

04.
Inari jinja, Kyoto, Yamashiro prov. 1st rank--1st class.

Supplimentary information.

It is narrated in the Yoshinoshui that when the Emperor Godaigo was on his way of escaping from the capital in a dark night in Dec. of the 1st year of Yengen (1336), the Emperor passed before Inari jinja. His Majesty worshipped the shrine and composed a song. Its meaning in effect, "Astraying in the crow black darkness, please lend us three lights" . At the same time scarlet clouds appeared in Heaven and reflected on the way. By this light the Emperor could escape.

From the material at the Shrine bureau).

Inari Jinja, Kyoto, Yamashiro prov. 1st rank--1st class.

Supplementary information.

It is narrated in the Yoshinoshu that when the Emperor Godaigo was on his way of escaping from the capital in a dark night in Dec. of the 1st year of Yengen (1336), the Emperor passed before Inari Jinja. His Majesty worshipped the shrine and composed a song. Its meaning in effect, "Astraying in the crow black darkness, please lend us three lights". At the same time scarlet clouds appeared in Heaven and reflected on the way. By this light the Emperor could escape.

From the material at the Shrine Bureau.