ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

This property was the original John B. Pennington land claim. John Crimmins married the daughter of John B. Pennington and in September 1866 this property was deeded to him. His son, Stephen A. Crimmins, acquired the place in the early 1900s. My father, Cecil Crimmins who was the son of Stephen A. Crimmins, purchased the property from the estate in 1944. In 1956, I purchased the property from my father.
