OREGON STATE BASEBALL

Season In Review

32-24 Overall • 12-15 Pac-10 (Tied-7th)

The Season

Oregon State finished the season with a 32-24 overall record.

In Pac-10

The Beavers went 12-15 in Pacific-10 Conference play, tying Arizona for seventh in the league. Oregon State was, however, just two games behind No. 4 Stanford. Eight of the 10 teams from the Pac-10 advanced to the postseason in 2010.

Another Year, More Postseason

The Beavers advanced to the Gainesville Regional, putting Oregon State in the postseason for the fifth time in the last six years. That is the single-best postseason stretch for the program.

Awards And More Awards

Oregon State had a big year on the awards trail. Adalberto Santos and Stefen Romero were both named to the All-Pac-10 Team. Matt Boyd earned Freshman All-America honors by Louisville Slugger and the NCBWA. On a week-by-week basis, the Beavers took home four Pac-10 Pitcher of the Week honors, with Greg Peavey earning two and Tanner Robles and Sam Gaviglio earning one apiece.

Historic Draft Day

Eight OSU student-athletes were selected in the first 22 rounds of the MLB First-Year Player Draft, and six were taken in the top nine rounds. Tyler Waldron was the first selected, in the fifth round, while Adalberto Santos went to Pittsburgh in the 22nd round. Every OSU player selected either improved their draft status from the last time they were selected (or in Josh Osich and Stefen Romero's cases, this was their first time to be selected).

Draft Day, Part 2

The six players selected in the first nine rounds of the MLB Draft set a school record for the Beavers. OSU had previously had five players selected in the first 10 rounds of the 2007 MLB Draft. And, the eight players selected overall is tied for the second most in school history.

Can You Say Ups And Downs?

The Beavers had two distinct streaks to the season. OSU rattled off a 10-game hit streak early on that left it at 16-3 on the year. A couple weeks later, OSU lost seven straight and then 10-of-11 before the Beavers righted the ship and ended the regular season with a 10-5 record, helping them to their fifth postseason appearance in six seasons. The 10-game win streak was the team's longest since a 12-gamer in 2007. The seven-game losing streak was two off the school record.

At Home

Oregon State played a school-record 32 games at home (even though it was originally scheduled for 34). The Beavers went 21-11, marking the third time in school history OSU finished with 20 or more wins at what is now Goss Stadium. The school record of 27 was set in 2006.

Don't Forget The 30-Win Plateau

Oregon State won 32 games in 2010, hitting the 30-win plateau for the second consecutive season and the sixth time in the last seven seasons. OSU has won 30 or more games in 11 of head coach Pat Casey's 16 seasons in Corvallis, and OSU has posted winning seasons in all but two of his campaigns.

Casey Nearing No. 2

With 32 wins in 2010, head coach Pat Casey is creeping closer to Ralph Coleman for second-most victories at Oregon State. Casey has 537 wins at OSU, and needs just 25 wins to move into sole possession of second place. Jack Riley is the program's record holder with 613 from 1973-94.

A Freshman Again?

Sam Gaviglio led the Beavers with 10 victories as a freshman in 2009, and this season, he witnessed Matt Boyd do the same thing, albeit with seven victories. Boyd also had an earned run average of 1.90 in 20 appearances, two of which were starts.

End Of A Great Career

Rob Folsom ended his career at OSU after a great four seasons - two interrupted by a mission - and capped it off with a an All-Pac-10 Honorable Mention honor this season.

2010 Oregon State Season In Review Notes

Keeping Opponents Down

Oregon State played a number of close games this season, and limited opponents to five runs or less in 36 of its 56 games. The Beavers were 29-7 this season when opponents scored five or less. Comparatively, OSU was held to five or less in 33 games. The Beavers were 12-21 this season when that happened.

What About One-Run Games?

OSU was certainly disappointed in its 7-9 record in one-run games in 2009, and did everything it could to flip that number around this season. That it did. The Beavers were 11-3 in one-run games in 2010, and 7-1 at home.

Using The Long Ball

The Beavers hit 23 home runs as a club in 2009, finishing near the bottom of the Pac-10. Just like their one-run tally, that number changed dramatically this season as Oregon State finished with 44 in 2010, placing the Beavers fourth in the league.

Quality Starts

Oregon State pitchers threw 16 quality starts in their first year under pitching coach Nate Yeskie, 2009, and they increased that tally to 21 in his second year. The Beavers went 17-4 when their starter finished with a quality start, including an 11-3 mark in games at Goss Stadium.

Don't Run On Him

Andrew Susac made a pretty good impression on opposing basestealers in his first season at the Division I level. The catcher had just 30 stolen-base attempts against him in 42 games, 33 of which were starts. He threw out 12 of those 30, for a 40-percent clip. His predecessor, Ryan Ortiz, had 55 stolen-base attempts against him his senior season, throwing out 17 (31 percent). Susac had 13 attempts against him in Pac-10 play, and he threw out seven (53.8 percent).

Streaky

Adalberto Santos certainly made the most of his senior season as the outfielder led the Beavers with four hit streaks of five or more games. He had a 12-gamer from May 8-May 28 where he batted .471 (23-for-53) with five home runs. That hit streak was sandwiched in an even bigger streak. The New York native reached base safely via a hit or walk in his last 40 games of the season. All told, he reached base safely in 54 of the team's 56 games in 2010.

Good RPI

As of June 21, the Beavers had an RPI of 25, ranking them fourth among all Pac-10 schools. The Beavers played 31 of their 56 games against teams with an RPI of 50 or better, going 12-19. Bettering that, OSU played 45 of its 56 games against teams in the top 100. OSU was 23-22 in such games.

Don't Forget Strength Of Schedule

Also as of June 21, the computers had the Beavers with one of the nation's strongest schedules. Playing 45 of your 56 games against the top 100 teams will do that. Oregon State's strength of schedule was No. 6 according to boydsworld.com. The most amazing part of that is that's just sixth among Pac-10 schools as all 10 ranked in the top 10 nationally.

Romero's Streak, Too

Stefen Romero went on an absolute tear April 24 through May 18. The infielder posted an Oregon State season long hit streak of 14 games, where he batted .388 (21-for-54) with four home runs and 11 runs batted in. That marked a career-best during his two-year tenure at OSU, which ended when he signed a contract with Seattle after being a 12th-round selection in the 2010 draft.

Attendance

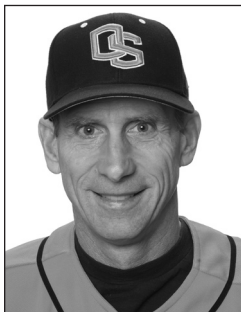

Oregon State proved again it has one of the best followings on the West Coast as they Beavers had an average attendance of 2,090, good for 29th nationally and third in the Pacific-10 Conference. The average of 2,090 was second-best in school history, trailing only the 2,218 average in 2009. The total of 64,792 was far and away the best in school history, surpassing the previous high of 49,285 in 2006.

Against The Postseason

Oregon State played 29 games against teams that advanced to a regional in 2010, and went 12-17 in such games. The Beavers played eight games against teams that advanced to the College World Series, going 2-6.

Hold A Lead

Oregon State was great with a lead in 2010, going 29-1 when leading after eight innings.

PAT CASEY

Head Coach • 16th Year
537-337-4 (Oregon State)
708-450-5 (23 years overall)
George Fox, '90

Oregon State head coach Pat Casey just completed his 16th season at Oregon State. He guided the Beavers to a 32-24 record, their sixth in their last seven seasons with 30 or more wins, and led the club to its fifth postseason appearance in the last six seasons.

Casey is the third-most winningest coach in school history, and has guided Oregon State to two national championships and two Pac-10 titles. He has won an outstanding 30 games in the postseason, which accounts for 85 percent of the program's all-time NCAA wins.

In 2009, Oregon State head coach Pat Casey led the Beavers to their fourth trip to the postseason in five years. Oregon State fought to a second-place finish at the Fort Worth Regional, punctuating one of the most successful decades in school history.

Arguably one of the most successful active Division-I head coaches in the country, Casey has established a level of winning unrivaled in the program's history.

Prior to the start of the 2010 season, he was named as the top collegiate coach of the last decade by Baseball America in a vote by his peers. The Beavers, meanwhile, were named as the No. 2 program of the decade, trailing only Texas. The Beavers and Casey earned the special recognition after winning back-to-back national championships in 2006 and 2007 and winning Pacific-10 Conference titles in 2005 and 2006.

Perhaps an even more special honor was bestowed upon Casey last summer. He and his wife, Susan, were recipients of the Nell and John Wooden Coaching Achievement Award. The honor goes to a head coach and his spouse for their dedication to success on the field and in making an impact on the lives of their players.

Truly, Pat Casey has been the right person to lead Oregon State baseball over the last decade and a half.

In the past five seasons alone, Casey has guided the Beavers to 245 victories, which is second in the Pac-10. During that same stretch, Casey's clubs have won 68 conference games, which is second-most among division clubs.

In that five-year stretch, six players have earned All-America honors while 14 players have been recognized as All-Pac-10 performers. That includes two league Most Valuable Player awards and two Defensive Player of the Year selections.

Casey and the Beavers advanced to the championship game of the Fort Worth Regional in 2009. Oregon State finished the 2009 campaign with a 37-19 record and 15-12 mark in Pac-10 play, tying the club for third.

On May 19, 2009, Casey became just the third head coach in school history to record 500 victories with the Beavers when OSU defeated Oregon. His 505 wins at the start of 2010 sits in third place in school history.

Casey and his staff mentored a number of newcomers who made big impacts on the club, maybe none more so than Sam Gaviglio, who became a freshman All-American after posting what is believed to be a school-record 10 wins by a freshman.

Casey also recruited players like Adalberto Santos, Stefen Romero, Jared Norris and Tyler Waldron. These transfers helped recharge the Beavers, and will ensure that OSU challenges for a top spot in the Pac-10 in 2010.

In 2008, Casey and the Beavers went 28-24 and missed out on the postseason. But the Beavers played perhaps their most ambitious schedule in school history and took series from five schools that earned either No. 1 or No. 2 seeds in NCAA Regionals. Oregon State posted a 5-5 record against College World Series teams, taking 2-of-3 in separate series against Arizona State and Georgia.

In 2008, Casey made marks on the program, literally. He spearheaded a fundraising campaign to expand Goss Stadium, adding nearly 1,000 permanent seats, a stadium suite, new player's lounge, academic room and Hall of Fame room. The additions transformed Goss Stadium from one of the best in the West into one of the nation's finest collegiate stadiums.

In 2007, Casey, his staff and the team's players worked hard to build team chemistry, coming together at the right time for a second-straight national championship. Oregon State went an incredible 39-4 in non-conference games, including an 11-1 mark in the postseason. After losing their second game at the Charlottesville Regional, the Beavers went on a dynamic run, winning their last 10 games -- including five in Omaha -- to claim the national title.

That title thrust Oregon State into NCAA baseball lore. The Beavers became just the fifth program to win back-to-back national titles, joining Texas (1949-50), USC (1970-74), Stanford (1987-88) and LSU (1996-97).

For his ability to mold the Beavers into the nation's finest, Casey was again recognized as a national coach of the year, this time by Collegiate Baseball and the American Baseball Coaches Association. The honors comes a year after Casey was the consensus national coach of the year in leading Oregon State to its first title.

That 2006 title was just as special, as the Beavers became the first program from the Pacific Northwest to the NCAA Division I College World Series.

The 2006 Beavers had a storybook season, capped by a run through the CWS that saw them win six elimination games in Omaha to win the national championship. After being beaten by Miami (Fla.) in its opening game, OSU won four straight - including back-to-back shutouts of top-ranked Rice - to reach the championship series. In the best-of-three finals against North Carolina, OSU lost the opening game and trailed by five runs in the second game before rallying for wins of 11-7 and 3-2 for the title.

Oregon State's 50-16 season set a school record for wins for the second straight season, and the Beavers refuse-to-lose style of play captured the hearts of not only those watching in Omaha, but college baseball fans across the nation.

After the 2006 season, Oregon State signed Casey to a new 10-year contract to guarantee his future in Corvallis. Casey had become an attractive candidate for coaching vacancies at a number of high-profile schools given the Beavers' amazing success.

In retaining Casey, Oregon State instantly kept its most successful coach in Corvallis. It also allowed the Beavers to have the knowledge they have one of the most recognized coaches in the nation. In 2006, after winning the team's first title, was Casey was recognized as the National Coach of the Year by Collegiate Baseball, Baseball America and American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA).

In 2005, he was named the Pac-10's Coach of the Year after guiding the Beavers to their first of two straight conference titles. He earned the honor again in 2006 with the second title. In both years, he was recognized as the ABCA's West Region Coach of the Year.

With back-to-back titles comes increased exposure. For the second time under Casey's tenure, Oregon State has expanded the Beavers' home field, and both times, Casey has been a driving force behind the renovations.

In 1999, Oregon State expanded what is now known as Goss Stadium at Coleman Field, adding increased seating, improved locker rooms and a full press box.

And Casey and the Beavers have rewarded the fans with increased chances to watch the team play. In each of their three College World Series years, the Beavers played a super regional at venerable Goss, and it has paid off. Oregon State has gone 6-1 at super regionals in Corvallis, defeating USC, Stanford and Michigan.

In 2005 and 2006, Casey earned both the Pacific-10 Conference and NCAA West Region Coach of the Year honors for guiding the Beavers to back-to-back Pac-10 championships and berths in the CWS.

Since Casey became Oregon State's head coach prior to the 1995 season, the Beavers have moved into a prominent position on the national scene.

OSU has had players earn spots on the USA Baseball national team four times, earn All-America honors 11 times, and had players taken in the top 10 rounds of the Major League Baseball draft 23 times - including first-rounders Jacoby Ellsbury in 2005 and Kunz and Canham in 2007. Ellsbury became Oregon State's first former player to win a Major League World Series when he and the Boston Red Sox won their second title in four seasons in 2007.

In 2005, OSU had been picked to finish sixth in the Pacific-10 in the annual coaches poll; Casey guided the Beavers to the Pac-10 championship and the College World Series. OSU's 46-12 record was a school record for wins in a season, the Beavers' No. 7 finish in the the final polls was Oregon State's highest ever, and OSU's No. 2 ranking during the season was the highest it had ever climbed in the national rankings.

Casey was also named Co-Coach of the Year in the Pacific-10 Northern Division for the 1997 season, and the Beavers have set numerous school records during Casey's time at OSU.

Casey was instrumental in the drive to build Goss Stadium at Coleman Field, the 1999 renovation to Oregon State's longtime ballpark. The OSU head coach was heavily-involved in fundraising for the $2.3 million project; when the go-ahead was given for construction, he had a hand in the ballpark's design to assure that it would be one of the most user-friendly facilities in college baseball. In 2002, the ballpark also received its first set of lights for night play.

For the 2007 season, a new scoreboard with video replay capabilities and a new FieldTurf infield were installed at Goss Stadium at Coleman Field. In all, Casey has been a guiding force in each step of renovation at Goss, and those improvements have made the picturesque ballpark one of the finest in the nation and in the Pac-10.

Oregon State hired Casey in the summer of 1994, asking him to follow in the large footsteps of Jack Riley, who retired after 22 seasons as head coach.

Most of the key players from OSU's 1994 Northern Division pennant-winning team had graduated, but Casey's first season saw the Beavers battle to a winning record of 25-24-1 in 1995. That set the stage for one of the finest three-year runs in the long history of baseball at Oregon State.

In 1996, the Beavers posted a 32-16-1 record and went into the final weekend of the season with a chance to win the Pac-10 Northern Division pennant. In 1997, Oregon State set a school record for wins in the regular season with a record of 38-12-1 and took postseason hopes into the final weekend.

In 1998, Oregon State broke into the national rankings for the first time in four years and went 35-14-1. The season included series sweeps of Arizona, which was ranked in the top 10 at the time, and UCLA.

In 2001, Oregon State again made a strong bid for the postseason, finishing with a 31-24 record. OSU had five wins over teams ranked in the final Baseball Weekly/USA Today coaches poll of the regular season and had a 10-9 record against schools selected for the NCAA Regionals.

In 2004, OSU's 7-0 start was the school's best in 42 years. That team had a then-school-record six players selected in the MLB draft and another signed as a free agent, and it set the stage for the magic of 2005 and 2006.

Casey came to OSU after seven seasons at George Fox College, a NAIA school in his hometown of Newberg, Ore. Under Casey, the Bruins went 171-113-1 (.602) overall and were 155-54-1 against NAIA competition; they won three District 2 titles, five Metro Valley Conference titles and two Cascade Conference titles.

During his time at George Fox, Casey was named Coach of the Year three times in District 2, four times in the Metro Valley Conference and twice in the Cascade Conference.

Casey earned his bachelor's degree in Interdisciplinary Studies from George Fox in 1990. He played for the University of Portland from 1978-80 and was a first-team All-NorPac Conference outfielder his final two seasons. He was a second-team All-Region selection in 1980. He also lettered in basketball one season.

After being drafted in the 10th round by the San Diego Padres in 1980, Casey played seven professional seasons. He reached Class AAA with the Calgary Cannons in 1985-86 and the Portland Beavers in 1987.

After concluding his professional playing career, Casey took over George Fox's baseball program; while coaching the baseball team, he also played basketball for the Bruins while completing his degree.

Casey, 50, was born in McMinnville, Ore. He graduated in 1977 from Newberg High, where he starred in football, basketball and baseball.

Casey enjoys fishing, camping and spending time with his family. He and his wife, Susan, have four children - Jonathan (23), Brett (22), Ellie (18) and Joseph (11).

MARTY LEES

Associate Head Coach • 9th Year
Defense • Infielders • Catchers
Third Base Coach

Western Oregon, '94

Marty Lees is in his ninth season in Corvallis, and in this past offseason, was promoted to the position of associate head coach for Oregon State.

Lees has made a steady impact on the Beavers in each of his areas, turning the Beavers into a top defensive squad season after season and helping deliver top recruiting classes in just two years as the team's coordinator.

In 2010, his defense finished with a fielding percentage of .973, good for second in the Pac-10 and 28th nationally.

The Beavers are one of the nation's top defensive teams on a yearly basis, and owe a large portion of that success to Lees' tutelage of infielders and catchers. In 2009, for the third straight season, the Beavers ranked in the top 20 nationally in fielding percentage, posting a .977 mark, which tied a school record and placed the Beavers in a tie for sixth nationally and first in the Pacific-10 Conference.

The Beavers finished the 2010 regular season with a .973 fielding percentage.

As recruiting coordinator, Lees has established a level of excellence in just two full seasons with the title. Lees has an eye for talent and it has shown in his national recruiting rankings. His recruiting class for the 2008 season, when it was announced in November, 2007, was rated third nationally by both Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball. His 2009 class was ranked 12th by Collegiate Baseball. The Beavers have continually pulled in top high school and junior college talent from across the nation and as stated above, it has been recognized.

During Oregon State's two national title runs and three straight visits to the College World Series from 2005-2007, pitching and defense were at the forefront.

In 2007, en route to its second straight national title, Lees' defense made school history for the third straight year. The Beavers posted a .977 fielding percentage -- second in the Pac-10 and second nationally -- just a year after posting a then-school record mark of .975. In 2005, Oregon State finished the season with a .969 fielding percentage, then a program best.

During that time, the Beavers also increased their ability at turning two. In 2005, Oregon State turned 52 double plays. In 2006, that number jumped up to 62, while in 2007, the Beavers turned 69. In 2007, the team ranked 22nd nationally with 1.03 double plays turned per game.

From 2005 through 2009, eight starting OSU infielders who were eligible to turn professional were either selected in the Major League Baseball draft or signed free agent contracts with MLB teams. Most recently, Joey Wong signed a professional contract with Colorado after a fine OSU career. Darwin Barney, a former OSU shortstop, reached as high as Triple-A with the Chicago Cubs organization this past season.

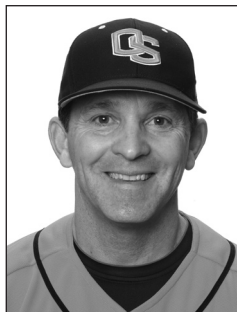

The Pac-10 began its Defensive Player of the Year award in 2006, and the initial recipient was Kunda. The shortstop in 2005 and 2006, Barney, was named the Pac-10 Freshman of the Year in 2005 and was selected to Team USA, the United States national team that plays an international summer schedule, in 2006.

Lees became a full-time assistant coach in 2004, having spent the 2002 and 2003 seasons as OSU's volunteer assistant coach. In addition to overseeing OSU's team defense, Lees supervises the Beavers' baserunning and coaches third base.

Lees earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Western Oregon in 1994.

Lees also attended Lane Community College, playing baseball and basketball. He graduated from Lakeview High.

Lees and his wife, Kristy, have three sons, Brandon (10), Brady (8) and Jacob (4).

PAT BAILEY

Assistant Coach • 3rd Year
Hitters • Outfielders
First Base Coach

#27

Idaho, '78

Pat Bailey recently completed his third season with the Beavers. This past season, Bailey tutored Stefen Romero and Adalberto Santos, who led the Beavers with 13 and 10 home runs, respectively. Each was selected in the 2010 MLB First-Year Player Draft.

In 2009, his second year with OSU, the team's hitting and outfield coach inherited a host of position players who were new to the program or who had seen little playing time in previous seasons. Bailey helped mold players such as Adalberto Santos, Stefen Romero and Michael Miller into everyday contributors who played key roles in the team's lineup. Santos was named to the All-Pac-10 Honorable Mention team in the process while Romero led OSU with five home runs.

Bailey came to Oregon State prior to the 2008 season. In his first year, he oversaw Daniel Robertson's senior season, guiding the outfielder to All-Conference honorable mention honors. Robertson hit .327 and was drafted in the 33rd round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by San Diego; he was named the Most Valuable Player of the Northwest League in his first professional season.

Bailey came to Oregon State prior to the 2008 season after spending 12 seasons at George Fox, winning a Division III national title with the Bruins in 2004.

Bailey, 53, compiled a 353-158 record and earned National Coach of the Year honors after that 2004 national title. He was also named the Northwest Conference Coach of the Year eight times.

During Bailey's tenure, the Bruins won or shared eight Northwest Conference titles. George Fox advanced to the NCAA tournament six times and to the NAIA playoffs twice before moving to the NCAA.

George Fox did not have a losing season during Bailey's time at the school, and he is the winningest baseball coach in the school's history. The Northwest Conference shifted from the NAIA to the NCAA in 2000, and since then the Bruins rank among the nation's top 20 schools at that level in wins with a 215-94 record.

In 2004, Bailey's team became the first George Fox squad in any sport to win an NCAA national championship. The Bruins went 40-10 overall, setting a new single-season record for wins and tying the record for best winning percentage at .800.

After tying for the 2004 NWC title, George Fox earned an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament. The Bruins swept through four games at the NCAA West Regional in Orange, Calif., and then posted a 5-1 record at the Division III World Series in Appleton, Wis., beating Eastern Connecticut State 6-3 in the championship game. All nine of George Fox's postseason wins came against nationally ranked teams, and four of its five wins in the World Series were against pitchers who were first- or second-team All-Americans.

Seven of Bailey's George Fox players signed professional contracts, including five members of the national championship team. His players earned 10 All-America honors and four Academic All-America honors.

At George Fox, he was also associate director of athletics, director of the Bruin Athletic Association for athletic support, chair of the school's Sports Hall of Fame committee, and a teacher in the Department of Business and Economics.

Bailey earned his business education degree from the University of Idaho in 1978 and his master of education degree in educational administration from the University of Oregon in 1983. Bailey earned two letters in baseball at Idaho and was the team captain.

Bailey graduated in 1974 from Moscow (Idaho) High School, where he played football, basketball and baseball, being named the baseball team's Most Valuable Player.

Bailey and his wife, Susan, have two children: son Alex, who played baseball for George Fox in 2003; and daughter Ann.

NATE YESKIE

Assistant Coach • 2nd Year
Pitchers
#21
UNLV, '03

Nate Yeskie recently completed his second season as Oregon State's pitching coach and has guided the Beavers to status as one of the best staffs on the West Coast.

In just his second year, the Beavers threw 21 quality starts, compared to 16 in 2009. Six of his pitchers were selected in the top nine rounds of the 2010 MLB Draft, a school record.

In 2009, the Beavers' staff played a big part in the team advancing to the Fort Worth Regional. The club sported an ERA of 3.93, good for eighth in the nation while the team was sixth in hits per nine innings.

A number of individual pitchers had fine seasons, including Sam Gaviglio, who set a team freshman record with 10 victories. He teamed with fellow newcomer Tyler Waldron, lefties Tanner Robles and Josh Osich, and righty Jorge Reyes to form an impressive starting staff.

Yeskie does so by bringing an organized and professional approach to the staff, utilizing tools and techniques from stops in Minor League baseball and the collegiate game.

Yeskie last served as the pitching coach at his alma mater, UNLV, from 2005 to 2007. During his tenure with the Runnin' Rebels, Yeskie mentored eight players who earned either an All-Conference or All-Tournament Team selection. In 2005, Yeskie's staff helped enable UNLV to win the Mountain West Conference regular season, the MWC Tournament and earn a berth to the Tempe Regional.

Seven UNLV pitchers who were tutored by Yeskie in his three seasons have been selected by Major League Baseball clubs, while another signed as an undrafted free agent.

Prior to returning to UNLV as a coach, Yeskie spent five seasons in the Minnesota Twins Minor League system, reaching as high as Double-A New Britain. He finished with a 27-24 record and 4.91 earned run average over the five seasons. Yeskie went 11-7 with Fort Wayne of the Midwest League in 1997, recording 111 strikeouts in 165 1/3 innings of work. In 2000, his last season, the La Crosse, Wis., native went 4-1 in 21 appearances.

In the 1999 offseason, Yeskie played for the Grand Canyon Rafters of the Arizona Fall League, a league often reserved for the top professional prospects.

During his time in professional baseball, Yeskie worked with current Detroit Tigers pitching coach Rick Knapp as well as MLB veterans Bert Blyleven, Mel Stottlemyre, Jr., the current Arizona Diamondbacks pitching coach, and former pitching coach Billy Connors, who once held the position of Director of Player Personnel with the New York Yankees.

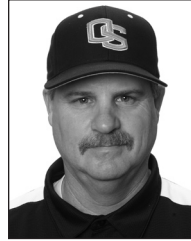

Yeskie came to the Twins organization after being drafted in the ninth round of the 1996 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Minnesota selected the right-hander after he finished his UNLV career with a 22-12 mark, including 16 complete games.

In 1994, 1995 and 1996, Yeskie made five Team USA Olympic Trial appearances. He was also rated as the sixth-best MLB Draft prospect entering his junior year at UNLV.

A three-year letterwinner, his 147 strikeouts in 1995 still stand as UNLV's single-season record. The mark was also fifth-best nationally that season, and coupled with his nine complete games – which led the Big West Conference – earned him First-Team All-Big West and First-Team All-Region honors.

Yeskie was drafted in the sixth round of the 1993 draft by the Los Angeles Dodgers after a stellar high school career at Carson High, one that saw him set a number of school records. En route to earning first-team All-America honors in 1993, he finished with a 12-0 record and a school record for strikeouts in a season (158) and strikeouts in a game (20).

Yeskie earned his bachelor of arts in communications from UNLV in 2003, earning Dean's List honors.

RON NORTHCUTT

Director of Operations
5th Year

Ron Northcutt is in his fifth season as Director of Baseball Operations and ninth overall with the Oregon State baseball program. Prior to his tenure as Director of Baseball Operations, Northcutt served as a pitching coach for four seasons.

As Director of Operations, Northcutt plays a large role in the team's travel, camp operations and any day-to-day needs of the Oregon State baseball team.

Northcutt came to Oregon State in 1994 and served as the team's pitching coach through the 1998 season. While overseeing the staff, his pitchers led the Pac-10 North Division in Earned Run Average in 1996 and 1997. While with OSU, Northcutt tutored Mark Newell, who was a third-team All-American selection by Baseball America in 1997, as well as Andrew Checketts, who earned NCBWA All-America second team honors in 1998. From 1995, Northcutt's first season with the Beavers, through 1998, the Beavers saw six pitchers earned All-Pac-10 Northern Division honors.

Additionally, eight pitchers were selected by Major League clubs in the First-Year Player Draft during Northcutt's tenure.

Prior to coming to Corvallis, Northcutt served as an assistant coach under Pat Casey at George Fox. He began his coaching career as a freshman coach and varsity assistant at his alma mater, Newberg High, in Newberg, Ore.

After playing at Newberg, Northcutt went on to play for Clackamas Community College, where he earned all-league honors, and the University of Portland. A native of Los Gatos, Calif., Northcutt and his wife, Linnea, have two sons, Ben, 18, and Jack, 15.

LOGAN BOYD

Undergraduate Assistant Coach

Former Oregon State outfielder Logan Boyd returned just a season after exhausting his athletic eligibility to serve as an undergraduate assistant coach for the Beavers.

Boyd spent the past two seasons as an outfielder with the Beavers. He appeared in 36 games over two seasons, batting .277 with two home runs, 13 runs batted in and two doubles.

A native of Medford, Ore., Boyd came to Oregon State after two seasons at the College of San Mateo. While there, he was named the Coast Conference Player of the Year and an All-American his sophomore season after batting .414 with 11 doubles, three triples, 11 home runs and 47 RBI. He was also named all-conference his freshman year. Boyd played in 73 games over two years, collecting 20 home runs and 15 doubles while driving in 81.

Boyd starred at South Medford High School for three seasons, also lettering three years in football as a running back and a safety. Boyd was named all-conference first team his senior year in baseball, a year after being named second-team all-conference.

Boyd's father, Randy Boyd, was a second-round selection in the 1982 MLB Draft by Baltimore. Logan Boyd is also the cousin of current Duke University basketball player Kyle Singler.

Boyd majored in communications during his two-year tenure at Oregon State.

MANOA, Hawaii. – Stefen Romero finished with three hits and four runs batted in and the Oregon State baseball team got the best of host Hawaii, 10-6, in the 2010 season opener Friday night at Les Murakami Stadium.

Romero provided the Beavers with the team's biggest at bats of the night. He drove in the Beavers' first runs of the season with a double in the fourth, then doubled with one out in the sixth.

Romero became the answer to a trivia question in the ninth. He hit the Beavers' first home run of the 2010 season when he drove a pitch over the left field wall, extending OSU's two-run lead at the time to 10-6.

The junior certainly highlighted a strong offensive night for the Beavers, who tallied 10 hits off five Hawaii pitchers. They drove starter Nate Klein from the game after 5 1/3 innings, where he allowed seven hits and six runs.

The game was tied, 6-6, entering the eighth, but the Beavers rallied for two runs to take the lead for good.

MANOA, Hawaii - Tanner Robles scattered three runs over 5 1/3 innings and Oregon State used multiple-run innings in the third and sixth to defeat Hawaii, 7-3, Saturday afternoon at Les Murakami Stadium.

Robles was touched for runs in the first and second innings, but settled down from there for his first win of the 2010 season. He struck out three, walked two and allowed six hits in the victory.

Oregon State's four-run third put the Beavers ahead for good and was reminiscent of the team's three-run fourth an inning earlier. Michael Miller singled with one out, moved to second on a Tyler Smith single and then the two scored on a double by Adalberto Santos which tied the game, 2-2.

Santos made it a 3-2 game when he was driven on a single up the middle by Rob Folsom, who then proceeded to steal second.

Stefen Romero, who finished the game 1-for-3, continued his hot hitting through the first two games of the season with a single to left, driving in Folsom.

MANOA, Hawaii. – The Oregon State baseball team dropped a 5-4 decision to Hawaii Sunday afternoon at Les Murakami Stadium as the host Rainbows overcame a two-run deficit in the ninth for the win.

Hawaii pinch hitter Christian Johnson tied the game with a one-out, solo home run off Oregon State closer Kevin Rhoderick. The Rainbows won the game with two outs when Collin Bennett singled to right center on a 3-2 pitch from Rhoderick, bringing in Kolten Wong from third.

The runs were the first of the season allowed by Rhoderick and by the Oregon State relievers. They had come into the game with no runs allowed through the first 8 1/3 innings of the season.

Oregon State took the lead into the ninth after Stefen Romero hit his second home run of the season in the eighth, a solo shot that put the Beavers up 4-3.

Greg Peavey made his first start of the season and allowed three runs and four hits over five innings.

MANOA, Hawaii - James Nygren and Matt Boyd combined to limit Hawaii to five hits in a shutout of the Rainbows Monday night as the Beavers concluded their trip with a 5-0 victory at Les Murakami Stadium.

Nygren made his first start of the season and seventh of his career. He went four full innings, limiting Hawaii to three hits and three walks while striking out one.

Because he did not go the required five innings, however, the right-hander did not figure in the decision.

Nygren gave way to Boyd in the fifth as the freshman made his second appearance on the mound during the series. Boyd proceeded to stymie the Hawaii offense, scattering two hits and a walk while striking out two over five innings. He picked up the win to improve to 1-0 this season.

Oregon State totaled six hits off five Hawaii pitchers, and made the most of them. Carter Bell finished with two hits for his third multiple-hit game of the season, surpassing his two from last season.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Tyler Smith went 3-for-6 and Tyler Waldron held Tennessee to one run as the Oregon State baseball team opened its 2010 home schedule with a 17-1 win over the Volunteers Friday night at Goss Stadium.

Waldron went 7 2/3 innings, throwing 100 pitches in the win, his seventh in two seasons at Oregon State. The righty scattered five hits and a run in his second start of the season, walking two with two strikeouts.

Parker Berberet and Stefen Romero each posted two hits apiece for the Beavers, who improved to 4-1 this season.

Oregon State totaled 12 hits on the night off four Tennessee pitchers, with four coming via doubles. Seven of the team's nine starters posted at least one hit. Oregon State also finished the game with 11 walks – Adalberto Santos, Carter Bell and Andrew Susac had two apiece.

Multi-RBI games went to Berberet, Smith, Rob Folsom and Keith Jennette, who all finished with three apiece.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – The 25th-ranked Oregon State baseball team dropped a 9-2 decision to Tennessee Saturday before 2,358 fans in the second game of the Papé Grand Slam at Goss Stadium at Coleman Field.

Oregon State managed just four hits off three Tennessee pitchers, including Steven Gruver, who went seven innings to pick up the win to improve to 1-0 on the year. Gruver allowed three hits and a walk while striking out nine.

Conversely, Oregon State starter Tanner Robles went 3 2/3 innings, allowing two runs and five hits. He dropped to 1-1 on the year.

Sam Gaviglio pitched in relief for his second appearance of the season. The right-hander impressed, scattering three hits and two walks over three innings of work.

Oregon State escaped a shutout in the ninth when Stefen Romero hit his third home run of the season, a two-run shot over the left field fence, in the ninth.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Greg Peavey dominated Tennessee Sunday afternoon, holding the Volunteers to three hits in a 1-0 shutout in front of 2,217 fans at Goss Stadium at Coleman Field.

Peavey gave up a single to Charley Thurber in the second, and a double to Chris Fritts in the fifth. He also walked Cody Hawn and hit Zach Osborne with a pitch in the first. None of the four runners got past second, however, and Peavey remained virtually in control for the entire game.

Hawn tried to start a rally in the ninth, reaching base via a single with two outs in the ninth, but Peavey, on his 108th and final pitch of the game, got Blake Forsythe to strike out looking on a 3-2 pitch to end the game.

All told, Peavey struck out a career-best nine Tennessee batters en route to his first career complete game shutout.

The native of Vancouver, Wash., lowered his earned run average to 0.64 with the outstanding effort. He began the game at 3.60.

The victory gave the Beavers a 2-1 series victory over Tennessee.

SURPRISE, Ariz. – The Oregon State baseball team mounted a late rally but fell 6-4 to Arizona State Friday at Surprise Stadium in front of a crowd of 2,346 in the second game of the Coca-Cola Classic.

Oregon State ended the game scoring four runs off of six hits and committed one error.

The Sun Devils tied up the game in the fourth inning with three runs on four hits and were helped by two wild pitches by Oregon State starting pitcher Tyler Waldron.

Waldron went 4 1/3 innings giving up a season high seven hits and allowing four earned runs. He struck out one and walked one.

Arizona State took the lead with one run in the bottom of the fifth when the leadoff hitter walked and came around to score on a single by Johnny Ruettiger. The Beavers got out of a bases loaded jam when reliever James Nygren came in struck out Devan Marrero to end the inning.

After picking up one run in the bottom of the sixth and seventh innings, Arizona State held a 6-3 lead.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Matt Boyd's two-out, three-run double with two outs in the ninth gave the Oregon State baseball team a 5-4 victory over visiting Utah in the first game of the Beavers' doubleheader Saturday.

Parker Berberet hit a solo shot in the seventh to narrow Utah's three-run lead, which had stood at 4-1. The Beavers then loaded the bases against Utah relievers Zach Adams and Stephen Streich.

Boyd's double, which fell down the right field line, came off Streich and sent Adams to a 1-1 record this season. It scored John Tommasini, Brent Warren and Jared Norris and gave the Beavers their second one-run win this season.

Ryan Gorton worked a scoreless ninth for OSU to go to 1-0 this season.

The Beavers got on the board in the fourth for a 1-0 lead. Adalberto Santos led off the offense with a single, then scored when Stefen Romero tripled to center.

Utah, however, matched the Beavers with a solo run in the sixth when Devin Walker grounded back to the pitcher, Greg Peavey.

Boyd started for the first time this season for the Beavers and went a career long 6 2/3 innings, allowing three runs on only four hits while only throwing 78 pitches. He recorded a career-high seven strike outs.

The Beavers scored four runs in the bottom of the second to take a 4-0 lead.

The Beavers (6-2 overall) added two more runs in the third when starting pitcher Boyd hit a two run shot over the right center wall, scoring Stefen Romero who reached by a hit by pitch. It was Boyd's first career home run.

He finished 2-for-4 with two runs scored and two runs batted in at the plate.

SURPRISE, Ariz. – Tanner Robles spun 7 2/3 innings of scoreless baseball, and Oregon State utilized some timely hitting for a 9-0 shutout of Utah Valley Saturday afternoon.

Robles scattered nine hits over those seven innings, but held the Wolverines off the scoreboard otherwise. He struck out nine and teamed with Nick Stiltner to shut out Utah Valley; Oregon State's third shutout in 10 games this season.

The offense posted seven hits off three Utah Valley pitchers, led by Stefen Romero's two hits.

No other Beaver finished with more than one hit, but it mattered little as Oregon State posted two runs apiece in the second and third innings, then broke the game open with five runs in the fourth.

In both the second and third innings, the scoring started off doubles to lead off the inning. Romero started the scoring with one in the second, and later scored when Travis Anderson doubled. Tyler Smith then singled in Anderson to make it 2-0.

That lead got pushed to 4-0 in the third.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Adalberto Santos hit his first home run of the season and the Oregon State baseball team overcame deficits of 4-0 and 5-2 for a 6-5 win over Portland at Goss Stadium.

Santos hit a two-run home run in the fifth to knock Portland's lead to one, 5-4. The Beavers then scored two more in the sixth on back-to-back bases loaded walks to Santos and Stefen Romero.

The RBI via the walk in the sixth was Santos' third of the game, marking his second multiple-RBI game of the season.

The walks were charged to Portland reliever Keeler Brynteson, who dropped to 2-2 this year after allowing two runs, a walk and two strikeouts in one inning. He did not allow a hit.

Brynteson followed starter Kyle Kraus, who went 4 1/3 innings. He scattered five hits and four runs – two earned – while striking out four.

Oregon State starter Tyler Waldron was the beneficiary of Oregon State's comeback victory. He struck out 10 and walked one while allowing eight hits and all five Portland runs.

With the win, the Beavers swept through their Spring Tournament, taking all three games over the weekend.

Robles allowed two runs in the first, then proceeded to get into the seventh allowing just two hits until being replaced by Kraig Sitton. Robles ended the game with seven strikeouts and improved to 3-1 on the year.

Sitton came on in the seventh and shut Portland down the rest of the way, holding the Pilots to just one hit over the final 2 1/3 innings.

Berberet was one of two Beavers with two hits, with Adalberto Santos also finishing with two. Overall, Oregon State rapped nine hits off four Portland pitchers. The Beavers finished the game with five hits and six runs – three earned – in 4 2/3 innings off UP starter Scott Burris. He was knocked out during OSU's six-run fifth and took the loss to fall to 0-1 this season.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Both Stefen Romero and Matt Boyd hit home runs as the 18th-ranked Oregon State baseball team scored early and often in a 18-3 win over Maine in the opening game of a four-game series Friday night at Goss Stadium.

Romero hit a two-run shot in the first and Boyd stroked a solo shot in the seventh to highlight the Oregon State offensive night, which saw the Beavers posted a season-best 15 hits off four Maine pitchers. The 18 runs also marked a season-best for the Beavers, who surpassed their previous best of 17 set against Tennessee on Feb. 26.

Leading that offensive attack was freshman Danny Hayes, who posted three hits in his first career start. He doubled down the right field line in OSU's four-run sixth to highlight his night offensively.

Joining Hayes in the multiple-hit parade was Boyd, who also finished with three RBI on the strength of two hits, and Parker Berberet, who finished with two hits as well. For Berberet, it was his fourth multiple-hit game of the season, while it was Boyd's second.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Tanner Robles scattered two hits over eight innings and the 18th-ranked Oregon State baseball team erupted for 12 runs in a 12-2 victory over Maine in the second game of a doubleheader Saturday at Goss Stadium.

Robles struck out a career-best 12 batters in the win, the most since Mike Stutes totaled 12 against UNLV in 2007.

Robles allowed a hit to start the fourth, then gave up a triple in the eighth, but otherwise worked well through the Maine lineup. The lefty surpassed his previous career-best seven strikeouts, and his only run allowed – in the fourth – was unearned.

The lefty improved to 4-1 on the year, lowering his earned run average to 1.72 from 2.31 in the process.

The Beavers finished with 15 hits in the second game, just a day after posting a season-best 18. Stefen Romero paced Oregon State with three hits, giving him five on the day. Keith Jennette tied for the team lead, posting three hits as well.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Tyler Smith and Adalberto Santos each hit solo home runs and Matt Boyd allowed one run over 6 1/3 innings and the 18th-ranked Oregon State baseball swept its four-game series with Maine with a 2-1 victory Sunday at Goss Stadium at Coleman Field.

Smith's and Santos' home runs were solo and came in the Beavers' two-run third, which was all the scoring OSU needed. Smith started the inning with a 1-0 home run over the left field fence, clearing the 2007 National Championship sign at the top of the fence.

It was Smith's first career home run and gave OSU a 1-0 lead.

Santos followed with his second home run of the year, another solo shot approximately 30 feet to the right from where Smith's landed. It came on a 1-0 pitch as well from Maine starter Matt Jebb, who took the loss and fell to 0-3 on the year.

Boyd lasted 6 1/3 innings, allowing four hits and a run while striking out four.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Adalberto Santos hit his third home run of the season and Ryan Gorton threw five scoreless innings as the 17th-ranked Oregon State baseball team defeated Southern Utah, 11-1, Wednesday night at Goss Stadium.

Gorton made his first start of the season and improved to 2-0 – and 4-0 in his career – after going five full innings. He scattered six hits over that stretch and did not walk a batter while striking out four.

Santos opened the game with a one-out solo shot in the first, his third round tripper of the season. It was followed by a Parker Berberet double that scored Matt Boyd and gave OSU a 2-0 lead after one inning.

That lead ballooned to 5-0 after four. Berberet drove in his second run of the game with a bases-loaded walk in the second, and Michael Miller and Santos both drove in runs in the fourth for the five-run lead.

Rob Folsom, who came on in the prior half inning, doubled home two in the sixth to highlight a five-run inning for OSU.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – A nine-run fifth gave the Oregon State baseball team a cushion they would not relinquish in a 16-4 win over Long Beach State in the series opener between the teams Friday night at Goss Stadium.

The nine runs in the fifth came after a rain delay in the top half of the inning that lasted 1:07. Leading 3-1 at the time of the delay, Oregon State wasted no time in adding to its lead. Rob Folsom drove in two with a single up the middle, and then Carter Bell doubled to right center, scoring Folsom.

Michael Miller drove in two with a double down the left-field line, and two batters later, Matt Boyd drove in two more with a single to center.

Danny Hayes and Adalberto Santos both scored on wild pitches during the inning and Stefan Romero drove in a run on a sacrifice fly.

Romero led the Beavers with three runs batted in, driving in two with a home run in the seventh. He went 3-for-4 on the night, his team-leading seventh multiple-hit game of the season.

Folsom posted his second multiple-hit effort of the season and sixth multiple-RBI effort. He tripled home a run in the sixth and doubled home a run in the eighth.

Adalberto Santos also finished with two hits for the Beavers, who rapped out nine on the night. Long Beach State, however, totaled 15, just the seventh time this season an opponent has out-hit the Beavers.

Long Beach State chased Oregon State starter Tyler Waldron after 2/3 of an inning. Waldron allowed five runs and three hits before being replaced by designated hitter Matt Boyd. Waldron dropped to 3-2 this season.

LOS ANGELES – The 21st-ranked Oregon State baseball team dropped an 8-2 decision to USC at Dedeaux Field in a game featuring an uncharacteristic six errors from the Beavers.

All told, the teams combined for nine miscues, easily the most in a game featuring the Beavers this season. However, the game was not out of reach, despite the defensive miscues, until the seventh when Ricky Oropesa hit a three-run home run for USC.

Of the 10 runs scored in the game, only five were earned.

Tanner Robles made his seventh start of the season for the Beavers, and went 4 1/3 innings. He allowed four hits and three runs – only one earned – with six strikeouts. He threw 89 pitches before being replaced by Tyler Waldron with one out in the fifth. Robles dropped to 4-3 on the year.

Robles was victimized with two unearned runs in the fourth as the Beavers committed three errors in the inning. The Trojans did manage a double in the inning, and scored one of their runs on a sacrifice fly, which put the game at 3-0 in their favor.

Long Beach State finished with 13 hits to Oregon State's seven. No Oregon State player had more than one hit in the loss.

Both teams scored solo runs in the first. Long Beach State loaded the bases on three straight singles, then took a 1-0 lead when Steve Tinoco singled to left. The Beavers answered in the bottom half of the first when Matt Boyd singled through the right side, scoring Adalberto Santos.

Kirk Singer made it 2-1 when he led off the top half of the second with a solo home run over the left-field fence. It was just the second home run allowed this season by Oregon State starter Tanner Robles.

Robles made it six full innings, but allowed seven hits and four runs. LBSU scored its final two runs off Robles in the fourth.

Robles dropped to 4-2 on the year.

LOS ANGELES – Parker Berberet's single with two outs in the 10th inning proved to be the game-winner as the 21st-ranked Oregon State baseball team opened Pacific-10 Conference play with a 4-1 win over USC at Dedeaux Field.

Berberet's single was lined over the second baseman's head and scored Adalberto Santos from second to break a 1-1 tie in the 10th. Rob Folsom then lined a two-out double to the left-center gap, scoring two more runs and giving the Beavers some breathing room in the three-run victory.

The late offensive output backed up an outstanding start from Greg Peavey, who worked seven innings, his fourth outing this season to go at least six innings, as he posted his second quality start of the season. He threw 113 pitches, and walked three while striking out a career-best 10.

The right-hander retired the last 11 batters he faced, four via the strikeout. The right-hander lowered his earned run average to 2.13 – from 2.32 – in the process, but he did not pick up the decision after leaving a 1-1 game prior to the start of the bottom of the eighth.

The Trojans managed to get the bases loaded in the bottom of the ninth, and Sitton came on with two outs in the inning. He walked the first batter, pinch hitter Garret Houts, but then got Joe De Pinto swinging for his second save of the season.

The ninth-inning effort by Sitton saved Gaviglio's outing, as the right-hander went 5 1/3 innings for his first win of the season. He allowed two runs and four hits while striking out four. He was replaced in the sixth by Matt Boyd, who came in and worked three innings of relief. He allowed two hits and a run while striking out two before being replaced by Kevin Rhoderick with one out in the ninth.

Gaviglio and Boyd were sharp through the middle innings. Gaviglio allowed his last hit in the second inning, and the Trojans did not manage another until the seventh.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Ryan Gorton allowed just one run in a career-long seven innings as the 17th-ranked Oregon State baseball team defeated Portland, 9-2, in a midweek contest at Goss Stadium.

Gorton surrendered his only run of the game in the first, and it was charged as an unearned run, keeping his ERA at 0.00 in a total of 13 2/3 innings this season.

Gorton struck out four while walking three and allowing five hits to improve to 3-0 this season.

The Pilots used eight pitchers and Oregon State sufficiently supported Gorton with a total of 12 hits, six of which went for extra bases. Adalberto Santos had three of those extra-base hits, tripling in both the first and fourth innings and doubling in the eighth. His two triples tied the school's single-game record, set multiple times.

Rob Folsom also had a big night for the Beavers, going 4-for-5, including two doubles, with three runs driven in. The four hits marked a season-high for the outfielder and he now has a team-leading eight multiple-RBI efforts this season.

Peavey dueled UCLA's Gerrit Cole, both of whom are considered two of the Pac-10's better pitchers. Peavey needed 121 pitches to go the distance, holding the third-ranked Bruins to two hits and three walks. He struck out six in improving to 3-0 this season.

He retired 16 of the last 17 batters he faced, and his only run allowed was a sacrifice fly by Cody Regis in the fourth that tied the game, 1-1.

Peavey lowered his earned run average to 1.91 this season, and improved to 6-1 all-time at Goss Stadium.

Cole made it six innings for the Bruins, but allowed seven walks and three hits while striking out 10 Beavers, who came into the game with a No. 17 national ranking. Three of those walks, however, came in the first, the last of which was issued to Berberet with the bases loaded.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – The 17th-ranked Oregon State baseball team dropped a 3-1 decision to No. 3 UCLA in a marathon 16-inning game.

UCLA's Steve Rodriguez singled to right in the top of the 16th off Oregon State reliever Ryan Gorton, ending the game.

The 16 innings was four shy of Oregon State's longest game, which was 20 innings in 1972 against Washington. Saturday's game last six hours, 23 minutes. There are no official NCAA records on lengths of games, but for comparison, the 25-inning game between Texas and Boston College last season lasted seven hours, three minutes.

The game featured just four runs and 25 hits. The teams left a combined 39 runners on base, with UCLA posting 22, one off tying the Pacific-10 Conference record and two behind the NCAA single-game mark.

Oregon State used a total of eight pitchers, with Gorton going five full innings. He allowed six hits and two runs to drop to 3-1 on the year.

Romero's home run put the game at a 2-2 tie in the sixth, as it went over the left field fence on a 2-0 pitch from UCLA starter Rob Rasmussen. However, Rasmussen, who was able to get the win after going seven full innings, shut the Beavers down until the top half of the seventh when Tyler Rahmatulla hit a solo homer to right that served as the game-winner.

UCLA scored five times in the ninth to secure the victory.

Rasmussen improved to 5-0, while Erik Goeddel got the save after working two innings. It was his first save of the year.

The Beavers fell behind early, 4-0, after a four-run first by the Cardinal. But OSU exploded for six runs in the fifth, all with two outs, off Stanford starter Brett Mooneyham. The six-run inning was punctuated by a two-out double by Stefen Romero, clearing the bases.

Two innings later, however, Stanford scored five runs off three Oregon State pitchers, including Greg Peavey, who started and left the game after allowing 10 hits and five runs – four earned – over 6 1/3 innings. The righty, the reigning Pacific-10 Conference Pitcher of the Week, did not get the decision.

That went to reliever Kraig Sitton, who dropped to 1-1 this season after three hits and three runs and was not able to record an out.

Washington State got on the board in the third, pushing ahead for a 3-0 lead. The Cougars scored first when Cody Bartlett came in from second on a throwing error. Kyle Johnson, who reached on the throwing error on a sacrifice bunt attempt, scored two batters later when Shea Vucinich grounded out to short.

Derek Jones made it 3-0 when he homered over the left center fence.

OSU scored a solo run in the fifth to get on the board. Michael Miller reached on an infield single, moved to second on a bunt by Keith Jennette bunt and found himself at third after a wild pitch. Santos drove in Miller with a chopper over the third-base bag that went for two bases.

The Cougars, however, scored two more in the seventh to give themselves a four-run lead.

PULLMAN, Wash. – Sam Gaviglio allowed one run over 6 2/3 innings and the Oregon State baseball team snapped a seven-game losing streak with a 3-2 victory over Washington State Sunday in the three-game series finale at Bailey-Brayton Field.

The 6 2/3 innings marked a season-long for Gaviglio, who made his fourth start of the season and his ninth appearance. He worked the final 5 2/3 innings without allowing a run, and kept Washington State to just five hits and a walk. He struck out three.

Gaviglio threw 101 pitches, 64 of which were strikes. He forced Washington State to strand eight runners, including a bases loaded situation in the fourth. He was relieved by Craig Sitton in the seventh and the lefty got the final out of the seventh on one pitch.

Gaviglio picked up the win to improve to 2-1 this season and 12-2 in two seasons at Oregon State.

BERKELEY, Calif. – Carter Bell finished with three hits for the fourth time this season, but the Oregon State baseball team lost its series opener at No. 23 California, 11-3, Friday afternoon at Evans Diamond.

Bell went 3-for-4 Friday, finishing with his seventh multiple-hit game of the season. He singled in the third, sixth and ninth innings, becoming one of three Beavers to record an RBI – the others were Danny Hayes and Michael Miller – doing so in the sixth.

Hayes' came on a check swing single in the fifth that got the Beavers on the board. Bell's, meanwhile, came on a lined single to left.

Miller finished OSU's (21-15 overall, 4-9 Pacific-10 Conference) scoring tally with a single up the middle in the ninth, scoring Bell from second.

All told the Beavers finished with 12 hits off California pitchers Erik Johnson, Kevin Miller and Daniel Wolford, but it wasn't enough to deter a California offense that tallied 14 hits.

BERKELEY, Calif. – Tyler Smith doubled twice and the Oregon State baseball team held two early leads but the Beavers lost to No. 23 California, 14-4, Saturday afternoon at Evans Diamond.

Andrew Susac also had two hits for the Beavers, who dropped their third consecutive game to fall to 21-16 overall this season and 4-10 in Pacific-10 Conference play.

Smith doubled twice, doing so in the second and fourth innings. His second double gave OSU a 3-0 lead, but one that was relinquished in the bottom half of the fourth.

Smith also singled in the ninth as he went 3-for-4 on the afternoon and is 4-for-5 through the first two games of the series.

California scored the game's last 11 runs, posting four in the sixth inning and six in the seventh inning after tying the game with a run in the fifth.

The Golden Bears' game-winning run came in the sixth when Marcus Semien singled up the middle, scoring Chad Bunting from second.

BERKELEY, Calif. - The Oregon State baseball team fell to the California Golden Bears in the series finale Sunday 9-3 at Evans Diamond in Berkeley, Calif.

Sophomore Sam Gaviglio started the game for the Beavers and got behind early giving up three runs in the bottom of the first inning. He finished the game going only three innings giving up seven earned runs off of six hits. He struck out two and walked two. Gaviglio falls to 2-2 on the season.

California (26-15 overall, 11-7 Pacific-10 Conference) took the 3-0 lead in the first but the Beavers made it a one run game in the top of the fourth inning bringing to score to 3-2.

Tyler Smith and Danny Hayes led off the top of the fourth inning with back-to-back singles putting runners on first and second and nobody out. Stefen Romero drove in the first run of the game for the Beavers on a single up the middle scoring Smith from second and advancing Hayes to third. After Folsom was retired, Parker Berberet reached on a fielder's choice scoring Hayes from third.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Kevin Rhoderick worked 2 1/3 innings of scoreless relief and the Oregon State baseball team scored the game-winning run on an Oregon throwing error in the 10th for a 2-1 victory over the Ducks in front of 2,774 Friday night at Goss Stadium.

Andrew Susac and Carter Bell reached on consecutive hit by pitches to start the 10th. Brent Warren pinch ran for Susac, then scored when Oregon's KC Serna attempted to get Michael Miller at first on an attempted double play. The ball got past Oregon pitcher Scott McGough, enabling Warren to score from second.

Rhoderick was the third of three Oregon State pitchers and he improved to 2-1 this season after striking out five in 2 1/3 innings. He allowed two hits in the eighth when he came in to relieve Kraig Sitton, but settled down, allowing just a walk the rest of the way.

Greg Peavey started for the Beavers and went 7 1/3 innings, but did not get the decision. He scattered five hits and a run while striking out four in his sixth quality start of the season.

CORVALLIS, Ore. - Joey Housey uncorked a wild pitch with two outs in the 11th, enabling Ryan Barnes to score from third and give the Oregon State baseball team a 4-3 victory over No. 15 Oregon Saturday in front a season-best 3,059 fans at Goss Stadium.

Andrew Susac opened the 11th with a single, and was immediately pinch run for by Barnes. He moved to second on a single by Rob Folsom, then went to third when Tyler Smith reached on a throwing error by Housey, who had come in prior to the at bat for Alex Keudell.

Carter Bell then struck out swinging, but it did not matter as Housey's wild pitch on the first pitch to Adalberto Santos. That gave OSU the win and sent Keudell to the loss, which dropped him to 4-5 on the year.

The win went to Matt Boyd, who threw two full innings of relief. He allowed a hit and a walk but stranded Oregon runners in both the 10th and 11th innings to improve to 5-1 this season.

Folsom's shot went over the head of Oregon center fielder Jett Hart, enabling the Beavers to overcome Oregon's four-run ninth that tied the game after the Beavers had jumped out to a 5-1 lead.

Romero singled to right with Dylan Jones on first to put runners on first and second with no outs in the ninth. Jones was then forced at third on an attempted sacrifice bunt by Andy Quiring. That mattered little, however, as Folsom came on and hit his game-winning double on a 1-0 pitch from Oregon reliever Drew Gagnier.

Sam Gaviglio went 8 2/3 innings, and limited Oregon to a run and five hits through eight full innings. But he struggled in the ninth, allowing the Ducks to tie the score on their fifth hit of the inning.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Stefen Romero hit his third home run in four games but the Oregon State baseball team lost to No. 19 San Diego, 4-1, Monday night in a non-conference game at Goss Stadium.

Kraig Sitton scattered five hits and two runs in 5 2/3 innings in his first career start. But the Beavers managed only Romero's 12th home run of the season in the loss.

Sitton took the loss to drop to 1-2 on the year. After allowing a run on a Tony Strazzara single in the first, he settled down to retire 16 straight. However, the lefty allowed another run in the sixth, again on a Strazzara single, to give the Toreros the lead for good.

Strazzara again drove home a single in San Diego's two-run eighth, and the Toreros scored their final run on an Oregon State double play.

Romero's home run came in the fourth and was his 12th of the year, which put him just one shy of tying for the Pacific-10 Conference lead, held by USC's Ricky Oropesa.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Stefan Romero and Jared Norris each hit home runs and Kevin Rhoderick got out of a bases loaded jam in the ninth as the Oregon State baseball team defeated Washington, 8-6, in Friday night's series-opener at Goss Stadium.

Rhoderick hit two batters and walked another to load the bases with the OSU lead on the line in the ninth. But the closer induced Doug Cherry into a comebacker with two outs, preserving the Beavers' two-run victory.

The win pushed the Beavers into a tie for eighth place with Washington, as the teams are 6 1/2 games behind Pac-10 leading Arizona State.

Romero homered to left center in the third, giving the Beavers a 3-0 lead after Tyler Smith drove in the game's first run on a sacrifice fly earlier in the inning. It was Romero's 13th home run of the season and his fourth in the last five games.

Washington answered with two runs in the fourth, then saw OSU get two more on a triple to center by Adalberto Santos, who went 4-for-5 on the night, driving in two runs in the process.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Andrew Susac doubled to give Oregon State an early lead but the Beavers could not hold on and lost to Washington, 3-2, Sunday in the series finale at Goss Stadium.

Washington scored the go ahead run in the eighth when Jacob Lamb walked on a 3-1 pitch from Oregon State reliever Kraig Sitton. It forced in Eric Peterson, who had been hit by a pitch from OSU starter Sam Gaviglio to start the inning.

Sitton had come in for Gaviglio with one out in the inning and proceeded to walk three straight. The loss went to Gaviglio, who fell to 2-3 on the year after going 7 2/3 innings, scattering five hits, three runs and a walk while striking out three.

Jacob Clem, the second of two Washington pitchers, went eight innings in relief of starter Brandon Rohde. Clem picked up the win to improved to 4-3. He allowed two runs, six hits and a walk while striking out three.

Susac started off the game's scoring with a double to left. It scored Jared Norris from first and Rob Folsom from third, giving the Beavers the quick 2-0 lead.

TEMPE, Ariz. – The Oregon State baseball team dropped a 10-4 decision to third-ranked Arizona State Friday night to start its three-game series at Packard Stadium.

Matt Boyd hit Oregon State's first pinch hit home run since Chris Hopkins in 2008, but the momentum it delivered in the seventh was countered by the Sun Devils in OSU's loss.

Boyd took a 1-1 pitch from ASU starter Seth Blair and hit it over the right field fence for a three-run shot and his third home run of the season. It pulled the Beavers to within two, 6-4, but OSU failed to get closer throughout the rest of the game.

It was an uncharacteristically offensive night for a Friday contest featuring two pitchers with earned run averages less than 4.00. However, the Beavers and Sun Devils raked out a good offensive night, with both teams posting multiple extra-base hits.

All told, the Sun Devils finished with 14 hits. Of those 14, seven went for extra bases.

The Beavers earned the series win after pounding eight hits and seven runs in 3 1/3 innings off Washington starter Andrew Kittredge. Folsom's home run came in OSU's two-run third, which put the Beavers up 4-0.

It was Folsom's second home run of the season and his first since March 20.

OSU opened the game's scoring with two runs in the first when Tyler Smith doubled to left. After Folsom put the Beavers up 4-0, Oregon State scored its final three runs of the game in the fourth.

All told, OSU tallied 15 hits off four Seattle pitchers. Santos led the Beavers with three hits in four at bats as the centerfielder extended his hit streak to seven games.

Jared Norris, starting in right, extended his hit streak to six games by going 2-for-5 with two runs scored. Parker Berberet doubled twice and finished 2-for-2 with four runs batted in, including three in the Beavers' four-run seventh.

Andrew Susac also had two hits in the win which saw the Beavers improve to 19-1 when out-hitting its opponent this season.

Santos led off the first with a home run on the first pitch he saw, and was followed three batters later by Anderson, who hit his first home run at Oregon State.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Adalberto Santos hit two home runs and Greg Peavey threw his seventh quality start of the season as the Oregon State baseball team defeated Arizona, 6-3, to open the three-game series at Goss Stadium.

Santos hit two-run home runs in the third and fifth innings to pace the Beavers to their ninth victory in their past 13 victories. Santos extended his hit streak to 12 games.

Santos' offensive output helped pace the eight-hit attack for the Beavers, with Dylan Jones and Danny Hayes finishing with two hits apiece. Hayes accounted for Oregon State's two other runs with a two-run double in the first.

That offensive attack backed up a strong outing from Peavey, who went 7 2/3 innings to improve to 5-3 this season. He scattered seven hits and three runs while striking out three.

The right-hander allowed a solo run in the second and two in the fifth but spun two ground balls that resulted in double plays.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Steve Selsky's sixth-inning home run proved to be the game winner as the Oregon State baseball team concluded its regular season with a 3-1 loss to Arizona Sunday in front of 2,823 fans at Goss Stadium.

Selsky's home run was a two-run shot in the sixth that broke a 1-1 deadlock. It came off OSU reliever Tyler Waldron, who ended the weekend with 6 1/3 innings of work against Arizona, where he allowed just two hits and two runs with 10 strikeouts.

Both hits and runs, however, came in Sunday's finale and sent Waldron to 4-5 this season.

Arizona opened the game with a run-scoring single in the first off the bat by Jett Bandy that gave the Wildcats an early 1-0 lead. The Beavers then scored their only run of the game in the third when Tyler Smith came in on a passed ball.

That run was charged to Vincent Littleman, who worked 2 2/3 innings in a start. Nick Cunningham finished with the win after going 3 1/3 innings, limiting the Beavers to four hits and two walks while allowing no runs and striking out four.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. – Tyler Smith hit his first home run in two months and Greg Peavey allowed two hits over 6 1/3 innings to pace the Oregon State baseball team past Florida Atlantic, 6-4, in the opening game of the Gainesville Regional Friday afternoon at McKethan Stadium.

The Beavers held on for the two-run win after the Owls scored four runs late in the game to make it interesting. However, Oregon State's offensive attack, which provided Peavey with 10 hits, proved to be enough.

Peavey improved to 6-3 this season after throwing his eighth quality start of the season. The right-hander scattered nine hits and two runs while striking out seven in his 15th start of the season.

Smith, meanwhile, drove in three runs to tie his season high set Feb. 26 against Tennessee. His two-run home run in the second was his first since March 21 against Maine.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. – The Oregon State baseball team dropped a 10-2 decision to No. 1 seed Florida Saturday night at McKethan Stadium.

Oregon State managed runs in the fourth and fifth innings, but Florida scored seven in the third to blow the game open. Nolan Fontana had opened the game with a leadoff home run to put the Gators at a 1-0 advantage. The Gators added to the lead with the seven-run third in which they hit two triples and posted a two-run home run off the bat of Josh Adamas.

All seven runs in the inning were credited to Oregon State starter Sam Gaviglio, who took the loss to drop to 3-4 this season. The right-hander worked 2 2/3 innings and allowed nine hits and eight runs while striking out one and walking three. He was replaced by Dylan Jones in the third.

Alex Panteliadis got the win to improve to 10-2 this season. The lefty worked five innings, allowing five hits and two runs. He struck out eight to help guide Florida to the victory.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. – The Oregon State baseball team saw its 2010 campaign come to an end Sunday afternoon with a 11-7 loss to Florida Atlantic in an elimination game at McKethan Stadium.

Oregon State rallied by putting three runs on the board in the seventh to pull to within four, but the Owls maintained the lead. The Beavers' two seniors, Adalberto Santos and Rob Folsom, combined to go 4-for-9 with a double and three RBI.

FAU got out to a 6-0 lead in the first after pounding out five hits during the inning, including a three-run home run by designated hitter Eddie Cassidy. The Owls sent 11 men to the plate and chased Oregon State starter Tyler Waldron after 2/3 of an inning.

The three-run home run was the first of three for Cassidy, who also homered in the second and seventh innings.

Waldron, making his seventh start of the season and 23rd appearance, allowed all six runs in the first inning and allowed four hits and two walks. He ended the season with a 4-6 record after taking the loss.
