CFR 0773

Mr. Carl C. Prantl

To qualify as a Century Farm a farm must have not less than 10 acres with a gross income from farm use of not less than $500 per year for three out of the five years immediately preceding application for Century Farm honors.

CFR0773

APPLICATION FOR CENTURY FARM HONORS--1974 (Rules Attached) Deadline for filing application: July 1, 1974

PLEASE PRINT
Your name (Mr., Mrs., Miss) MR Carl C. Prantl
Your address: Route / P.O. Box 194 Town Lewais, Oue
Location of farm: 22 mi SE. Gervais, Howell Prairierd - Marion (Address) (County) 151-48
(Address) (County) 757.48 Acres in your farm today: 50.73 Acres in original farm: 100
Does your farm comply with the definition at top of page? Ves
Name of family member who was founder or original owner of farm (please print): $John PrantL$
Year founder settled on farm? 1874 Where did he come from?
How many families have farmed this land? 3
Are any of original buildings still in use?
Who farms land today? You? yes A renter? A manager? Other?
If you own the farm but live in town, do you manage the farming operation?
What relation are you to the original owner? Grandson
If you know crops or livestock raised on farm 100 years ago, please list MO
What do you raise on farm today? Berries, Alfalfa, Mursery Stock, m
Arabian Hosses,
How many generations live on the farm today? (Names) Carl Prantl & Son,
FRANK PRANTL
Has the farm ever been rented? How many times has original farm been divided? Once
Please list on separate page attached other historical facts you know about this farm.
Do you declare that the statements made above are accurate and correct to the best of your knowledge?
Mail to: Oregon Dept. of Agriculture Agriculture Bldg., Salem, OR 97310
(Signature of ormer)

(Signature of owner)

Form A - Century Farm Program

Oregon Department of Agriculture Oregon Historical Society

CERTIFICATION OF OWNERSHIP OF CENTURY FARM

I hereby certify that the farm for which Carl C Prantl (Owner's name and address)

Rt 1 Box 194 Gervais, Oregon is applying for Century Farm Honors, has been in his family continuously for 100 or more years.

County Commissioner-Recorder

JUN 2 0 1974

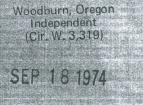

(Date)

*Please strike office not applicable

Page 2 - 1974 Century Farm Application

Submitted by Carl & Prantl (Name and Address)

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Allen's P. C. B Est. 1888

Woodbarn-Independent

Section II

Community Scene

200

of Gervais (above) look over a family heirloom, his mother's clock. The Prantl's front door window (below) of frosted glass with intricate designs is shadowed by their silhouette.

Story

And

Photos

By.

Janet Sonnen

國家國

Prantl Farm A Hundred; Family History Recorded

It took a 100 years, but the Carl Prantls now have a century farm and complete family history as well.

The Prantls, who live near Gervais, celebrated the century anniversary of the farm recently and at the same time presented relatives present with a copy of the family history. The booklet is entitled "The Century Anniversary of the Prantl Farm.

The Prantls had heard about the century farm program sponsored by the Oregon Historical Society and Department of Agriculture Prantl knew the place they lived on had been farmed continuously for 100 years by his family.

But that is only one requirement, and so Mrs. Prantl began the process of proving it. First, she spent two days at the Marion County Recorders office trying to find the necessary records. And by what she could find she concluded that the farm would not qualify. She had discovered that the place was originally the donation land claim of Albert Woodington. But the deed had not been recorded for his transaction until December 12, 1883. Prantl reassured his wife that the farm was in his family for 100 years.

Pioneer Trust and Title company in Salem where she immediately located all the records she needed. She discovered that Woodington had in fact sold the place to William Magers on August 14, 1871. The Woodington property in various portions then changed hands five times in two years.

Finally, it is recorded in the Marion County Recorder's Office that a man named J.F Staiger sold 151.48 acres to John Brandl and Frank Kubreau May 4, 1874. The Prantls believe the price was $2100.

The records also reveal that on December 11, 1876, Franz Kobrian (Frank Kubreau in French), and John Prantl (a variation in the spelling) divided the land, so that John Prantl acquired 102.48 acres. Frank Prantl inherited 50.13 acres from his parents, and Peter Prantl another 50.13 acres. The transaction was recorded on house and acreage from his parents, the Frank Frantis Alter the proof of their century farm had been confirmed and the Prantis knew they were in line for an award. they decided to carry project one step further Father Athanasious of St. Ben edict, at Mt, Angel is a relative of both Mr. and Mrs. Prantl. He offered to gather together the history of the Prantl family so that it could be presented to relatives during the anniversary celebration.

"In researching the history, Father Athanasious found many spellings of the Prantl name." says Mrs. Prantl. She explains, "Much of the information came from the Catholic church records of the area. Because the priests were of different origins, and their parishioners for the most part were illiterate, names were spelled from sound,"notes Mrs. Prantl. This is further explained in the family history. "There is every variation in the spelling of the name Prantl or Brandl. One thing is sure: if was pro-nounced Prantl, because in the southern German dialects, the b is pronounced p, and the d is pronounced t.

The first mention of the Pranil family in church records is in the St. Louis parish re-cords which are preserved in the Chancery Archives in Port-land, St. Louis parish is located vest of Gervais An excerpt from the family listory explains the beginnings of the Prantl family in America. John Brandl, the forefather of

was very dark in those woods, which had stands of huge fir trees," says Prantl.

The house the Prantls live in now dates back to 1888. There have been some alterations and modernization projects in and on the house, but for the most part the house is the same.

Prantl says when his parents were wed there were a total of 13 people living in the two story, 4 bedroom, structure. This included hired hands who helped with the hops, apples and prunes, which were the crops of the farm.

The Prantls, who operate a diversified farm, say there are several springs on the place. His grandfather John Prantl had a still near the edge of a slough on the farm. "The slough on the farm. "The springs were used in cooling the coils," says Prantl.

In the family history book it says "On the back part of the place at the edge of the slough there was a spring of unknown depth, and the waters were considered medicinal and very good. Even the Indians used to go back and use the spring water Along with their history book made to celebrate the farm's anniversary, the Prantis are also proud of a parchment certificate received at the State Fair, which says the following: Prantl Farm, founded 1874, with the award of this certificate is duly enrolled by the Oregon Historical Society as a Century Farm in recognition of 100 years enduring service in the finest agricultural tradition of the State of Oregon."

Prantl Farm A Hundred; Family History Recorded

It took a 100 years, but the Carl Prantis now have a century farm and complete family history as well. The Prantls, who live near

naum

Wood Burn Oller

M 2-9002000 Sep 16, 1974

Gervais, celebrated the century anniversary of the farm recently and at the same time presented relatives present with a copy of the family history. The booklet is entitled "The Century Anniversary of the Prantl Farm

The Prantls had heard about the century farm program sponsored by the Oregon Historical Society and Department of Agriculture. Prantl knew the place they lived on had been farmed continuously for 100 years by his family.

But that is only one requirement, and so Mrs. Prantl began the process of proving it. First, she spent two days at the Marion County Recorders office trying to find the necessary records. And by what she could find she concluded that the farm would not qualify. She had discovered that the place was originally the donation land claim of Albert Woodington. But the deed had not been recorded for his transaction until December 12, 1883. Prantl reassured his wife that the farm was in his family for 100 years. She was finally steered to Pioneer Trust and Title company in Salem where she immediately located all the records she needed. She discovered that Woodington had in fact sold the place to William Magers on August 14, 1871. The Woodington property in various portions then changed hands five times in two years.

Finally, it is recorded in the Marion County Recorder's Office that a man named J.F. Staiger sold 151.48 acres to John Brandl and Frank Kubreau May 4, 1874. The Prantls believe the price was $2100.

The records also reveal that on December 11, 1876, Franz Kobrian (Frank Kubreau in French), and John Prantl (a variation in the spelling) divid-ed the land, so that John Prantl ed the land, so that John Prantl acquired 102.48 acres. Frank Prantl inherited 50.13 acress from his parents, and Peter Prantl another 50.13 acres. The transaction was recorded on January 3, 1898. In 1946 Carl Drantl lack measurement the January 3, 1898. In 1946 Carl Pranti took possession of the house and acreage from his parents, the Frank Prantis. After the proof of their century farm had been con-firmed and the Prantis knew they were in line for an award, they decided to carry the project one step further. Eather Athanasions of St. Ben

Father Athanasious of St. Ben edict, at Mt. Angel is a relative of both Mr. and Mrs. Prantl. He offered to gather together the history of the Prantl family so that it could be presented to relatives during the anniversary celebration.

"In researching the history Father Athanasious found many spellings of the Prantl name," says Mrs. Prantl. She explains, "Much of the information came from the Catholic church records of the area. Be-cause the priests were of different origins, and their parishioners for the most part were illiterate, names were spelled from sound," notes Mrs. Prantl. This is further explained in the family history. "There is the family history. "There is every variation in the spelling of the name Prantl or Brandl. One thing is sure: it was pro-nounced Prantl, because in the southern German dialects, the b is pronounced p, and the d is pronounced t.

The first mention of the Prantl family in church records is in the St. Louis parish re-cords, which are preserved in the Chancery Archives in Portland. St. Louis parish is located west of Gervais.

An excerpt from the family history explains the beginnings of the Prantl family in America. John Brandl, the forefather of all the descendents of the Prantls, came to the United States from that part of Austria known as the Tyrol, i.e., that part nearest Switzerland. This was personally told to the writer by Mr. Alfred Huber, who was from Switzerland, who person-ally heard it from John Prantl. It was also told to the writer by Anton Hurlimann, originally from Switzerland, who knew the Prantls in the distant past." The family history is very detailed telling about the births, marriages and deaths of the Prantl family. The history continues to the fourth generation of Prantls.

The original Prantl house was a log cabin with a little dug out basement. The Prantls note it n, Yasuo Hosaka and Kimiya was located on the old coach 1 garden by Kevin Egly. The road, a local run they surmise, ind St. John homes. which went through the farm. Prantl recalls the woods were known for their thick stand of timber. "Even during the day it says Pastor Bru

clock will be ervice.

was very dark in those woods, which had stands of huge fir trees," says Prantl.

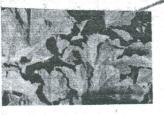

The house the Prantls live in now dates back to 1888. There have been some alterations and modernization projects in and on the house, but for the most part the house is the same.

Prantl says when his parents were wed there were a total of 13 people living in the two story, 4 bedroom, structure. This included hired hands who helped with the hops, apples and prunes, which were the crops of the farm.

The Prantls, who operate a diversified farm, say there are several springs on the place. His grandfather John Prantl had a still near the edge of a slough on the farm. "The slough on the farm. "The springs were used in cooling the coils," says Prantl.

In the family history book it says "On the back part of the place at the edge of the slough there was a spring of unknown depth, and the waters were considered medicinal and very good. Even the Indians used to go back and use the spring water.

Along with their history book made to celebrate the farm's anniversary, the Prantls are also proud of a parchment certificate received at the State Fair, which says the following: Prantl Farm, founded 1874, with the award of this certificate is duly enrolled by the Oregon Historical Society as a Century Farm in recognition of 100 years enduring service in the finest agricultural tradition of the State of Oregon

Sept. Services Same