We have a few more applications that have not been checked by this office but will be sent in later. Along with this letter we are enclosing the original applications they made out, this includes the names sent in to your office at an earlier date. If it had been known earlier that you wanted the original applications we would have been a little more careful in filling them out but we thought this was only for our files so you will just have to excuse the appearance.

Sincerely,

Ralph Petersen, Chairman
Board of County Commissioners

More than 150 persons took part in a potluck dinner and birthday party for Farmer Hale, 80, of Noti. His four children, Jean Norton and Jeanne Johnson, both of Myrtle Creek, Janet Barnes of Coos Bay and James Hale of Noti, were hosts.

Hale was born Jan. 2, 1880 on the family farm at Noti and has lived there throughout his life. A "Century Farm," it was established on a donation land claim by his grandfather, "Cap" Hale, in 1853, following a wagon train journey to Oregon in 1852.
