Veneta ranch to join Oregon's list of Century Farms

Veneta-area ranchers, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Holland are going to the Oregon State Fair at Salem Friday.

They'll be among the guests of honor.

Their ranch is joining Oregon's select list of Century Farms, farms that have been owned by the same families for 100 years or

The 32-acre Holland ranch includes the entire 160 acres acquired by Mrs. Hoiland's grandfather, George Lochner, on June 20, 1872. It is halfway between Crow and Veneta on Territorial Road.

In the sense that all of the original ranch is still in the family's possession, the Hoiland's Century Farm is somewhat of a rarity. In most other cases, much of the original land has been sold and just a portion remains in the possession of one family over 100 years.

Friday's State Fair ceremonies are part of the observance of the Oregon Historical Society's centennial, at which all Century Farm owners in the state are to be honored; Normally, the State Dept. of Agriculture's recognition of Century Farms is made at five-year intervals and the Heiland ranch would have waited until 1975 to be added to the list if it were not for the Historical Society centennial.

Five other new Century Farms are being honored Friday. None are from the Emerald
