W. J. Kelly

81

Albany, Oregon
July 16, 1958

I, W. J. Kelly, being first duly sworn depose and say that J. J. Kelly, my grandfather, took up a D.L.C. consisting of 640 acres, located in T. 10 Sec. 27, S.R. 2W. This being done when taxes were collected in full for Territorial, County and School tax, in the years before Oregon was admitted to the union.

Upon the death of J. J. Kelly said property was heired by his wife, America B. Kelly, my grandmother.

I further certify that upon the death of America B. Kelly, said property was divided among the children, namely: W. R. Kelly, J. H. Kelly, Anna B. Kelly Holt, C. W. Kelly, Maude Kelly Moore, and Mary Kelly Quenner.

I further certify that in the year 1911 my father, W. R. Kelly heired a portion of this original D.L.C.

I further state upon oath that upon the death of my father, W. R. Kelly, in the year 1927, I, W. J. Kelly, heired his portion of said original claim, and have lived and owned, managed and farmed said farm since that time.

I further certify that this farm has been in the family possession continually, for more than 100 years.

Rt. 3
Scio, Ore.
