Hoho-demi was a great hunter. His brother was a great fisherman - one day the brothers exchanged outfits, to try their luck at one another's trades. They had no success, and the fish hook borrowed by Hoho-demi was swallowed by a Tai fish. This greatly incensed his brother, who demanded its return. While Hoho-demi was walking along the sea shore trying to think of some way to recover the lost fish hook, he met an old man to whom he confided his trouble - ~~was~~, difficultly. The old man made a boat called the Heaven basket-boat, in which he sent Hoho-demi to the bottom of the sea. At the Ryugu, or Under sea palace he recovered his hook and married the daughter of the dragon god of the sea. In the course of time, wishing to visit his parents, he returned to the upper world. Before he left his wife gave him a toilet box. This box was to assist him in his travels
