I, Dan Blair, residing at Buell, County of Polk, State of Oregon, being first duly sworn, under oath do depose and say that I am the grand-son of Thomas R. Blair who took up a Donation Land Claim on Mill Creek, in Polk County, described as Section 16 & 17 and 20 & 21 - Township 6 S - Range 6 W, as recorded in the County Recorders Office, Polk County Court House, Dallas, Oregon.

I, and each of my four sisters and one brother, still retain and derive income from our portions of the Donation Land Claim, which we inherited from our father Cyrus Blair, son of Thomas R. Blair. My home is the original homestead and was once known at the Elk Horn Post Office.

Thomas R. Blair came to Oregon in 1843. He married Emmaline Buell in 1848 and they then took up the Donation Land Claim.

Abstracts showing continuous family ownership are available.
