd of 3,129 was on hand to watch the game.

Entering the bottom of the ninth down 4-0, Ryan Ortiz led the inning off by drawing a walk off of Arizona State starter Mike Leake. Stefen Romero followed that with a double off the left field wall and Jared Norris was then hit by a pitch to bring the tying run to the plate in the form of Adalberto Santos.

Santos drove the ball into right field, but was robbed on a diving catch on the warning track by Matt Newman that turned the play into a sacrifice fly. Koa Kahalehoe followed that up with a deep fly ball to left that scored one more run, but Michael Miller grounded out on the next pitch to end the Beavers' threat.

Tanner Robles started on the mound for the Beavers for the fifth time this season and struck out a season-high six hitters in five innings of work. The southpaw did not walk a batter for the second straight start.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Koa Kahalehoe came through with a two-out RBI single in the bottom of the ninth inning to give the Oregon State baseball team a comeback victory over No. 3 Arizona State at Goss Stadium.

After falling 3-2 in the top half of the ninth courtesy of a Drew Maggi triple for Arizona State, the Beavers loaded the bases with one out in the bottom half of the inning for Jared Norris. The OSU first baseman fell behind in the count, 1-2, before hitting a fly ball to center fielder Jason Kipnis that was deep enough to score Rob Folsom from third.

A walk by Adalberto Santos loaded the bases once again for the Beavers and brought Kahalehoe to the plate with two outs. After fouling off numerous pitches from Sun Devils' pitcher Mitchell Lambson, the Oregon State senior lined an offering into left field for a base hit that drove home Ryan Ortiz for the game-winning run.

Norris went 2-for-4 for Oregon State and drove in two of the Beavers' four runs, the first coming on a single to left-center field in the fifth inning. Norris now has 23 RBI and multiple hits in five games this season.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Oregon State scored nine unanswered runs to come from behind for the second consecutive game and secure a 10-5 victory over No. 3 Arizona State at Goss Stadium. The win gave the Beavers a series victory over the Pac-10's first-place team.

After tying the game in the seventh inning, Oregon State put its first six hitters on base in the bottom of the eighth. Stefen Romero led the inning off with a single to right-center and Jared Norris followed with a five-pitch walk. Adalberto Santos then stepped to the plate and showed bunt on the first pitch he saw from Sun Devils' reliever Matt Newman, but pulled back and hit a line drive past charging first baseman Riccio Torrez and into right field to drive in Romero from second and put the Beavers ahead for good.

Santos came through with singles in his final two at-bats for his second consecutive 2-for-4 day and his ninth multi-hit effort of the season. The designated hitter had four hits in 10 at-bats and drove in three runs over the weekend.

Joey Wong reached base in four of his five plate appearances, going 2-for-3.

PORTLAND, Ore. – Sam Gaviglio struck out seven and scattered three hits and a run over five innings to pace the 25th-ranked Oregon State baseball team to a 5-1 victory over Portland at Joe Etzel Field.

Adalberto Santos and Ryan Ortiz both drove in two runs for the Beavers, who improved to 17-5 on the year in non-conference games. Oregon State has now won nine straight non-conference games.

Gaviglio started for the third time this season and picked up his seventh win of the season, which leads the team. His only blemish came in the fourth when Riley Hendricks hit his fourth home run of the season over the left field fence.

Gaviglio, whose earned run average now sits at 3.49, has allowed just six hits and three runs over his last two outings, both starts. During that stretch, he has 13 strikeouts in 10 innings.

Ortiz finished with two hits for his 18th multiple-hit game of the season. His two RBI came on a single to left in the Beavers' (28-12 overall) three-run fifth, which gave Oregon State a four-run cushion.

SEATTLE – Tanner Robles allowed just three Washington baserunners in 6 1/3 innings and the 25th-ranked Oregon State baseball team held off a late rally to defeat the Huskies, 6-4, in front of 4,296 at Safeco Field.

Robles won his first game of the season in impressive fashion. He limited the Huskies to just two hits and one walk while striking out three. The 6 1/3 innings constituted his longest outing of the season and he threw just 77 pitches.

Washington managed to get a runner on second just twice against Robles, who, after giving up a hit to start the game, retired the next 16 batters he faced. The Huskies managed a mini rally in the sixth, putting runners on first and second courtesy of a hit and a walk, but the lefty got the third out of the inning on a popup to short.

Already up 2-0 after five, the Beavers gave themselves a big cushion with four runs in the sixth, all coming off Washington reliever Tyler Cheney. Stefen Romero capped off the inning with a triple to right center.

SEATTLE – Ryan Ortiz hit his second home run of the season but it was not enough to help the Beavers overcome a 11-run deficit to Washington in a 15-6 loss to the Huskies at Husky Ballpark.

Ortiz's shot drove in three and was his first home run since April 11 at Arizona. It capped off a six-run stretch for the Beavers over the sixth and seventh innings, but proved to be too late to break Washington's big offensive day.

Ortiz ended the game a triple short of the cycle. He doubled in the first and singled to right in the sixth. The junior extended his hit streak to four games and is one off his third hit streak of five games or more this season. His multi-hit effort was his 20th of the season while his three RBI marked his ninth multi-RBI game of 2009.

Michael Miller also had two hits for his fifth multiple-hit game of the season.

Washington hit two home runs over the first two innings and held an 11-0 lead after the fifth inning had been completed.

SEATTLE – Washington pinch hitter Aaron Russell's RBI double in the seventh proved to be the game-winner as the Oregon State baseball team dropped a 4-3 decision to the Huskies in the rubber match of a three-game series at Husky Ballpark.

Russell doubled off the left center wall off Oregon State reliever Kraig Sitton, driving in Caleb Brown and snapping a 3-3 tie.

Sitton dropped to 1-3.

Oregon State posted eight hits to Washington's six, but stranded 11 runners. The Huskies stranded 12 as well. In fact, the teams combined to leave 58 runners on base over the three-game series.

Jared Norris, Joey Wong and Adalberto Santos all had two hits apiece to help account for the eight hits on the afternoon.

Jorge Reyes made his 11th start of the season and lasted four innings before being pulled for Ryan Gorton in the fifth with runners on first and second. Reyes allowed four hits and three runs, but walked six while striking out five.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Oregon State starter Tyler Waldron pitched a complete game two-hitter in an 8-1 victory over Gonzaga in game one of a two game mid-week series at Goss Stadium.

Waldron's complete game is the first for the Beavers this year and only the second in the past three years. His two hits both came in the sixth with two outs. He allowed one run, and struck out eight batters. The eight strikeouts tied his season high.

Going into the bottom of the eighth, Oregon State had a slim 2-1 lead when freshman Carter Bell added insurance runs for the Beavers in the bottom of the eighth with a three-run home run over the left field wall. The three-run shot is the first of Bell's career.

The Beavers struck first in the bottom of the first when Michael Miller led off for the Beavers with a single to left field off Bulldogs' starting pitcher Ryan Carpenter. Rob Folsom came up next and drew a four-pitch walk advancing Miller to second. After Ryan Ortiz advanced Miller to third base on a fly ball to center field, Folsom moved to second on a wild pitch.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Adalberto Santos went 3-for-5 and hit two home runs, but it was not enough as the Oregon State baseball team dropped a 7-6 decision to Washington State in front of 2,749 at Goss Stadium.

Santos hit home runs to both right and left field in the game and became the first Oregon State hitter to homer twice in a game since Drew George against Pacific on March 10 of last season. The Oregon State designated hitter drove in two runs and scored three while collecting his 11th multi-hit game of the season.

Ryan Ortiz also came through with a three-hit game and homered for the third time this season, it coming in the third inning. The long ball was the eighth of his career and the multi-hit effort was his team-leading 21st of the season.

Jared Norris went 3-for-3 with three singles to extend his hitting streak to six games. The first baseman scored the Beavers' first run of the game in the second inning.

Making his fourth start of the season, and his first against Pac-10 competition, Gaviglio spread four hits through 7 2/3 innings, striking out four and walking just one to pick up his team-leading eighth win of the season. The walk was Gaviglio's first in 14 2/3 innings of work, the last coming on April 19 against USC.

In his last 19 2/3 innings, Gaviglio, now 8-1 on the year, has issued one walk.

Norris hit in the fourth spot of the lineup for the Beavers for just the fourth time this season. He made the decision pay off by collecting his ninth multi-RBI game this year, driving in runs in both the first and sixth innings. The 2-for-4 effort extended his hitting streak to seven games. Norris is now 5-for-8 in the series against the Cougars and is hitting .481 during his current hitting streak.

Ortiz collected RBI in three of his five at-bats. With the Beavers trailing 6-5 in the seventh inning, the Oregon State catcher led the inning off with his fourth home run of the year, it going to right field, to tie the game at six. The three RBI-effort was his fifth of the year, and the three hits gave Ortiz his team-leading 22nd multi-hit game of the year.

As the second hitter of the game for the Beavers, Folsom lifted a pitch from Washington State starter David Stilley over the left field wall for the first home run of his career and the first by a Beaver in the first inning. His single in the fourth inning gave the junior his fourth multi-hit effort of 2009.

With two outs in the second inning, Carter Bell singled through the right side to give himself a three-game hitting streak.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Tyler Waldron pitched 7 1/3 scoreless innings and struck out 10 as the Beavers gave head coach Pat Casey his 500th win at Oregon State with a 2-0 victory over Oregon in front of 2,564 at Goss Stadium.

The win makes Casey 500-311-4 at Oregon State in his career. He has led the Beavers to at least 30 wins in 10 of his 15 seasons at Oregon State in addition to national championships in 2006 and 2007. Casey earned his first victory at Oregon State with a 4-3 win over Western Oregon on Feb. 22, 1995.

He is now one of three OSU coaches to win at least 500 in their tenure with the Beavers. Jack Riley won 613 from 1973-94 and Ralph Coleman won 561 in four different stints from 1923-66.

Making his second consecutive Tuesday start, Waldron was dominant while improving his record to 5-3. The righty struck out a career-high 10, including striking out the side in the second inning. Waldron retired 15 consecutive Oregon hitters from the third until the eighth inning.

Over the last two starts, Waldron has struck out 18 hitters in 16 1/3 innings.

KEIZER, Ore. – Salem native Joey Wong hit a bases-loaded double in Oregon State's five-run fourth to help pace the Beavers past Oregon, 14-4, in front of 5,177 fans at Volcanoes Stadium.

The double highlighted Wong's night, which saw the shortstop post a season-high four hits.

Wong doubled to the left-center gap in the fourth, driving in John Wallace, Rob Folsom and John Tommasini. It highlighted the inning, which also saw run-scoring singles from Adalberto Santos and Jared Norris. The inning saw the Beavers send 10 batters the plate and take advantage of four hits, two walks and an Oregon error.

Wong's double was his second hit of the game. He singled past the third-base bag in the third but was stranded to end the inning. He finished the game 4-for-6 after singling twice in the Beavers' eight-run sixth.

Already up 6-2 entering the sixth, the Beavers sent 13 batters to the plate and scored eight runs to take a 14-2 lead. Wong had two hits in the inning, while Tommasini and Stefen Romero both drove in two.

STANFORD, Calif. – Freshman Sam Gaviglio tossed Oregon State's first complete-game shutout in more than three years, holding Stanford to just three hits in a 5-0 win over Stanford at Sunken Diamond.

Gaviglio allowed singles in the second, third and fourth innings. He retired the last 16 batters he faced and struck out seven while walking none. In his last 29 innings, Gaviglio has walked one.

The complete-game shutout is the Beavers' first in more than 38 months. Jonah Nickerson was the last Beavers' pitcher to go the distance and keep his opponent off the board. He did so against Nevada on March 4, 2006.

Gaviglio, a native of Ashland, Ore., improved to 9-1. Though official historical records are incomplete, it is believed to be an Oregon State freshman record for wins in a single season.

Gaviglio has now won his last six decisions, with three coming in the month of May. He came into Friday night's game with an earned run average of 3.38. He dropped it to 2.84 with the shutout of the Cardinal. He has a 1.88 ERA and three wins in Pac-10 play this season.

STANFORD, Calif. – Oregon State rallied with runs in the seventh and eighth innings, but the Beavers could not hold off Stanford late and dropped a 7-6 decision to the Cardinal at Sunken Diamond.

Down 5-3 entering the seventh, Oregon State managed two runs in the inning off a passed ball and a wild pitch. The two runs evened the score at five, but the Beavers allowed two runs in the bottom half of the inning.

OSU rallied in the eighth when Drew Storen, Stanford's closer, struck out Koa Kahalehoe. But the pitch was wild, allowing Jared Norris to score from third and pull OSU to within one. But Storen was able to get the final four outs of the game to improve to 7-1 on the year and give the Cardinal a 30-24 record (and 13-13 mark in Pacific-10 Conference play).

Tanner Robles, throwing in his first game in relief this season, dropped to 1-3 after taking the loss. He allowed two runs and no hits in three innings of work.

Three Beavers had two hits in the loss: Kahalehoe, Stefen Romero and John Wallace.

STANFORD, Calif. – Tyler Waldron scattered five hits and two runs over 6 2/3 innings and the Oregon State baseball team scored three runs in the seventh to pull away from Stanford in a 5-2 win at Sunken Diamond.

The win gave the Beavers a series victory over the Cardinal in the 2009 regular season finale.

Making his second start in less than week, Waldron allowed multiple hits in an inning once, the seventh. He ended the game with five strikeouts and a walk. After allowing a hit to start the game, he retired the next 10 batters he faced before allowing a single to Toby Gerhart in the fourth.

Waldron has now gone at least six full innings in nine of his 13 starts this season. He picked up the win Sunday to finish the regular season with a 6-3 record.

In his last two outings, which included a win Tuesday against Oregon, Waldron has gone 14 innings, scattering 10 hits and two runs. He has struck out 15 during that stretch.

2009 NCAA Postseason • OSU Championship History

The 2009 NCAA Postseason will feature, as always, the nation's top 64 teams. Sixteen four-team regionals will be held May 29-June 1, followed by eight Super Regionals, featuring the top 16 teams remaining who advanced past the regionals. The 2009 College World Series will be played June 13-24 at Omaha's Rosenblatt Stadium.

The Pacific-10 Conference holds the record with 26 World Series titles, followed by the Big 12 Conference at 10 and the Big Ten at six. A Pac-10 team has finished as national champions or runner-up in six of the last 11 years. At least one Pac-10 player has been named to the All-College World Series team since 1997.

In 2006 and 2007, the Pac-10 had 11 players named to the All-CWS Team, and each one was an Oregon State Beaver. In 2006, Jonah Nickerson was named the Most Outstanding Player after the Beavers captured their first national title. In 2007, Jorge Reyes claimed the honor as OSU won its second straight title.

Oregon State is one of just five schools nationally to win back-to-back national titles, and one of three from the Pac-10. USC won five straight titles from 1970-74. Stanford won two straight from 1987-88, followed nearly 20 years later by the Beavers. Texas won consecutive titles from 1949-1950 and LSU became the fourth club to accomplish the feat, doing so in 1996 and 1997.

2009 NCAA Postseason Schedule

May 29-June 1: NCAA Regionals (campus sites)
 June 5-8: NCAA Super Regionals (campus sites)
 June 13-24: NCAA College World series (Omaha's Rosenblatt Stadium)

Note: Campus sites for the NCAA Regionals will be announced the day prior to the NCAA selection process. Super Regional sites will be announced the day after the regionals' completion.
