

QK.
1. Komikado jinja, Shimo-osa prov.

Komikado jinja, Bekkaku kwanpei sha.

At Komikado-^{village}mura, Katori ^{county}gun, Shimo-osa province,
Chiba prefecture.

Dedicated to:

Fujiwara Morokata.

Brief history of the shrine.

When the Emperor Go-daigo conspired to overthrow the Hojo, his Majesty took ^{Morokata}~~him~~ into his confidence. But that activity was disclosed, and Hojo Takatoki sent his army ~~against the Emperor~~ to Kyoto to dethrone the Emperor. Owing to the ~~assault~~ assault the Emperor escaped from the Court with ~~the~~ Morokata and others. On their way of refuge, ~~being~~ advised by the Prince Morinaga, the Emperor changed ~~ed~~ his costume with Morokata; whereafter the latter, riding in the Imperial palanquin, took ostensible refuge at Hieiizan, on the east of Kyoto; while the Emperor ~~refuged~~ ~~in~~ at Kasagi. The priests on the mount Hiei, believing him as the ^{real} Emperor ~~himself~~, guarded him with all their force. However, when ~~the truth was discovered~~ the truth was discovered, the sacerdotal soldiers dispersed and Morokata escaped to Kasagi where the Emperor ^{had}refuges. When the Kasagi castle fell to the ~~victim~~ of the enemy, Morokata was captured and was taken into custody at Komikado in Shimo-osa province, where ^{his} shrine now stands.

The shrine has been established in the 15th year of Meiji (1882) and has been enlisted as the ~~Kwanpei~~ Bekkaku kwan pei sha.

(From the Dai Nihonshi & Naimusho
Material)

1. Komikado Jinja, Shimo-osa prov.

Komikado Jinja, Bekkaku Kwanpei sha.
At Komikado-mura, Katori gun, ^{village} ~~Shimo-osa~~ ^{county} province,
Chiba Prefecture.

Dedicated to:

Fujiwara Morokata.

Brief history of the shrine.

When the Emperor Go-daijo conspired to overthrow the Hojo, his Majesty took ~~him~~ ^{Morokata} into his confidence. But that activity was disclosed, and Hojo Takatoki sent his army against him. Owing to the ~~assault~~ ^{assault} the Emperor escaped from the Court with Morokata and others. On their way of refuge, being advised by the Prince Morinaga, the Emperor changed his costume with Morokata; whereafter the latter, riding in the Imperial palanquin, took ostensible refuge at Heizan, on the east of Kyoto; while the Emperor sought ~~at~~ ^{at} Kasagi. The priests on the Mount Hiei, believing him as the Emperor himself, guarded him with all their force. However, when ~~the truth was discovered~~ ^{the truth was discovered}, the sacerdotal soldiers dispersed and Morokata escaped to Kasagi where the Emperor refugees. When the Kasagi castle fell to the victim of the enemy, Morokata was captured and was taken into custody at Komikado in Shimo-osa province, where his shrine now stands. The shrine has been established in the 15th year of Meiji (1882) and has been enlisted as the Bekkaku Kwanpei sha.

(From the Dai Nihonshi & Nihonshi)
(Material)

2, Komikado jinja, Shōmo-osa prov.

List of the festivals.

Jan. 1. Saitan sai.
" 3. Genshi sai.
Feb. 11. Kigensetsu sai.
" Kinen sai.
Mar. Shunki kworei sai. Yohai.
Apr. 3. Jimmu Tenno sai. Yohai.
Apr. 29. Rei sai.
June 30. Oho harai shiki.
July 30. Meiji Tenno sai. Yohai..
Aug. 31. Tenchosetsu sai.
Sept. Shuki kworei sai. Yohai.
Oct. 17. Kanname sai. Yohai.
Nov. Ni-i-name sai.
Dec. 31. Oho harai shki.
" " Joya sai.

List of the festivals.

Jan. 1.	Seitan sai.
" 3.	Genahi sai.
Feb. 11.	Kigensetsu sai.
"	Kinen sai.
Mar.	Shunki Kworei sai. Yohai.
Apr. 3.	Jimmu Tenno sai. Yohai.
Apr. 29.	Rei sai.
June 30.	Oho harai shiki.
July 30.	Meiji Tenno sai. Yohai..
Aug. 31.	Tenchosetsu sai.
Sept.	Shunki Kworei sai. Yohai.
Oct. 17.	Kanname sai. Yohai.
Nov.	Ni-i-name sai.
Dec. 31.	Oho harai shiki.
" "	Joya sai.
