

CFR 0050

Edna M. Durant

Molalla, Oregon
July 18, 1958

I, George S. Durant, hereby make the following statement on behalf of my wife, Edna M. Durant and certify that the same is true to the best of my knowledge and belief:

That Clifton Callahan, grandfather of Edna M. Durant, was the original owner of the Clifton Callahan D.L.C. consisting of 632 acres and that Julia F. Staudinger (nee, Callahan) daughter of said Clifton Callahan thereafter owned the same and that the above named Edna M. Durant, daughter of Julia F. Staudinger now owns 32.83 acres of the original land claim.

That said property is located in Township 5 South, Range 2 East Clackamas County, Oregon and that said real property has been continuously in the ownership of my wife's grandfather, mother and then my wife for over a period of 100 years.

That said Edna M. Durant is presently living at Route 2, Box 83, Molalla, Oregon. She is still the owner and manages the farm described above.

The original Donation Land Claim was originally granted to Clifton Callahan on September 28, 1952.
